A backward glance at Yesterday—A view of our college life Today— A glimpse of our dream campus Tomorrow—These we present to you on the following pages. Our hope is that this glance at Yesterday will bring happy memories to the members of those classes, that the view of Today may in the future bring pleasant thoughts to us, and that the glimpse of Tomorrow may be an inspiration to help bring our dream campus to a reality. York College lives Yesterday—Today—Tomorrow.

95, MR. DON ELLISON, JAN 2000

Only Yesterday

We came to U. C. as freshmen eager for the years that lay ahead of us. 1943 brought the thrills of the games played by our state basketball champs.

"Close harmony, " we think. Jolly up, 1944.

Invited to attend the Kansas City National Intercollegiate Basketball Tourney

They Were State Champs

Food tasted mighty good after a hard day's work on Clean-up Day, 1945.

By 1944 and 1945 our college began to feel seriously the loss of men called to armed service and our enrollment dropped to nearly half its normal number. In spite of this handicap, we tried to carry on, to keep up our activities, to hold high the spirit of Y. C. until the day when these men would once again return to our halls.

The Class of 1945 was the smallest class to graduate from York College in a quarter century. Though they were few in number, this class carried out the usual activities of a senior class. In February they entertained us juniors at the home of their sponsor, Miss Zelda Wakelin.

A Harvest Banquet with Queen Ceres, Frances Hickey, reigning, was the highpoint of the fall festivities.. This year marked a change in the May Day tradition. The fete was held in the evening in the parlors of the college church. Eunice Stauffer was chosen queen.

FRANCES HICKEY

 Third row: Pattie Weidler, Blanche Leach, Mary Miller, Martha Cox.
 Fourth row: Kenneth Hicks, student prince, Queer. Eunice Stauffer, Betty Taylor, maid of honor.

And now we leave Yesterday and the classes that have gone before us, and present to you in the following pages a picture of our campus Today.

Today

A typical Monday chapel service finds Dean Charles Amadon ready to lead in a hymn with Miss Eda Rankin at the piano, and Dr. E. I. Doty asking, "Are there any announcements?"

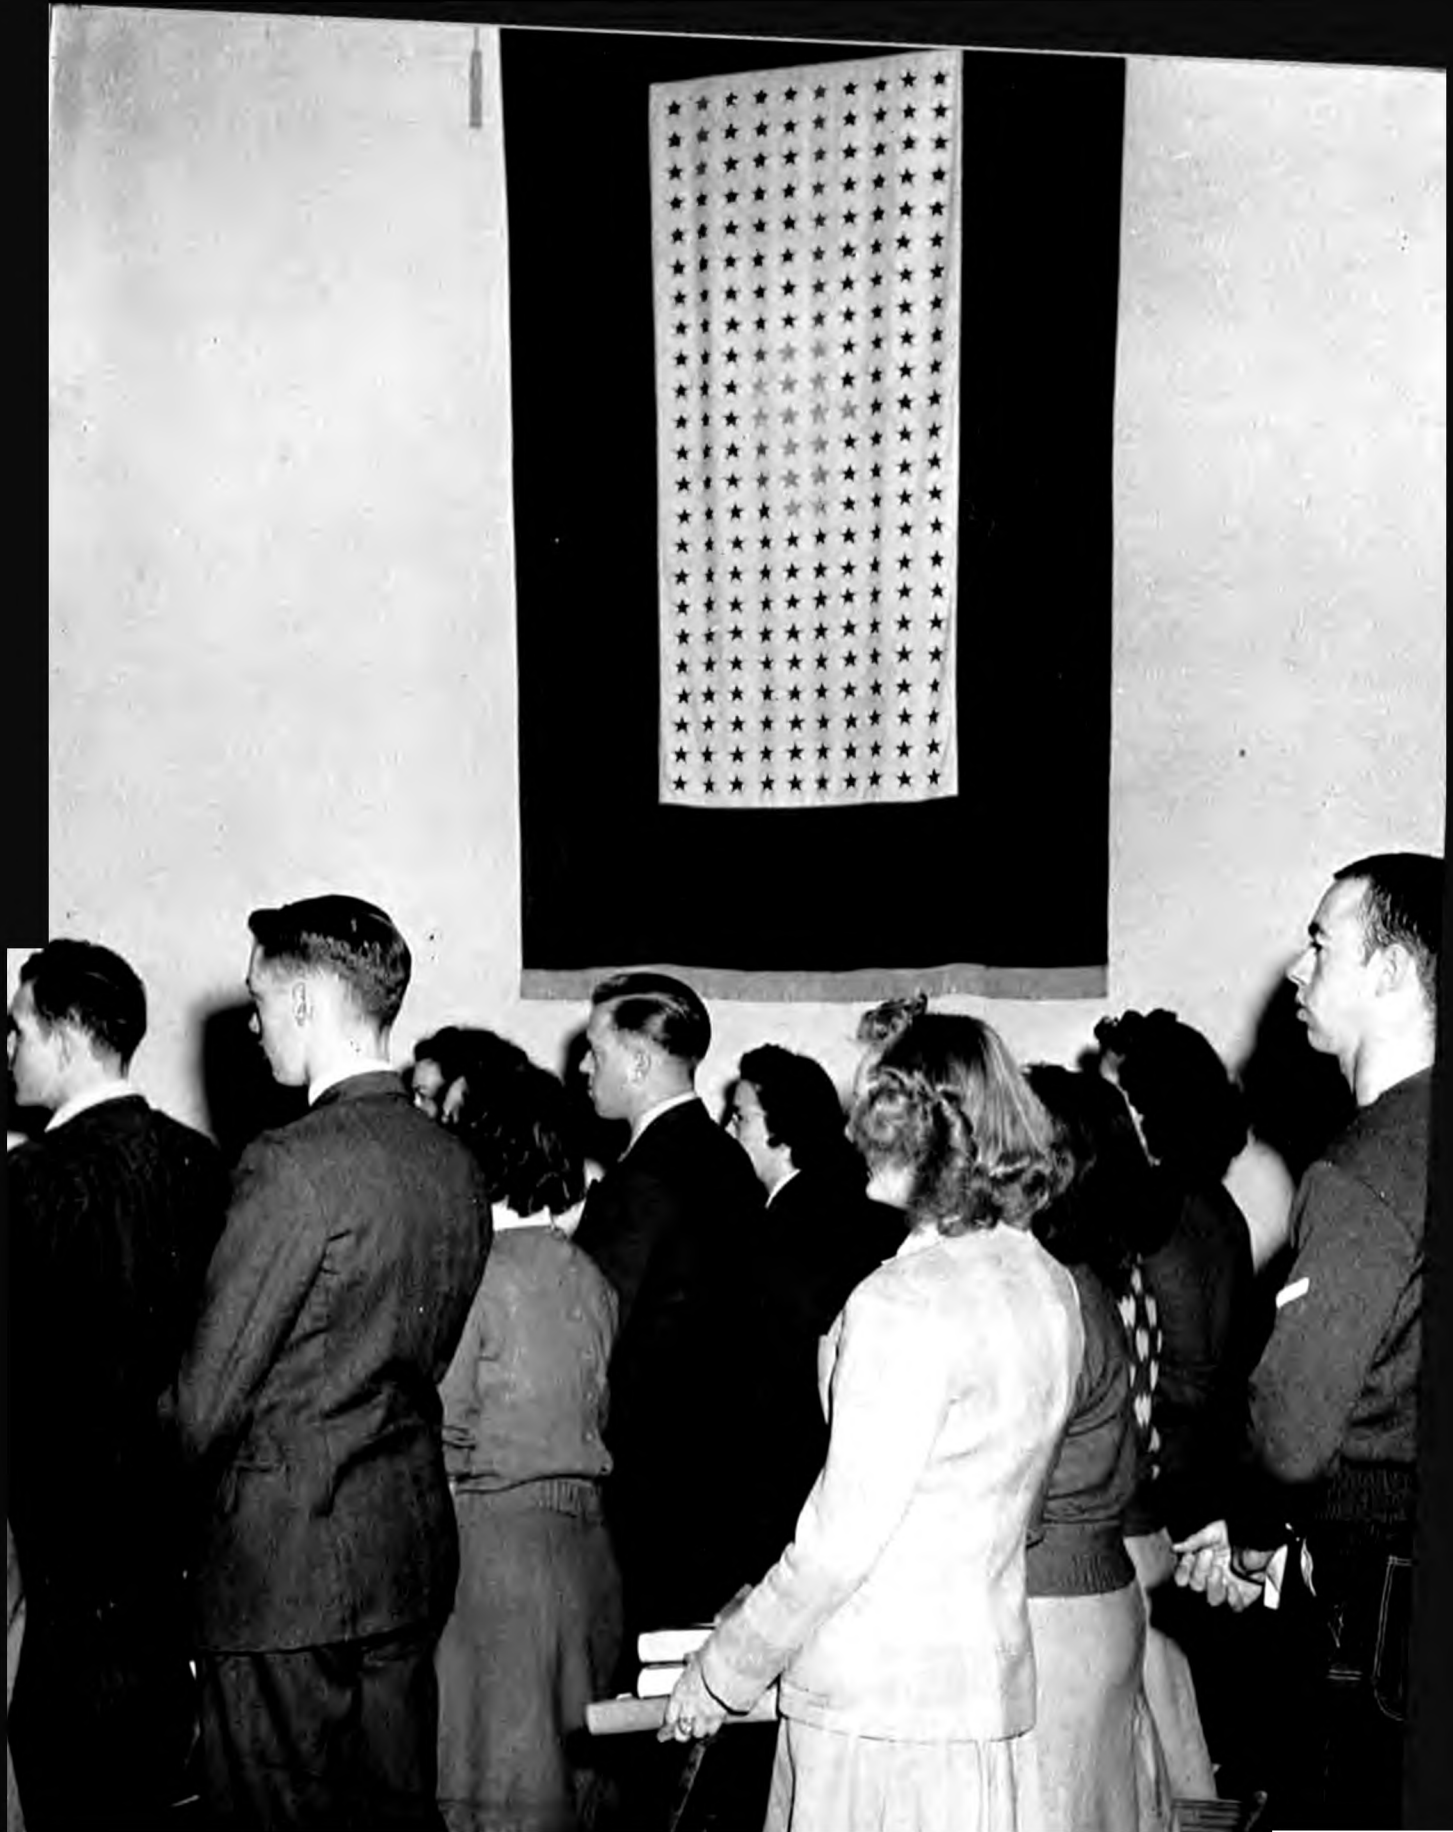

Student football coaches, Denny Auchard and Don Robson, talk it over.

The end of the war and the beginning of the atomic age has given a new outlook to youth. Our enrollment has almost doubled that of last year. Service men, seeing the needs of a war-torn world, seek more education, and are returning to our halls.

"Welcome back, Paul!" A glimpse of some of the former service men on our campus.

LT. (jg) LESTER AUCHARD, USNR, Woodston, Kansas, was a radar officer aboard a submarine which was reported missing in June, 1945. He was awarded the Submarine Combat Insignia Medal in absentia.

LT. (jg) WARREN CALLAHAN, York, enlisted as a naval aviator (dive bomber pilot). His plane crashed in the Panama Canal Zone, June 18, 1943.

LT. ORVILLE COTNER, York, served in the Army Air Corps as a pilot of a B-17. His plane was shot down over "Berlin" in February, 1945. The Purple Heart was awarded to him posthumously.

To these men, former students of York College, who have given their lives in the service of their country, do we dedicate the 1946 Marathon. These young men have given their Today that we might have our Tomorrow.

(Not pictured.)

COMMANDER JAMES HANNA, Riverside, Illinois. He died of illness in the South Pacific area.

LT. EUGENE SELL, Army Air Corps. His B-18A bomber crashed near Hamilton Field, California, October 24, 1941.

LT. WAYNE DAHLSTEDT, York, was killed in action with the 7th Army in Germany, March 31, 1945. He was awarded the Silver Star posthumously.

LT. WILSON GILMORE, York, enlisted in the U. S. Army Infantry Division. He was killed in action in Italy, March, 1944. The Silver Star Medal was awarded to him posthumously.

SGT. BRYCE HANNA, York, was a member of the National Guards. He was killed in the European theatre, November 16, 1944. Mrs. Hanna received the Purple Heart Citation and the Scroll signed by the President.

LT. J. T. HILTON, Mead, Colorado, was Commanding Officer of the 106th Chemical Impregnating Co. He died at Camp Sibert, Alabama, February, 1943.

LT. ROBERT OSWALD, Aurora, was a navigator on a B-24 in the Army Air Corps. His plane was shot down over Saigon, French Indo China, June, 1945.

LT. JOHN PETERSON, York, was a pilot of a P-47 Thunderbolt. He flew a reconnaissance mission over Germany. He was killed in April, 1945.

CAPT. FLOYD RICHERT, White Tail, Montana, was a Chaplain in the 316th Army Air Force Troop Carrier Group. His plane crashed in England, March, 1944.

LT. DEAN HITCHCOCK, Portland, Oregon, was with the Army Air Corps 439th Fighter Squadron, Tallahassee, Florida. His plane crashed at Manitou Springs, Colorado, in the summer of 1944.

LT. DONALD HITCHCOCK, Portland, Oregon, was with the Army 104th Infantry Division. He was killed in the plane crash with his brother, Dean, at Manitou Springs, Colorado, in the summer of 1944.

PFC. JOHN KEVE, St. Joseph, Missouri, died in the Cabanatuan Prison Camp, on October 18, 1942. He was buried in Luzon. He served with the Medical Unit.

CAPT. JOHN SANDALL, Lincoln, was on a B-24 in the 15th Air Corps. He served in North Africa and Italy. His plane was shot down over Munich, July 19, 1944. He was posthumously awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Bronze Medal.

ENS. GEORGE SHANEYFELT, Central City, served as Communications Officer aboard the LST 460. He went down with his ship in Philippine waters, December, 1944. He was Company Commander of his Midshipman Class. The Purple Heart was awarded to him posthumously.

SGT. ROBERT WITT, Shickley, was a member of the famed Jolly Rogers Squadron of the Air Corps, New Guinea. His plane crashed in February, 1944. He was awarded posthumously the Purple Heart and the Presidential Citation.

Our Ruling Body

THE STUDENT COUNCIL IN ACTION—President Robert Vance presents President Weidler with two additional shields to complete our service list.

The Student Council, composed of representatives from all classes and organizations, is the governing body on our campus. This group, through the years, has set up the constitution upon which the extra-curricular activities of our college life are regulated.

This Book Is Their Goal

The birth of a Marathon is a long and hard process. Since November this staff has been busy arranging for pictures, soliciting ads, writing copy, promoting sales, and conferring with Mr. Bill De Oriendt, of the Capital Engraving Company. But in years to come this task will be rewarded by the pleasant memories this book will recall.

They Write The News—

Compiling the college paper, the Sandburr, is the job of the Press Guild, under the guidance of Miss Edith Callender, faculty adviser. The Sandburr comes out every two weeks, and is distributed to approximately 1600 alumni and students besides those on the campus. The paper followed our service men to all continents during the years of the war.

Football Revived

After two years of storage, the old football togs were brought out and checked to eighteen football prospectives. Football in 1945 took the form of six-man play, because of lack of material to promote an eleven-man team. As Coach R. E. Tonkin had not yet returned to Y. C., coaching was under the direction of students, Denny Auchard and Don Robson.

Four games were played with an outcome of two wins and two losses, the outstanding game being the homecoming game with a 38-19 victory over Dana College of Blair. Next fall eleven-man football will again be revived, with three weeks of spring practice in April, 1946, under the direction of Coach Tonkin, as a fore runner.

Under the direction of Coach R. E. Tonkin, basketball practice started the week following Thanksgiving. Five games were played before Christmas vacation with a result of two wins and three losses. However, the team was strengthened following Christmas vacation with the return of several veterans. Second semester opened with still more vets, three of whom were on the first five. The season was an average one resulting in eight wins and ten losses. The outstanding game was York's 57-49 win over the Hastings Broncos, NCAC Champions.

COACH R. E. TONKIN

Following Thanksgiving vacation 1945, Coach Tonkin returned to Y. C. to again take over the coaching duties. In spite of the fact that the team had only an average basketball season, three of Coach Tonkin's players made all-state honorable mention. They were: Denny Auchard, Don Robson, and Harvey Holbrook. Denny Auchard was also second-high in the NCAC conference scoring.

Representative Man and Woman—These two seniors have been elected by the student body as representative man and woman. This honor tops a college career, packed full of activities, for these two. The election is sponsored by the Student Council, and the requirements for those elected are that they be outstanding on the campus—in the classroom, in the literary societies, in extracurricular activities.

Proudly Presents

The 1946 May Queen—She will reign over the May Day Fete on Friday, May 24. This election was also made by the student body, and was sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. A girl is honored by the election of queen because of her "all-roundness", and because of some effort she has made in Y. W. C. A. We congratulate these personalities.

And Tomorrow

Fifty-six years of progress marks the steady advancement of York College and its traditions of Christian service. This college has proved itself to be a vital part of the church and of the community of York. Through periods of depression and during times of war, this college has maintained its high standards and acquired a position of recognized permanance.

"I remember a cinder path over there"—reminisces Dr. W. C. Noll, 1911, as he stands on the site of the new dormitory with students, Gene Jameson, Amherst, Nebraska; Harriet Thomas, Topeka, Kansas; Fred Vorce, Brookfield, Missouri; and Mary Alice Riggs, Ames, Iowa. The newly acquired dormitory annex now undergoing renovation can be seen in the background.

"Here will be a built-in chest of drawers with a closet on each side"—explains President D. E. Weidler, as he studies the blueprints for the new dormitory with Rev. M. B. Canon, Director of Public Relations, Miss Jean Mattingly, Hostess of Hulitt Hall, and Dean W. E. Bachman.

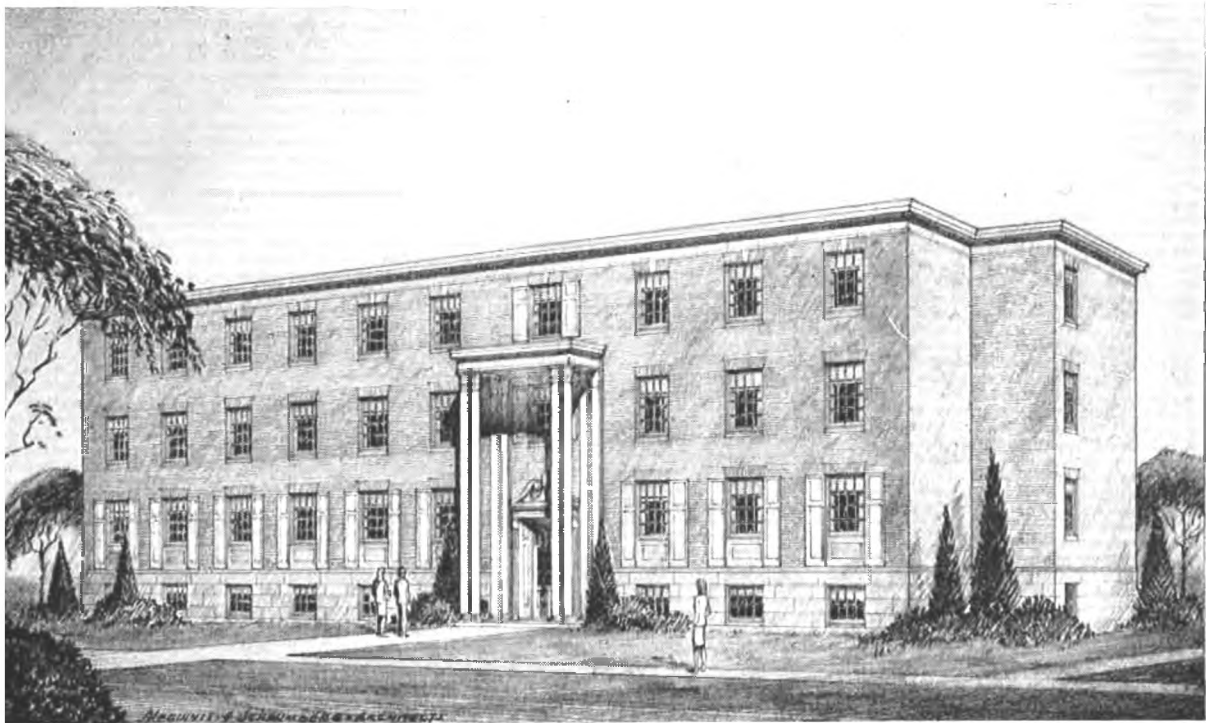

Pres. D. E. Weidler pays a friendly visit to Mr. Orman Jeffery, a pioneer farmer of York County, who is one of the larger contributors to the Greater York College Campaign.

Early in 1943, a Greater York College Campaign took shape, and on February 23, a $350,000 program was inaugurated, having been approved by the Board of Administration of the denomination. Bishop U. O. Weidler was appointed chairman, and Dr. S. B. Williams, executive secretary. A local merchant, Mr. F. C. Middlebrook, started the Campaign by a cash gift of $15,000. The Greater York College Campaign was officially launched Commencement Day, 1944. Dr. J. J. Good, Indianapolis, Indiana, was chosen director and worked from July 1, until the holidays of that year. The Rev. Virgil Hague succeeded him in August, 1945.

Half of the amount was to be placed in the endowment fund; the rest was to be used for buildings and equipment. The Campaign having reached over a quarter of a million dollars, it was possible to go ahead with the plans for the first building. On December 6, 1945, a Building Committee was appointed with power to act. They were Mr. F. C. Middlebrook, chairman; Dr. G. J. Savery, secretary; Dean W. E. Bachman, Mr. E. P. Hildebrand, Mr. E. A. Levitt, Mr. E. L. Malster, Pres. D. E. Weidler, and Dr. S. B. Williams. This committee chose the Meginnis and Schaumberg Co. of Lincoln, to prepare plans, and signed the contract with them March 27, 1946. With a forward look to the future, this Campaign moves ahead.

The problem of choosing from so many lovely styles faces Bette Cunningham and Pattie McCormick when they shop for fur coats at the SMART AND THRIFTY SHOP. Clerks Marie Morgan and Pearl Blackburn are ready to help in the solution as Mr. Rosenberg, manager, looks on.

Mr. Zethren, manager of the new COAST TO COAST STORE, and Clarence Mabon demonstrate the required skill in flourishing a broom and mop. Wanda Wantz absorbs the knowledge for future use.

Buying shoes always delights Imogene Bland and that thrill is doubled when she has all the varieties from MEEHAN'S SHOE STORE from which to choose. Laverne Lake assures Lois Shaneyfelt that the shoes from Meehan's are good quality.

Miss Mattingly declares to Howard May, who is showing her a bouquet, that she has seen many of the corsages from the YORK FLORAL SHOP at the "Con," especially when there is a formal function. Mr. Grover May looks on.

Those on the campus who are fortunate enough to own cars know that Paul Geis' attractive TEXACO SERVICE STATION is a good place to have the car serviced.

Ex-servicemen Bill Luby and Leonard Davis feel that they are really home again when they can sip cokes at MEREDITH'S BOOK STORE. Marcella Walker and Joan Schark are willing to help make them feel at home. Bill Campbell, also an ex-serviceman, is the new owner of the store.

Even waiting is pleasant when it can be done in the comfort of the McCLOUD HOTEL lobby. Hope Howland and Wilma Murphy are waiting to see Mr. Davis, the manager, about reservations for their parents over the week-end.

Fred Vorce hungrily eyes the thick steak that Bob Moomey is proudly displaying. Ivalee Mizell maintains that the food and especially the clerking service in MOOMEY'S MARKET are exceptional.

Mr. Foster, who is a loyal Y. C. booster, hands Roberta Allen a dress that she has just had cleaned. Ruth Auchard says that she likes the cleaning service of FOSTER DRY CLEANERS and that the deliveries made to the "Con" are certainly convenient.

Even roommates are in harmony when choosing clothes from CHAPMAN'S STYLE SHOP. Marie Harris approves Jean Rasp's date dress and can hardly wait to try on one for herself.

The ideal place to go for birthday dinners, for special occasions, or when company comes to town is the attractive new HOBBS CAFE. Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs present the menu for today to Jane Martin, Ruth Auchard, Roberta Allen, and Denny Auchard. Good food and friendly service are assured.

While Mr. Baker cuts Walter Will's hair, he comments to Mr. Nelson about the many kinds of hair styles he has cut for "campus lads." His talent includes everything from "butch" haircuts to sideburns. BAKER'S BARBER SHOP also includes a department for the women.

Three freshmen girls are starting their college careers wisely by shopping at PENNY'S. Mrs. Robson is helping Wanda Miller select a spring dress while Jean Jaques comments to Eva Evenson on Penny's nice new third floor.

Watching a Bendix washer demonstration - at CONSUMER'S PUBLIC POWER, being given by Jeannette Bedient. Mrs. Holst and Mrs. Tomlinson confess that this is one of the items in the many lines of products featured at Consumer's that heads their "wishing" list.

The beautiful ring that Mrs. Barret and Mr. Hilder are showing the girls looks smart on Irene Falk's hand. Jane Martin and Pattie Weidler agree with Irene that HILDER'S jewelry always reveals good taste.

"Meet us at GERHARD'S" seems to be the motto of the college gang since that new ice cream shop was opened. Denny Auchard, Iona Shaw, Lois Anderson, Ruth Sanchez, and Don Robson approve wholeheartedly of the idea.

Glen Shaneyfelt finds shopping for "civies" a pleasure at MIDDLEBROOK'S DEPARTMENT STORE. Gene Langseth helps him in his decision while Floyd Nelson looks on approvingly. Women, too, find shopping convenient in the other departments of the store.

College students have discovered that for friendly service the PHILLIPS 66 STATION is ahead. Little Jo Ann Rakestraw is proud to wear a uniform that matches that of her father, the proprietor, and of his assistants, Ronald Fickes and Leonard Reed.

"The chairs from the house of the BAER'S are neither too hard nor too soft," laughs Mrs. "Goldilocks" Reger. Mr. Reger, Mr. and Mrs. McMinn all maintain that Baer's is the place to shop for their "Dream House" furniture.

While selling an ad to the VOGUE DRESS SHOP, Harley Danner stops to lend his expert advice to Ruth Auchard who is buying a coat. Miss Emma Ferguson and Mrs. Estelle LeRoy. offer helpful suggestions.

College students find the combination of spring weather and the fine assortment of food stuffs in GRAND CENTRAL too much to resist. The results are picnics, hikes, and wiener roasts.

Virginia Gregg agrees with Mary and Beth Anderson that no spread at the "Con" would be complete without some pastries from the SOUTHSIDE BAKERY. Although inexperienced at that point, Blaine Ronne knows that Mrs. Elsasser's nut rolls are "tops."
