

May Day Plans Laid Name of Queen Secret

Shakespearian Play to be Presented

Even though it is only April, plans for May Day are already in vogue. As yet the lucky girl chosen for queen has not been informed of her royalty and according to all rumors she is not to know of her fate until a short time beforehand so consequently "mystery doth surround us."

The play to be presented this year is strictly classical and seemingly in harmony with the month of May. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Shakespeare is to be given using natural scenery of the campus for the fairlike setting. Most of the readers are familiar with this comedy, revolving about the love juice which the vivacious "Puck" uses quite indiscreetly causing the lovers to be sadly confused since with the love juice in their eyes, their affections are reversed and all fall in love with the wrong person for a time.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Thesus, Duke of Athens
..... Billy Thompson
Lysander, lover of Hermia
..... David Brown
Demetrius, his rival
..... Fred Loreman
Egeus, father of Hermia
..... David Friesen
Philostrate, master of the revels
..... Marie Alfferbach
Nick Bottom, the weaver
..... Chester Smith
Quince, the carpenter
..... Paul Kalmbach
Snug, the joiner Harold Ashmore
Flute, the bellows-mender
..... Ivan Jenkins
Snout, the tinker Marian Norris
Starveling, the tailor
..... Theodore Thompson
Officers, Soldiers and Attendants
Hippolyta, Queen of the Amazonians Violet Norton
Hermia, in love with Lysander
..... Leona Stafford
Helena, in love with Demetrius
..... Julia Bennett
Amazonians in attendance on Hippolyta.
Faries.
Oberon, King of Fairyland
..... Ethel Spore
Titania, his queen Pearl Shipman
Puck, or Robin Goodfellow
..... Dorothy Reid
First Fairy Lois Rasp
Peas-Blossom, Cobweb, Moths and Mustard Seed Small girls
The Cast is working on the production faithfully in order to make it the best ever.

W. A. A. STEAK-FRY

"When you come to the end of a perfect day," sang the W. A. A. girls as they rode back to town after a steak-fry held in the country on Thursday evening, March 27. And we felt that way too. Mae was proving an efficient driver for the truck. Nione had not fallen out yet and Betty and Jeff were walking back to town so we had reasons to be happy.

About three miles north of town in a little creek, the banks of which made an ideal spot for a fire, we made our camp. Frying steak over an open fire was a new experience for the most of us and we lost some in the ashes. Miss Lovell lost the most however, because every three minutes she would jump up and exclaim, "Oh, just look at the sunset now!" After everyone had eaten all of the buns and steak she wanted and the cookies she was allowed to have, we put some more wood on the fire and settled down for the business meeting. Then with the girls grouped around the fire the officers-elect were installed and the W. A. A. was taken charge of by the following.

Katherine Spore — President.
Eellen Mann — Vice-President.
Ardith Kull — Treasurer.

Summer School Planned For Big Enrollment

Regular Faculty to be Present

Plans are being laid for a large Summer School at York during the coming summer vacation. The Summer School opens on June 1 and continues until July 24.

It is hoped to make this summer session the largest ever held at York. At present it looks as if the enrollment in the college department would exceed 225 according to Prof. Bisset, director of the Summer School. Every effort is being made to make the summer school equal to the regular session in every way. Special care is being taken to make the summer session worth while for the teachers.

The calander is as follows:

Calander
May 28 to June 3 Commencement Week.

May 29, 30, June 1 Registration, Summer Session.

June 1, 9:30 A. M. Summer Session Opens.

July 4 Celebration.

July 9 Summer Session Picnic.

July 23, 24 Examinations.

July 24 Summer Session ends.

Sept. 8 Fall Semester Opens.

In the main the faculty will be the same as in the winter sessions.

On the Surface

Jones: "I hear your wife had an accident with the car."

Smith: "Oh, it was not serious."

Jones: "Any thing damaged?"

Smith: "Oh, no; just a little paint scratched off both."—Epworth Herald.

Margaret Hill — Secretary.

Our driver seemed very anxious to get back to town so the last of the fire was put out, cups collected and we rattled back having had a real time and lots of fun.

NEW Y. M. CABINET INSTALLED

The emphasis for the new year was placed on committee work and the unified co-operation of Y. M. members.

The meeting was opened by the singing of a familiar song "Love Divine." A fitting scripture was taken from one of the gospels, speaking of the Thursday before the crucifixion of Christ.

Our new sponsor, W. C. Noll took charge of the installation. The purposes of the Young Men's Christian Association were read.

The new officers installed were: President, Ivan Jenkins; Vice-President, Willis Smith; Treasurer, Theodore Thompson; Secretary, Orlan Arnold.

Mr. Jenkins, the new president gave us a short address and dismissed us with high hopes for the coming year.

MARATHON

The last section of the book has been sent to the printers and in a short time all the type will be set up. This means that in something over a month we hope to have the books ready for distribution. A number of extra copies are being printed which will enable those students who did not order theirs last fall to secure one. It is especially hoped that those who entered school at the beginning of the second semester will be interested and take advantage of this opportunity to own a Marathon.

GOOD GRID SCHEDULE

Coach Bob Russell has succeeded in lining up one of the best grid schedules that York has ever played. The Panthers will play the strongest of the Nebraska conference teams as well as some strong out-of-state teams. Both Peru and Chadron will appear at York next year. These teams were state champion grid runners-up respectively in last year's race.

Indications point to a large and experienced squad next fall. Only one letter man will be lost by graduation.

The Schedule

October 2: Tabor College, Tabor, Ia., here.

October 9: Midland, here.

October 16: Omaha university at Omaha (tentative)

October 23: Wayne Normal at Wayne.

November 6: Doane at Crete.

November 11: Peru here.

November 30: Chadron, here.

W. A. A. NOTES

The long delayed inter-class basketball tournament was played Thursday evening, April 2, at 4:30.

The Junior-Senior girls played the Freshmen. Winifred Wimmer was the champion goal-shooter making 24 points for the Junior-Seniors. During the first quarter, the score ran fairly even on both sides, but in the last quarter the Juniors-Seniors made one basket after another. The final score was 26 to 10 in favor of the Junior-Seniors.

Miss Eveland refereed the 1st half and Marie Afflerbach the second half.

"Y" Clubmen at Dinner Have Business Meeting

Lettermen Plan Picnic for May

The "Y" club held its regular meeting on Wednesday of last week. The men met and had dinner together at the conservatory. It is the plan to have these dinners at all regular meetings in the future. The men by meeting in a dinner party have a social time as well as a business hour together.

At the last meeting "Dizzy" Morgan presided in the absence of President Nichols. A brief business meeting was held following the dinner hour. A committee was appointed on the revision of the Constitution. Plans were laid for an outing for the "Y" men in May. This will probably be a picnic at some neighboring town with a good park.

The club also considered the advisability of an invitation high school track meet to be held in York in April under the auspices of the club. The men are also considering plans for the promoting of next year's football team.

The club has adopted a unique scheme to keep up the attendance. At each meeting a committee is appointed to wait upon the absentees with barrel staves. The punishment is in proportion to the validity of the excuse. So far no absent members have been clever enough to invent an excuse good enough to allow him to escape.

Track Squad Shows Form In High School Workout

Good Time Made in Races

A duel track meet between the college and the high school was staged on the college field, last Tuesday afternoon. The college men were able to carry off the majority of points, taking a first in practically every event they entered. Although the times for the majority of events were slow, this was probably due to the fact that the winners of the events were never pushed in order to win and in a number of events better marks had already been made earlier in the season.

Sternut cut a big gash in the time for the half mile when he paced into the home stretch and won the man-killer race in 2 minutes, 11 seconds, leading the nearest man by a full 200 yards. A new record was set in the discuss when Pickett lifted the oval for 110 feet, winning an easy first.

Price from the high school ran a pretty mile in 5 minutes 12 seconds. The college was not entered in this event. Friel from the high school won the 220 low hurdles in 30 seconds. These were the only firsts the high school took except Friel tied with Newton and Pickett in the high jump. Height 5 ft. 2 in. Newton and Pickett both had bettered this mark earlier in the season.

Fred Loreman won the quarter mile in 60 seconds. Burnham won the 100 yd. and 220 yd. dashes. The 100 yd. in 10 7-10 seconds and the 220 yd. in 24 2-10 seconds.

Ashmore took first in the pole vault at 9ft. Both Ashmore and Skinner had bettered this record earlier in the season. The college also won the quarter mile relay.

The events and the men placing in each event are as follows:

100 yd. Dash: First, Burnham; Second, Ashmore; Third, Fred Loreman. Time 10 7-10 seconds.

220 yd. Dash: First, Burnham; Second, Ashmore, Third, Tewell. Time 24 2-10 seconds.

220 yd. hurdles: First, Friel H. S.; Second, Newton. Time 30 seconds.

Pole Vault: First, Ashmore; Second, Skinner; Third, Gilbert H. S. Height 9 ft.

High Jump: Tied for First: Newton, Pickett, Friel H. S. Height 5 ft. 2 inches.

Discuss: First, Pickett; Second, Burnham; Third, Umberger H. S. Distance 110 ft.

Half Mile: First Sternut; Second, Keefe H. S., Third Loreman. Time 2 minutes 11 seconds.

Quarter Mile: First, Fred Loreman; Second, Bolton H. S., Third Roberts H. S. Time 60 seconds.

Mile: First, Price H. S. Time 5 minutes 12 seconds.

Quarter Mile Relay: First, College Van Wagenen, Tewell, Fred Loreman, Ashmore. Second H. S. Bolton, Reed, Houston, Friel.

ZETA PROGRAM, APRIL 7

The Zetas met at seven o'clock on Tuesday evening and dismissed promptly at eight to enable all to attend the piano recital.

The program of the evening consisted of reviews of articles from current magazines. This was not only instructive but very interesting.

Elizabeth Crane read "The Theatre" from, The Dial. Myron Holm told in an interesting way "Heaven's built of Concrete," from the Scientific American and Edna Schneider revealed the secrets of "Hell a-la Chinese" from the magazine, Asia.

We were glad to welcome the visitors present and we invite you back.

For some reason unknown to us the springtime is a season of unrest for the average college student. Even the book worn after sticking to his books all winter long shows decided tendency to shy off to new pursuits at the first warm day.

And this is a rather serious problem for the instructor. Just as he begins to plan his last big drive his students seem to lose interest and desert him. And York is not the only school in our fair land whose students are so affected. Witness the following from the New Student:

"Tra-la-la. Spring is here, and a college man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of steam-boats and freight cars. At Colorado State Agricultural College those smitten with the wanderlust ride off on sheep trains. "For get a return trip on the cushion from K. C. (Kansas City—Ed. Note), St. Joe or even Chicago, city of wind." Everybody bums. But bumming is not a discovery of this college generation. Eighty years ago, Dennison S. Harroun, the Adam of Albion College, (Mich.) student body, rode a covered wagon from Lima, New York to Michigan in order to enroll as the first student in the Michigan College.

A further manifestation of the fine spirit of loyalty of the people of York for York College was shown on the night of the presentation of Mariana. The house was packed with an appreciative audience.

The musical productions of York always draw a full house at home. This no doubt but in part to the confidence of the local people in Dean Amadon. They know as well as the student body that York College has one of the very best glee club directors in the west.

Why Envy Wales?

We do not envy the prince of Wales. He has wonderful publicity, travels on battleships and has fashions follow in his footsteps. The girls stand, waiting to dance with him, and the boys stand, waiting to turn their trousers up or their hats down in order to keep pace with the right thing as exemplified by the prince.

Farms are given to him by distant colonies, waterfalls are named in his honor and multitudes line far off streets to shout themselves hoarse as he goes past.

But the law of compensation is busy with the prince, the same as it is with the rest of us.

He has the advantage of you and me in the aforesaid respects, but we have him beaten by a million miles in one very important respect.

You and I can marry any girl we want—provided she will have us, but the prince has to marry for expediency.

They are now picking out the prince's sweetheart. They will determine her fitness, not by what she wants nor what the prince wants, but entirely with regard to helping out the royalty business.

We would rather be a hod carrier in the United States and tell Cupid where to head in! —New York American.

MEETING OF COLLEGE REPRESENTATIVES AT LINCOLN

On Friday, March 27, in the Temple building of the University of Nebraska, a group of seventy men and women assembled at the invitation of Chancellor Avery to discuss the social problem that exists among our young people of today. All of the colleges and universities of Nebraska were represented, the President of the institution in most cases attended in person, together with the Dean of Women, Dean of Men and some representative students.

The following program was arranged

At the left of this group is Lieut. J. A. Macready, U. S. A., former holder of the world's altitude record. Just behind the propeller you can see the G-E turbine supercharger which kept the Liberty motor running in the thin air, six miles high.

Over the mountain by a mile

Year after year, plucky explorers try to climb Mount Everest, the world's highest peak, 29,141 feet high.

With a G-E supercharger feeding air at sea-level pressure to the engine, an airplane pilot can go far higher. Lieut. Macready has reached 34,509 feet over Dayton, Ohio. He would have soared over Mount Everest with more than a mile to spare!

The tasks attempted for centuries in almost every form of human endeavor have been conquered with the aid of electricity, with more than a mile to spare.

The impossible today will be accomplished by men and women now in college. The scientist and engineer are doing their share. It remains for men and women entering upon their life's work to profit by the new opportunities that are constantly appearing in every profession and vocation in the land.

The supercharger is a turbine air compressor, which revolves as fast as 41,000 times a minute—the highest speed ever developed by a commercial machine. It is designed and made by the General Electric Company, which also builds the big turbines that supply electric light and power.

If you are interested in learning more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

2. How can public opinion best be focused on any needed improvement in the social practices of today? Leader, President Pate, Peru State Teachers College. (Paper was read by Mrs. Dunn, Dean of Women, President Pate not being present.)

3. What are the agencies that can be expected to co-operate in an attempt to stimulate interest in the creation of a more nearly ideal social life for young people and for society at large? Leader, Dean Amanda Hopper, University of Nebraska.

4. What contributions can college and university authorities make toward the establishment of social practices that will wholesomely react on society in general and on young people in particular? Leader, Chancellor Schreckengast, Wesleyan University.

5. How may college and university students initiate and execute constructive solutions for the social problems of young people? Leader, Stanley High, Leader of the World's Youth Movement. (In the absence of Mr. High, this topic was discussed by the representative students present.)

The papers and discussions attempted to arrive at the facts of the problems as they exist, and to answer the question, "What are we going to do about it?"

It was conceded that, while there was a laxity of modern youth, most of the reports concerning it were representative of only a small per cent of our students. Some of the influences that aid this laxity mentioned were, unchaperoned auto parties, moving pictures, dance halls, magazines, jazz, music, some modern songs and immodest dress.

To solve the problem of guidance of the young is greatly needed and the responsibility must be assumed by the community, the home, the church as well as by the colleges and student body. Mrs. Dunn, Dean of Women, of Peru, made a plea for the old-fashioned mother, and for parents to get together and make a concerted effort to regulate the life of their children. The school also must not shirk its responsibility, and training given in regular courses, instructed by people trained and up-to-date was suggested. Young people should be trained to be moral, girls taught modesty, boys not allowed to get by with invitations for petting parties and shady dance halls. Religious training also is essential.

Chancellor Schreckengast of Wesleyan suggested that one way of solving the problem would be to establish certain standard requirements for college students, that a moral standard could be set up and conventions and ideals demanded. The defense must be from within. The Chancellor outlined a program he had put into practice this year of having the best speakers that could be obtained in their line address the students at the convocation assembly on which attendance by the students is compulsory. He mentioned more instruction in this line in our courses and that sociology and social psychology should be required subjects.

The discussion by the students was extremely interesting, and one listening could but feel that they felt the seriousness of the problem keenly. They concluded that students should be trained in moral leadership, that instruction by members of the faculty and clubs would be a great aid, that the students had to assume their share if anything was to be accomplished. It was decided that the fight would be hard, but that, if we would think and act, we need not despair that it could be won.

SPORT SALAD

The track squad got their first taste of competition in the high school meet of last week. The squad turned in some fair time considering the heavy track and the cold day. Sterger's time of 2:11 in the half mile was about the best mark of the day.

And by the way did you see the picture of the "Y" club in the State Journal, last week. The "Y" men have a wide-awake organization and want everyone on the campus to know it. They are always ready to boost for any worthwhile activity. Of course their main purpose is to promote athletics in every form at York.

The Convention Anthem
Delegates to the Intercollegiate Press Association learned the following song without half trying. The secret of it was that they already knew the sentiment from sad experience. In fact the content of the verses fitted the feelings of the group so well that it was made the official song.

Do not criticize it from a technical standpoint because it might rank no higher than other bits of home talent verse that we print. But see the tragedy in it. There rests its true worth.
I'm forever chasing copy,
Snappy copy for the sheet.
It comes in piles
Enough to cover miles
Then for its worth it goes in files;
Hot stuff's always lacking
I've searched till I'm bent
I'm forever chasing copy
Copy for the darned old sheet.

When the sheet is empty
And I sit forlorn and sad,
I see each space
As to and fro I pace
Then to my work I turn my face.
News is always ancient
Poems have no feet
I'm forever chasing copy
Copy for the darn old sheet.

Debate Teams End Successful Season

Chapter of Phi Kappa Delta May Be Formed

The two debate teams have just completed a successful season. Present indications are that York stands second or third in the conference.

During the season York engaged in eleven debates and won six. This gives the teams a standing of 550 York met the strongest teams in the conference during the past year. The affirmative team met Kearney, Hastings, Doane, Central, and Grand Island. This team was composed of Dorothy Reid, Marguerite Wilson and Levi Loreman.

The negative team met Wesleyan, Doane, Kearney, Central, Hastings and Grand Island. This team lost to Wesleyan and Doane. The negative team was composed of Messers. Hice Van Wagenen and Hale.

It is interesting to note that the only defeats handed the strong Hastings and Central affirmative teams were those administered by the York negative. Each of these teams had a clean slate except for the smear handed out by York.

Three of this years team will be lost by graduation. Van Wagenen, Loreman and Hale will receive their sheepskins with the Seniors in June.

Plans are now under way to bring a chapter of Phi Kappa Delta, national debating fraternity to York this spring. Many of the conference schools now have such chapters and such an organization at York would do much to foster interest in debating.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y was addressed by Dr. Wegner, a child specialist of York. The topic was "Medicine, A Life Work." We found that there were many angles to this work, specialization, educational, interesting, general practice, and scientific research.

It is not a burden to prepare for medical work. It requires two years of college work to enter a medical school, and a four year course in the medical school is necessary. One year of practice in hospital work is very desirous. The medical profession requires about ten years of preparation after the grade schools. Many people work their way through after the first year.

As education is the development of the mind, athletics the development of muscle and grit, so medicine is concerned with the development of physique and the welfare of humanity.

The preparation is general and not specific. The rewards, financially are little or small, but large in service and satisfaction. Win patients by serving well those who come to you.
