YORK WINS FROM CENTRAL

PROSPECTS FOR BASKETBALL GOOD --NEW GYMNASIUM GREAT NEED

President Emery Commends Football Team on Achievements of the Season Just Ended

The splendid achievements of our football team this year together with the prospects for a successful basketball team brings forcibly to our minds again the need of a new gymnasium. With some of the best teams of the state refusing to schedule with us on account of the inadequate space for playing, and the overhead gallery in our gymnasium, we are forced to provide larger athletic facilities for our students. There is not a more loyal student body in any college in the state than that of York College.

The fine spirit manifested by the players and the entire student body makes it almost imperative that we must expand along these lines if we are going to hold our place in the circle of the colleges of the state.

Having gone through the season with 1000 per cent has meant much to the college. The eyes of the entire state have been upon York College in her onward march during her football season. Coach Hubka, Captain Reed Gilliland and his splendid group of football men have made a contribution this year to the development of the school. The spirit of the men of the college has been most loyal. Our entire school life has been made more pleasant and more profitable by this unity of spirit. Coach Hubka feels very encouraged over the outlook for a strong basketball team for the coming season. We will have to use our present facilities for this winter but we must have a new building to provide for auditorium purposes as well as gymnasium by the opening of our September term in 1928. Let us all unite in our efforts to boost for such an expansion.

E. W. EMERY, President.

BUSINESS SESSION HELD AT LAST ZETA MEETING

The Zeta Literary Society held its regular meeting Tuesday in the Zeta Hall. The attendance was good and the following program was given:

Prelude—Hazel Bearss.
Reading—The Debating Hour, Francis Harbert.
Talk—How to Lead a Discussion, Geanelle McClelland.
Paper—Parliamentary Law, Edith Steven.

An instructive business meeting was held which was very beneficial to all.

Bonfire pep rallies were held on the evenings preceding the Midland and Central games. A large number of students were in attendance both times. Speeches were made and new yells were learned.

Esther Olewine and Evelyn Lorence drove to their homes in Beatrice and Pickrel, Wednesday evening.

Jean Turner and Esther Olewine spent the week end of Nov. 18, at Martland, Nebr. Miss Olewine preaches there on alternate Sundays.

Mrs. R. E. Townsend's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Weir of Winchester, Kansas, arrived the day before Thanksgiving for a visit.

PATTEN TRIO PLEASURES AUDIENCE WITH VARIED MUSICAL PERFORMANCE

The Fenwick Newell Company Will Give Program on Tuesday Night

The first number of the Lecture Course was presented at the United Brethren church on the evening of Friday, Nov. 18. An appreciative audience, fairly large, enjoyed the varied and interesting program carried out by the Patton trio.

On Nov. 29, Tuesday evening, the Fenwick Newell Recital company will give a musical program as the second number on this year's lecture course. Fenwick Newell, tenor soloist was the principal soloist with Father Finn's famous Paulist choir of New York. Three years ago. Besides this soloist is a soprano soloist, a pianist and a reader.

The End of Victorianism was the subject of the second lecture on the English Novel by Professor Rouse B. Wilcox of the State University. The three great novels, which mark the end of Victorianism, according to Mr. Wilcox, are The Way of All Flesh by Butler, The Ordeal of Richard Feverel by Meredith and Tess o' the Durbervilles by Hardy.

The outstanding characteristics of these novels is that there is nothing co-incidental or unnatural in them. Each novel centers about two or three great characters and what they think and do. These characters are usually failures, as every one is, in the sense that their dreams have crumbled and they have had to adjust themselves to the world as it is.

The first test of literature is the amount of truth which it reveals. These novels show how most persons are the playthings of fate or the victims of circumstances over which they have no control. Each novel reaches its conclusions by the inevitable road.

Sybil Peters gave a talk concerning India at Prairie Gem, near Aurora Sunday morning, Nov. 20. She talked at the U. B. Church in Aurora, Sunday evening.

Vee Cannon visited at the home of her uncle at Holdrege, Nebr., during vacation. Her parents came from Loveland, Colo., to spend a few days with her there.

Jean Turner and Margaret Hill spent their vacation at Cheney, Nebr., with Doris Smith.

Mrs. Dan Jones has re-entered the art department.

NATIONAL WEEK OF PRAYER OBSERVED AT CHAPEL PERIOD

Talks on Africa, China, and India Are Given by Students During Week

The national week of prayer was observed by allowing students, members of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. to take charge of the chapel hour.

Beginning on Wednesday, Nov. 16, Lloyd Nichols led the devotions. He chose Africa as his subject for discussion. He told of the great task facing the missionaries that go that country. One outstanding statement that he made was that merchants and traders have carried many of the white man's vices to the African people.

Fleta Van Kuren spoke of China on Thursday morning. She read a letter from Myrtle Le Fever who is a missionary there. This gave an intimate glimpse of the situation in China today. The missionaries desire the withdrawal of the U. S. armed protection for them. They believe that this evidence of armed strength is a direct contradiction to the principles of brotherly love that they have gone here to teach the people of China.

On the following Monday morning, Romila Peters, a student from India, spoke of her country after Father Strickler had led devotions.

Miss Peters emphasized the fact that missionaries carried too much western civilization into the east along with the Christian religion. It is not the dress or the manner of eating that really counts, but the spirit of Christ. She believes that her people should retain their own mode of dress as that is the best suited to their climate and not try to ape the American or English. She told of the wonderful work being done by the missionaries sent to her home land of India.

RALLIES GIVEN AT CHAPEL

Upperclassmen Put on Splendid Pep Programs

The sophomores put on a pep program Wednesday morning to send the Panthers off to "duck" Tarkio.

Six sophomore girls dressed in blue sweaters and white skirts and wearing white hats, marched on to the stage and sang several clever pep songs. They were accompanied at the piano by Miriam Bryan.

This was followed by a "wise cracking" sketch put on by Maynard Grosshans and Neva Brookhart.

Charles Pope and Nestor Shlanta then appeared as sailors and led the yells. Pep packages were distributed to the student body and to judge by the cheering, the pep pills did their work.

At the chapel which preceded the Midland-York game, the seniors had charge of the rally. Dr. O. M. Moore was the speaker. The senior boys represented a group of Midland songsters in a clever stunt and the entire class sang some college songs.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS WILL BE GUESTS AT BANQUET ON FRIDAY

Booster Club Has Charge of Annual School Banquet Given for Team

The annual football banquet will be Friday evening, Dec. 2, in the dining room of the United Brethren church. Coming at the end of a successful season and unusually large crowd is expected.

The Booster Club is sponsoring the affair and a good menu and a fine program have already been planned by the committees in charge.

Tickets went on sale Monday. The price is $1.00. Everyone is requested to purchase his ticket early.

This is the one big social event before Christmas and everyone should plan to attend. There will be plenty of room this year to accommodate all.

Y. M. C. A.

Life's triangle was discussed by Theodore Peterson, Donald Fisher, and Harlan Moore at the meeting on Nov. 15.

"Thanks to our heavenly Father for all the blessings of life". For the first time in years the Y. M. held an experience meeting. Mr. Crosby and Professor Noll gave short talks. The remainder of the time was taken up by each fellow telling of the things for which he was thankful. Almost every fellow was thankful for health and the privilege of being able to be in school. Special music was given by the male quartet, Caldwell, Jeffers, Peterson and Blanc.

A male quartet composed of Theodore Peterson, Harold Jeffers, Bart Blanc, and Ivan Caldwell sang at several sessions of the State Older Boy's Conference. The Conference was held last week, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

RED CROSS MAN SPEAKS

Mr. Sheldon, a representative of the American Red Cross, recently spoke at the chapel hour on the organization. He told of the aid given the unfortunate victims of the Mississippi river flood. He showed that the Red Cross was a necessary and responsible organization that must carry on this important work until all suffering and disasters cease.

Esther and Mildred Strickler spent Thanksgiving with their parents at Elba. On Friday, the Strickler family broadcasted from KMMJ at Clay Center, Nebr.

Myra Allen's brother arrived last Tuesday from Pierson, Iowa. Myra returned home with him on Wednesday to spend the holidays.

Baskefry, leather work, and other industrial art subjects will be taken up in the art department during the pre-Christmas season.

Playing on a field with a light covering of snow and with the temperature well below freezing, the York College Panthers took a 29-0 win from the Central City Quakers on Friday, Nov. 18.

This was the last conference game of the season and was a fitting close for such a successful one. The Panthers whipped Dana, Omaha, and Central City, and tied with Grand Island, Kearney, and Midland, thus finishing with 1000 per cent in the conference although losing a non-conference game to Marysville, Mo.

It is felt around school that the Panthers have as good a team as any in the state this year. Coach "Ladd" Hubka and his men are to be congratulated on their splendid performances which have put York back on the map as a leading team in the conference and one that may well cause any rival coach to lose sleep.

There are a few games to be played by other teams but they will not affect the standing of the first three.

REVIVAL OF SPIRIT

The chapel pep rallies and the bonfire rallies, have revived the spirit of York College and everyone is happier because of it.

The spirit of unity that is now apparent is a splendid thing. Students seem to be thinking alike and have forgotten individual problems and pleasures by concentrating on the one thing—football.

The football season will formally close Friday night, but we do not want to lose this unity of spirit we have gained. We all know the power of cooperation and we have clearly seen what it can do or rather what we can do when we work together.

President Emery is striving hard to secure a new gymnasium for the college. We need it badly because we will have a good team and we will have crowds of interested spectators.

Let's try co-operation again and concentrate on a new gymnasium. Talk it up everywhere—get people interested. Boost and talk it up some more. If every student of Y. C. wants it and boosts for it, we will get it.

The upper class men have set a standard of good chapel programs that will be hard for the "freshies" to beat when it comes their turn.

We are wondering just how many read this editorial column.

Much has been said the last few weeks about student honor, how it can be developed and maintained. A certain code of ethics has been established in society and it states that we must recognize other's property. We as a student body are made up of individuals. Each individual should realize his responsibility in making the student body what it should be.

A very good place to begin to learn to recognize the rights of others is in the south hall.

BE THANKFUL

Reasons why American girls have more reasons to be thankful than girls in other lands was brought out in the Y. W. meeting, Nov. 22.

A violin and xylophone duet was the prelude. Mira Hall read Cor. 13 and Psalms 66 for devotions. A Thanksgiving story was read by Alice Mover. A talk on "Girls in America and Other Lands" was given by Yee Cannon. Mary Marjorie Haner, Ruthe Young and Lucile Edmondson sang "The Harvest Song".

After the meeting the girls assembled south of the College and had their picture taken by Mr. Gale.

The setting sun is reflected from the windows of the almshouse as brightly as from the rich man's abode.—Thorean.

KAMPUS KWIPS

Mary Marjorie: Why are your socks wrong side out? Bohdan Shlanta: My feet were hot, so I turned the hose on them.

Louis H.: Know anything about cars like mine? Neal R. Yes, about 1,000 jokes.

Miss Thorpe: Wake that fellow next to you, will you? Harold V.: Aw, do it yourself. You put him to sleep.

"Uncle, don't you think it would be rather foolish for me to marry a girl who is intellectually my inferior?"

"Worse than foolish, Harvey," was the reply. "Worse than foolish—impossible."

Margaret Hill: "They say your husband is such a resourceful man."

Frances Ashmore: "Indeed he is. Why, the other morning when he lost his collar button he had an X-ray taken of our bedroom. The button was located in no time."

Mrs. Morgan: "Bobby, you're a sight. What have you done to your clothes; they're cut full of holes."

Bobby: "Aw, we was playing grocery store, mama, and I was the piece of cheese."

Miss Fye (in Dormitory Conference): "Please, girls, be careful about using irons after the lights are on. You might blow out a fuse and I haven't a switch of any kind."

Lois: Well, Mary Marjorie what do you consider a flat tire? Mary Marjorie: (After considerable thought) Something that happens when you're not expecting it.

A large bison head has been donated to the University museum by Charles Knutson. It was found in a gravel pit at Meadow, Nebr. The head is believed to be very old.

Something new in college training in public speaking has been recently inaugurated at the University of South Dakota, as an extra curricular activity. Student radio announcers are being developed under the direction of L. S. V. Judson, assistant professor in public speaking and coach of debate.

Two horseshoe courts have been established at Superior High school. Praise for Brick Carscadon, Kearney's most versatile player, is being heard from all angles. He is Kearney's entry for all-state honors.

The freshman class at Chadron are presenting the play "Happiness" by J. Hartley Manners.

Professor W. T. Hoyt of Peru State Teachers' College has recently been given a fellowship in the American Association for the Advancement of Science. This is a high honor and Professor Hoyt is justified in feeling proud of it.

Since the college campaign began over four weeks ago the following churches have pledged their quota in full:

Ord Circuit, Davis Creek and Midvale churches pledged $2300. Ord raised her quota of $250. Cotesfield subscribed her quota of $625. Elba has reached her quota of $625. The Hollinger Circuit composed of Hollinger and Bethel churches over-subscribed their quota, raising about $1700. Upland has assumed her obligation of $750.

Prospects are looking very bright for a successful completion of the campaign in the state of Nebraska. The bulk of the funds secured in this campaign are to be used in reducing our outstanding obligations. Part of the total will be applied upon general operation expense.

Work is progressing in Iowa. Mr. O. P. Emery is making steady progress and his reports are very encouraging of the attitude of the ministers and laity of the Iowa conference.

When Xerxes wept

THE great Persian ruler gazed from a hilltop upon his vast army of a million men. It was the largest army that had ever existed. And he turned away with tears in his eyes because in a hundred years all trace of it would be gone. That army was a symbol of power, destructive and transient.

Today in one machine, now being built in the General Electric shops, there is combined the muscular energy of two million men. This great machine, a steam turbine, is also a symbol of power—a new power that is constructive and permanent.

Its unprecedented size, a record in construction of such machines, is a pledge to the people that the electrical industry is on the march, ever on the alert to supply plenty of electricity at a low cost to all.

This mammoth steam turbine with a total capacity of 208,000 kilowatts (280,000 horse power) will be installed in the new station of the State Line Generating Company near Chicago. What a striking contrast between this huge generating unit and the group of home devices it operates—MAZDA lamps, fans, vacuum cleaners, and many others. Yet General Electric makes both.

Society

The Father and Son banquet was held at the U. B. church on Nov. 11. There were almost 100 in attendance. There was an orchestra in charge of Professor Shlanta which furnished the music. Group singing was led by Harold Jeffers.

Professor Townsend was master of ceremonies. Short talks were given by several guests. Reverend Turner of the Presbyterian church gave the main address.

The African supper given at the United Brethren Church on Thursday Nov. 17, was well attended. The supper was sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. to raise money for Dr. and Mrs. E. Conner who soon go to Africa as medical missionaries.

After the supper a short program was given. Esther Shrickler told of the origin of the marimba, after which she played a marimba solo. A trio made up of African instruments gave a short selection. Prof. John K. Miller spoke on the needs of the people of Sierre Leone. A glimpse into the lives of Dr. and Mrs. Conner and the work they expect to do was given by Margaret Hill.

Approximately $50.00 was cleared which will be sent directly to Dr. and Mrs. Conner to be used by them for their work in Sierre Leone, Africa.

The Sandburr staff had a dinner party at the Hotel McCloud on Friday evening, Nov. 18, at 6:30 o'clock. There were fifteen present including the guests of the staff.

A large basket of yellow chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece and yellow candles in silver candlesticks were placed at each end of the table. The place cards and favors carried out the yellow color scheme.

After the dinner a special edition of the Sandburr was written. Each member of the party was given a small pad on which to write his contribution for the paper. Some interesting editorials, jokes advertisements, kampus kwips and other features were written and later read by the group.

Miss Dorothy Taylor entertained the members of the faculty at a 4 o'clock tea given in her studio on Wednesday Nov. 16. The room was attractively lighted by floor lamps. Music was furnished by a victrola. About twenty-five were present to enjoy the social hour.

The Iowans enjoyed a homelike Thanksgiving Day in the social room of the church. All out of state folks were invited to join them in their annual Thanksgiving Day dinner, bringing their number up to 37, and bringing an added pleasure in their presence. Everyone came fully prepared to contribute their bit to the work and fun of the day.

The men kept a cheerful fire roaring in the grate over which corn was popped and marshmallows toasted, while the guests listened to radio programs, including the New York-Nebraska football game.

There was no formal program, for everyone was agreed that the day was to be one of relaxation for all, therefore the music was informal and voluntary.

Teachers of the city schools and of York College were recently entertained at a dinner given at the United Brethren Church by the Women's Christian Temperance Union of York. The tables were decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns.

A hostess from the union was seated at each table. Following the dinner Mrs. T. F. Worthington welcomed the guests of the evening. Mrs. R. E. Cutler and Mrs. W. E. McCloud, spoke of the work of the W. C. T. U. The principal address was given by Mr. C. E. Sandall. Musical selections were given by Prof. Shlanta, violinist, and by Mrs. C. E. Sandall, soloist.

Lois Cotrell, Miriam Bryan, Louis Helzer, and Neil Robson attended the Nebraska-New York game at Lincoln.

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM HELD

The Fellowship Committee gave an educational program in Y. W. C. A. Nov. 22. Missionary work in the United States and its relation to the work in other lands was discussed.

"Sabbath Chimes" was played by Elizabeth James for the prelude. In Devotions, Bessie Murdock said, "Christ has a plan for each of us. We must not refuse to carry out these plans. He told us to go into all parts of the world and preach the gospel. That will require relationships with people in foreign lands. That scripture applies as well to us here at home in our relation with each other." Dorothy Johns explained the World Fellowship Organization. A part of the talk was as follows: "Over ten thousand foreign students are our guests. What is their attitude toward us? What messages are they sending back to their home folks about our social and political problems or racial discriminations? This group of foreign students can be made a valuable factor in spreading world fellowship if we, Americans, treat them in a Christian manner."

Wilhelmina Feenster gave a paper telling of the Y. W. organizations in other lands. In Mexico and South America there are Y. W. organizations, but they lack material. Chile had special services during prayer week. In Uruguay the girls dressed in costumes, representing different countries.

Calcutta has a new Y. W. building for factory girls. The blue triangle has been worn by the girls in the Pacific Islands for a year. There are girls' schools in Africa. Here the instructors have their aims: (1) Develop racial pride; (2) Improve home life; (3) Develop African arts and crafts.

Girls in Syria have a camp this year. Since the Armenian girls were allowed to attend a strong friendship grew up between these girls which has never existed before.

Miss Chavez sang America in Spanish. She was accompanied by Alice Mouer. Miss Peters gave the girls some of the ideas foreign students get while in the United States. She then sang a song in Hindi which was written by her father.

Miss Cone told the purpose of the World Fellowship campaign. The proceeds go to Dr. and Mrs. Conner, former Y. C. students, who are going as medical missionaries to Africa.

The Midland-York game was broadcasted thru the York radio station, KGBZ.

Elta and Alice Kuper and Neva Brookhart spent Thanksgiving at Nelson with home folks.

The tables in Prof. Noll's lecture room and botany laboratory have been freshly painted and the lecture room has been completely rearranged.

Otis Detrick visited his brother Newman, who is attending the University, and saw Nebraska play New York on Thanksgiving Day.

Bohdan Shlanta had a collision Nov. 18, in York. It was caused by the icy pavement. His car received some damage, but he escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Chas. Amadon received severe burns, Nov. 21 when she spilled some hot coffee.

"I see that you've given up teaching your wife to drive."

"Yes, we had an accident. I told her to release her clutch, and she let let go of the steering wheel."

Simp—What? You flunked that course again?

Sap—What do you expect. They gave me the very same exam.

(Continued from first page) pleasant there was a large group of students on the sidelines rooting for the Panthers and it is to be hoped that the same kind of spirit will prevail the rest of the year.

Central kicked off to York and on the fourth play Kuntzelman ran seventy yards to a touchdown. Voyles kicked the goal afterwards. York kicked to Central who made a couple of neat gains around the ends but were forced to kick. The rest of the quarter was a see-saw affair with the Panthers having the edge. The second quarter started the same, but just before the end of the first half Voyles dropped back and put a perfect kick between the bars from the 20 yard line, scoring three more points. Score at end of first half was York 10 Central City 0.

The Panthers came back for the third quarter with more pep and fight than ever and the quarter had scarcely begun when Johnny Franz returned a Quaker punt 45 yards for a touchdown. It was a brilliant run through the entire team. The try for point after the touchdown failed. Shortly afterwards Captain Gilliland drove through the line for another six points but the try for point again failed.

Later in the same quarter Kuntzelman intercepted a Quaker pass and ran down the sidelines another 45 yards for the last touchdown. He was going so fast when he caught the ball that he couldn't be stopped. Voyles added the last point of the game. Score York 29, Central City 0.

The game was closely contested and interesting although the score seems to indicate differently. Central's end runs were a constant menace and in the closing minutes of the game the Quakers launched a passing attack carrying the ball within York's 20-yard line when an intercepted pass put an end to their rally and took the ball out of danger.

Kuntzelman, Franz and Gilliland stood out prominently in Friday's game but much of their success was due to the interference furnished by their team-mates, all of whom did their share.

McLeod and Marquis of Central City were injured in the game. Both teams were suffering from injuries received in previous games. There were few penalties and few fumbles.

The line up:

York	Central City
Voyles	lc
Byrnes	lt
Curtis	lg
Jeffers	c
Wetzberger	rg
Mann	rt
Smith	re
Kuntzelman	qb
Farnam	lm

The Panthers' line was working the best of any game this season, getting through and making it hard for the opposing backs. The backfield also functioned smoothly, clearing the way for the ball lugger.

In the seven games the Panthers have played this season they have won three games, tied three and lost one, scoring 127 points against opponents and having their goal line crossed five time for 32 points. The season's score record is:

- October 1, York 0, Grand Island 0.
- October 8, York 0, Marysville 20.
- October 15, York 60, Omaha 0.
- October 21, York 26, Dana 0.
- November 4, York 6, Kearney 6.
- November 11, York 6, Midland 6.
- November 18, York 29, Central City 0.
- November 24, York Tarkio

SECOND INVASION INTO MISSOURI BY YORK PANTHERS PROVES UNSUCCESSFUL

The report that comes as the Sandburr goes to press is that York lost to Tarkio in the Thanksgiving Day game which was played at Tarkio.

According to the brief report Tarkio made both of their touchdowns before York scored theirs.

This is the second defeat York has suffered as a game was lost to Marysville, Mo. earlier in the season. Both games were out of the Nebraska Conference so they do not affect York's standing.
