ANNUAL FOOTBALL BANQUET PROVES A GREAT SUCCESS

Large Number of Students, Faculty and Friends Pay Honor to Squad

The York College annual football banquet was held at the United Brethren Church on Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. One hundred-twenty were in attendance including the 1927 squad, the Booster Club, the faculty, and friends.

The tables, which were arranged in the shape of a Y, were decorated with footballs nested in blue and white, the college colors. The favors were miniature footballs from which were suspended on blue and white ribbons a name card on which was stamped the college seal. The room was tastefully decorated in blue and white which gave the college atmosphere. The following menu was served: Kick-off Bouillon, Necessary Roughness, Tackled Chicken, Tumbled Potatoes, Recovered Peas, Off-side Salad, Punted Rolls, Ice-olated Pass, Out-of-bounds Cake, Touch-down Coffee, and Minted Drop Kicks.

The program was given between courses as follows: Quarter-back, Professor Baller (toastmaster); "Hubka," Theodore Thompson; "U pass the ball to me and I'll run," Professor Noll; Time Out, Quartette—Theodore Peterson, Harold Jeffers, Lucille Edmondson, Miriam Bryan, Lawrence Edmondson at the piano; "Dropkickers," Bertha Bennet, Otilia Gaeth; "Dare 'em," Otis Detrick; "Lateral Pass," Schuyler Phillips; Time Out, vocal solo, Mary Marjorie Haner; "Enthusiasm," Alice Coffey; "Backfield," Professor Miller; "Action," Coach Hubka; "Captain," Reed Gilliland; "Kaptain-elect (Reed Gilliland).

By many of the students this is pronounced the best football banquet for York College that they have yet attended.

Y. M. C. A.

Man is a tree. His personality, his intellect and character are the roots. They make him stand straight, live well, succeed. Through application of these capacities he earns his living, hence roots.

All men can not be redwoods. Some must be saplings and reeds even. Whatever the type one can be the best, the sturdiest, the biggest if he will but apply himself.

This is the substance of the talks given at our meeting December 6 by Ted Peterson.

Sunday afternoons at two o'clock the cabinets of both Y. M. and Y. W. have arranged for an informal discussion group. Everyone interested is invited.

NEWELL CONCERT IS WELL RECEIVED BY APPRECIATIVE CROWD

Final Number of Lyceum Will Be a Lecture on Japan By Grathwell

York music lovers were entertained Tuesday evening, Nov. 29, by the Fenwick Newell Concert Company. This was the second number of the Lyceum Course. The personnel of the company is Fenwick Newell, tenor soloist; Adele Eschward, soprano soloist; Raymond McCune, violinist and Madge Williamson, pianist.

The Fenwick Newell Company is a very high caliber company. Each member has an enviable reputation in the concert world before becoming a member of this company. Mr. Newell has a very definite aim of creating a field for, and an appreciation of the best in musical literature. He has selected his company with this purpose in mind.

The next and final number of the Lyceum Course is to be given by Sam Grathwell who is to lecture on the subject "What I Found in Japan". He went to study first-hand the customs the political aspects, the hopes, the beliefs, and the mental psychology of the people of the picturesque land of the cherry blossom.

Ted Lewis, Robert Burns, Nestor Shlanta, and Prof. Bohdan Shlanta drove to Denver, Colorado, during the holidays, in Professor Shlanta's Hudson making a record of 1,500 miles in two days. Nestor remained to visit Orvest Lewis.

PLAYERS RE-ELECT REED GILLILAND AS CAPTAIN OF TEAM

Three York Players Placed On Nebraska Conference Roll of Honor

The York College football team placed three men on the honor roll in the State Conference this year.

Harris Kuntzelman was given a berth on the second team, Reed Gilliland, this year's captain and captain-elect landed on the third team and Vergil Voyles received honorable mention.

According to Gregg McBride in the Lincoln Star, Kuntzelman was the first year find of the Conference. Harris is a triple threat man, passing, running and kicking with equal ability, being one of the best punters in the state.

Captain Gilliland is as good a defensive fullback as any in the state. Last year he played in the line at center and was considered one of the toughest men to play against in the conference. When the line didn't stop the opposing backs Reed could be depended upon to do it. Because of his sterling playing and ability he was reelected to captain York's 1928 club.

Voyles played a steady game throughout the year and added quite a few points to York's total by kicking goals. A pass to Voyles seldom failed to gain.

York is proud of the men who got State recognition, and due credit is given the rest of the team who share part of their glory as unsung heroes.

JOINT PROGRAM GIVEN BY Y. W. C. A. AND Y. M. C. A.

She told how the words of great men, speaking in conventions would come to the student body of York College through its representatives at these Conferences.

Y. W. C. A.

"Women of Worth" was the subject discussed in Y. W. C. A. Dec. 6. The following program was given:

REPRESENTATIVES GO FROM COLLEGE TO DETROIT, MICH.

Shiotz, Traveling Secretary For Volunteers, Speaks To Students

York College will have three representatives at the Student Volunteer Convention which is to be held at Detroit from Dec. 28 to Jan. 1. Margaret Hill has been chosen as delegate and Miss Minta Thorpe and Promila Peters will also attend.

Mr. Shiotz, traveling secretary of the National Student Volunteers, spoke at chapel Friday, Dec. 2, on the subject of foreign students in the United States and of the benefits to be derived from attending the Detroit conference.

Henry Hodgkin, a British missionary, and Francis Wei, a Cantonese by birth, are among the speakers from China. Other speakers from many countries of the world, with stories equally interesting will be there. Dr. Frank G. Laubach, from the Philippines; Akintunde B. Dipeolu, from Nigeria, British West Africa; and Roy Akagi, secretary of Friendly Relations Committee of the Y. M. C. A., are some of the outstanding speakers.

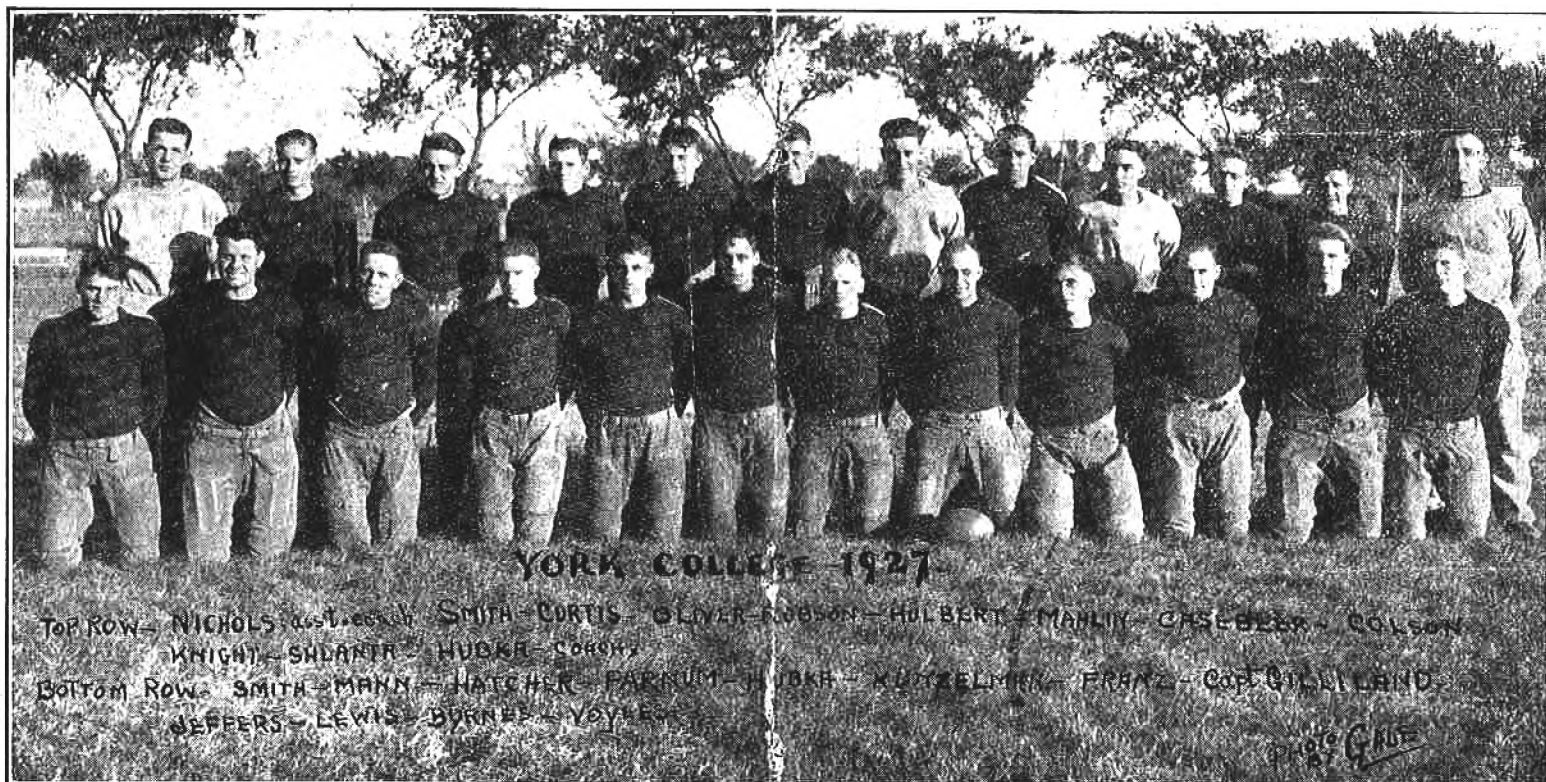

Many are aware that a new point of view is developing in the conduct of foreign lands with a much better understanding of their heritage, and is presenting the cause of Christ with humility. This great Convention will crystalize in the student mind the needs of the world to-day, and the point of view through which they are to be met.

Grant Sterner was called to his home at Callaway by the death of his mother on Nov. 28. Professor Baller accompanied him and officiated at the funeral.

Ted Lewis remained in Colorado following the Thanksgiving recess to take care of the work of his brother who has been called out with the National Guards of that state.

Miss Wreatha Brazee, a former summer school student, visited chapel recently.

PEACE ON EARTH GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN

Each year the Christmas season brings us a renewed feeling of "good will toward men." It is a season of thinking of others and in so doing one forgets himself and is happier in having found a little of the Christ-like spirit.

Very often one forgets to look for the best in others and as Christmas draws near one thinks of Hutchinson's idea expressed in his "One Increasing Purpose." The wonderful thing is that Christ can be seen in the faces of one's fellowmen.

During the coming weeks when everyone is busy thinking and planning for the happiness of others, watch to see if the Christ can not be seen in the faces of people.

E. A.

Christmas! When we first see that word I wonder what we think of. What presents are we going to get? What presents are we going to give? Aren't we inclined to make Christmas a day of festivity rather than a day of worship? We expect children to look forward to Christmas with a great deal of joy, but we as

send to those who would not have Christmas without it. Couldn't we be just a little more economical in buying our gifts and send more to others who are needy. Give to those who wouldn't have if you didn't. Isn't that what is meant by Christmas? Aren't we old enough to make the most out of it? Let's all try.

CONETTES

Miss Jennie Evans from Aurora spent the weekend of Dec. 3-5 here. She came down to attend the football banquet and to visit friends.

Mrs. Walport, who was a student in summer school, was a guest of Alice and Edna Coffey, December 3, and 4.

Sybil Peters and Miss Minta Thorp had charge of the regular church service at Pickrell, Nebraska, Sunday morning Dec. 4. Rev. Charles Wantz is pastor of that church. Miss Thorp gave a talk Sunday evening at the Congregational church in York.

Irene Bachman, who lives in Des Moines, Iowa, went home Saturday Dec. 3, for medical treatment.

All the conservatory girls are in gleeful anticipation. What about? Why, Santa Claus is coming! Yes, there's going to be a Christmas party in the conservatory reception room and if we are all good perhaps Santa really will come and bring us something lovely.

ZETAS VISIT PALS

The Pal Literary Society took up the subject of Parliamentary Law at the last meeting. Members of the Zeta Society were welcome guests at the program which was given as follows.

Impromptu—What I would do to make the Pal meetings more interesting—Elta Kuper.

Origin and Use of Parliamentary Law—Harold Knight.

Value of a Working Knowledge of Parliamentary drill—Professor Townsend.

This was followed by ten minutes drill with Thornton Miller as chairman.

Plans were made for a Christmas program to be given at the next meeting on Dec. 20.

FRESHMAN CLASS NOTES

On Thursday, Dec. 1, the freshman had a class meeting immediately after chapel to discuss plans for a Christmas class party and to appoint a committee to plan for the freshman chapel. The stunt committee appointed is: Otis Detrick, Ottilla Gaeth, Leroy Frazier, Harold Vandercreek and Leo Anderson.

Raymond Ruppel's mother died last week.

POUNDING IN HONOR

"If you trust a student," said the hard-boiled school superintendent "and he betrays your confidence, something is wrong. If he repeats the act the second and third time, there's absolutely no honor in him."

"What do you do in that case?" is the inquiry.

"I give him a strapping," said the h. b. superintendent.

"Do you pound honor in him?"

"Absolutely," he replied, "he respects and obeys me after that."

This is indeed a wonderful discovery which the hard-boiled superintendent has made. It should go down in all the books of "Methods and Management," for it will prove a boon to many a harassed school teacher.

Moreover the man who made the discovery is very eminent and successful in his school; he admits it.

If one can "pound in" honor, why not love, religion, knowledge, and ability? Surely there are undreamed of possibilities in the field!

If this practice receives the recognition due it, one can easily picture some such scene as this:

A professor is lustily belting a rebellious urchin who protests vociferously. Suddenly the one inflicting punishment pauses and asks himself absent-mindedly. "Let's see, what was I whipping him for? I'll swear, I've forgotten — Oh, well, I'll give him ten more on general principle, and whatever it is will probably be accomplished."

The Junior Class basketball team was the winner in the annual inter-class tournament, held at the York College Gymnasium. This makes the third year in succession that they have carried off the honors.

The first game was between the Freshmen and Sophomores. It started out with the Sophs having their way more or less but in the second half the Freshies started feeding "Babe" Young and he made eleven points to win for the Freshmen 28 to 17. Spore was high point man for the Sophs with 9 points.

SEASON PRACTICE BEGINS

First Turnout for Basketball Gives Bright Outlook

First tryouts for the 1927-28 York College basketball squad were held at the York College Gym on Tuesday night of last week.

Only one regular from last year's squad was in suite, Captain Helzer, but the other men are expected in the next few practices.

York finished in the top group of teams in the Conference last year and prospects for another good and even better team this year are fine.

Only two regulars, Helzer and Gilbert will be back until the second semester when Moist is expected to be eligible to play. Coach Hubka has some good new men out. Voyles and Kuntzelman who starred at York High School are available and so is Young, who, although rather short, has a good eye for the basket. Davis, an out of town boy, should land a berth, also Oliver, Robson, Franz, and Spore of last year's subs will have a good chance.

Lloyd Nichols, first team choice for All State guard position last year, and Harold Ashmore, who received honorable mention, are not eligible this year because of four years competition in the Conference, and will be badly missed.

It requires more good judgment to know when to talk, than what to say.—"Josh Billings."

GYM CLASS CHANGES TO A WINTER INDOOR SPORT

The coming of cold weather has forced soccer to give place to basketball in the young women's gym class. As soccer was new to most of the women this year, they only got to play about one good game during the season, but basketball is more familiar to them and they expect to have some good games.

There are enough in the class for two teams of six players, and a number of substitutes. Margaret Yust, and Ruth Pibel have been elected as temporary Captains.

Any not enrolled in the class who would care to play are welcome to do so.

Prof. Bohdan Shlanta spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Denver, Colorado, on business. Before returning he spent Sunday at Peetz, Colorado, where he played at the United Brethren church in charge of Harold Baber, a former student of York College.

Merry Christmas College folks!

Nineteen hundred and twenty-seven years ago, when the angels sang, "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men," there was ushered in among men a new spirit that has not died out, coming to us down through the ages.

"Merry Christmas" is our common expression of this noble sentiment at this time of the year.

By common understanding and common service we can better serve our community in every way.

York College is one of the greatest forces for good in our community. In recognition of this fact we, the business and professional men of York, wish to extend to the Faculty and Student Body our congratulations upon their purpose and sincere endeavor to promote the message of Christmas—
