In answer to a letter sent out by The Sandburr, and by personal solicitation, a number of York College graduates and former students have subscribed to The Sandburr for this year.

This service to the graduates and former students was offered about the middle of last year, and The Sandburr this year is further carrying out the idea. In this connection Fred Gilbert, business manager of The Sandburr, would like to announce that if any of our readers know of parties who would be interested in receiving The Sandburr he would appreciate it very much if their names were given to him so he could write to them.

A great many more subscribers are expected, and Gilbert is planning ways of increasing the number. At present, however, the following have subscribed: Sybil Peters, Irene Bachman, Miss Minta Thorp, Floyd Peters, Ruth Funk, Elizabeth Robson, Neil Smith, Theron Gard, Marguerite Marks, Donald Oliver, Wayne Laws, Mabel Shelquist, Thelma Manning, Mrs. H. ## ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FOR WOMEN NOW ACTIVE Members of the Women's Athletic Association have been availing themselves of the splendid weather for hiking. During the recent warm days various groups of girls have been seen leaving the dormitory at an early hour for their four mile hike.

The Women's Athletic Association was organized in 1925 to further develop the athletic side of school life for women. To be an active member one must have earned one hundred points, and one may become an associate member by paying a fee of fifty cents. The organization aims to take care of all athletic activities

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS ANNUAL STAG PARTY ON OCT. 2

Members of the College Y. M. C. A. and visitors held their annual stag party at the gymnasium on the evening of Oct. 2. Basketball, hitball and kickball were some of the means of entertainment, which was in charge of Prof. Warren Baller.

Late in the evening when it came time to have the "eats" the dormitory girls deemed it wise to make their "annual raid", and many were repaid for their trouble by getting a watermelon face washing.

Harlon Moore, president of the Y. M. C. A., distributed membership cards to all new men in College who desired to join the organization. Everyone present signified his intention to join.

ETHEL DIXON AND BRIGHTON HOUSTON WIN FIRST PLACES

Students of Dean Amadon Voted Best Singers in District
Radio Contest

Ethel Dixon and Brighton Houston, both students of York College and the Hulitt Conservatory of Music, took first places in the local audition of the Atwater-Kent vocal contest which was held at radio station KGBZ on the evening of Oct. 3. Mary Marjorie Haner, of York, and Harold Ellis, of McCool, were chosen winners of second place by the judges.

Eleven contestants from this district, which included York and Seward counties, participated in the contest. They were: Ethel Dixon, Brighton Houston, Mary Marjorie Haner, Harold Ellis, Donald Fisher, Frances Dimig, Eugene Huegal, Jack Gibbs, Eda Kreiger, Velda Windsor and Theodore Peterson.

Dean Charles Amadon, of the Hulitt Conservatory of Music, sponsored the contest. Miss Eda Rankin, instructor of piano in the Hulitt Conservatory of Music; W. W. Wyckoff, attorney in York; Miss Cora Conaway, director of music in the York public schools; Charles Kettering, director of music at Doane College; and Paul Renter, instructor of music at Seward, acted as judges. The decision of the judges counted fifty per cent in determining the winners, while the votes of the radio listeners counted the other fifty per cent.

Winners of the local audition will represent this district in the state contest which will be held on Oct. 14, to be broadcasted over station WOW, at Omaha. The winners in Omaha will go to Chicago, and the winners there will compete in the final contest which will be held in New York, to be broadcasted from WEAF. Cash prizes and scholarships in the leading conservatories of America are offered to the winners of the final contest.

not included in the regular gym classes.

Points are given for hiking, for taking part in all games and tournaments, and for swimming. When a member has one hundred points for hiking an arm band is given. Five hundred points gives a member numerals, and a white sweater with the official "Y" on it is given for earning one thousand points. One-third of these points may be earned by holding an executive office in the association.

The officers for this year are:
President—Mildred Dann
Secretary—Margaret Yust
Chairman Hiking Committee—Ardith Kull
Chairman Tennis Committee—Alice Coffey

Miss Edith Callender, who is faculty critic of The Sandburr, and is assisting The Marathon staff with their preparation of the College annual.

HOOVER-CURTIS CLUB IS ORGANIZED IN COLLEGE

John Riddell, County Attorney, Starts Club; 45 Join

The Hoover-Curtis Club of York College was organized on Oct. 3, by John Riddell, county attorney. The club has about forty-five members of voting age besides several would-be voters.

These clubs are being organized in all the colleges over the United States for a three-fold purpose: First, to get all students of voting age to vote for Hoover and Curtis; second, to get out-of-town students to send home for ballots; third, to hold peppy Hoover-Curtis rallies with prominent speakers at each meeting.

Officers were elected at the first meeting of the club and are as follows: President, Sutton Hice; vice-president, Edna Coffey; secretary, Winemina Reuster; treasurer, Manuel Martinez.

REV. T. PORTER BENNETT GIVES TALK IN CHAPEL

The faculty and students of York College had the pleasure of listening to a very helpful address delivered by Rev. T. Porter Bennett, pastor of the York Methodist Episcopal Church, during the chapel period of last Wednesday, October 10.

Rev. Mr. Bennett chose to speak on "Our Partnership With God", giving those present many thought-provoking statements. He said in part:

"It is of very little value to give advice to anyone, for ninety-nine times out of a hundred they refuse to heed it. However, I want you to realize that there are some fundamental things that you and I must remember.

"I appeal to you to recognize that God is concerned, that God is your partner, that you are a co-worker with God and God is a co-worker with you.

"If such is the case and we recognize and realize the fact of the presence of an infinite God and if we are true to Him throughout our lives, we will be happy. When the clouds may come and will come and must come, we will also know that there is a partner with us that will hold us steady.

"The highest and best is for you, and the highest and best is none too good for you. It's yours if you win, and to win you must not forget your partnership with God. I wish you every success this year, and I hope that when you do meet the solid, hard problem, that you will not forget that you have a partnership with One who is ready to help you—with God."

TWO MODELS

"You are always boasting that you were a model for a famous artist—for what picture?"

"For 'Cleopatra and the Snake.'"
"Who was Cleopatra?"—London Passing Show.

STATE W. C. T. U. OFFICER GIVES TALK AT Y. M. C. A.

"National Problems" was the topic of the Y. W. C. A. meeting on Oct. 9, led by Mrs. Clara C. Clayton, state W. C. T. U. president.

"It is not what the candidate promises to do in the future but what the candidate has done in the past that measures his dependency," stated Mrs. Clayton in her talk. "If a man is elected this fall who helped to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment in his own state, what will be the condition of the United States within the next four years?" she continued.

"Did you know that the President of the United States has the power to appoint 40,000 officers? We as voters must do our part in helping place the right man in the office of the Presidency," concluded Mrs. Clayton.

COLLEGE ANNUAL BEING PREPARED BY LARGE STAFF

"The Marathon, York's Annual,
Will Be Best for Years," States Editor

The Marathon, the York College yearbook, is already being planned and prepared by the Marathon staff. An announcement was made in chapel on Oct. 10 that all students must have their pictures taken at Gale's Studio before Oct. 15. The Marathon will probably be printed and ready to sell early in the spring, according to Onita Stone, editor. The estimated price of the yearbook is $4.00, but this price, of course, will have to be definitely set by the final cost of the annual. Miss Edith Callender, who has had experience in such work, is assisting the Marathon staff.

The Marathon Staff, as it now stands, is:

Editor-in-Chief—Onita Stone
Associate Editor—Hazel Bearss
Associate Editor—Margaret Hill
Business Manager—Raymond Bryant

Asst. Business Manager—Harlon Moore
Athletic Editor—Thornton Miller
Art Editor—Wilhelmina Feemster
Organization Editor—Donald Fisher
Humor Editor—Alice Coffey
Snapshot Editor—Ardith Kull

The theme of the Marathon will be Grecian, namely: "Atlanta's Race". The dedication will be kept secret, and will be known only upon the sale to the students. A better view section, more art work, an original humor section, an alumni section, a well illustrated athletic section, and a snap-shot section full of life and action are being planned, according to Miss Stone. The picture of the champion basketball team of 1927-28 will be in the athletic section of the yearbook.

"For these reasons and for reasons relating to the contract with the printer, we believe The Marathon will be better than it has been for some time," states the editor.

A BIG RISK

"I see by the papers that a couple got married up in an airplane. I should think that would be dangerous."

"It's dangerous anywhere."—Goblin.

ANNOUNCEMENT

A treat is in store for those who wish to attend the United Brethren Christian Endeavor on Oct. 22. Mrs. Clara C. Clayton, state W. C. T. U. president, will speak on the subject of "National Problems." Come prepared to ask any questions. All students and faculty members are invited. The meeting will be in the Christian Endeavor room of the United Brethren church at 6:30 p. m. on Oct. 22.

RED CROSS WILL HOLD ROLL CALL FROM NOV. 11-29

National Organization to Start
Large Membership Drive
Armistice Day

Notice is sent to The Sandburr that the Twelfth Annual Membership Roll Call of the American National Red Cross to enroll members for 1929 will be held from Armistice Day through Thanksgiving, Nov. 11-29.

"This is the only request the Red Cross makes for funds during the year and upon its success depends the efficient carrying out of the duties placed upon the organization by Congress," states Mr. Douglas Griesmer, director of roll call, in his letter.

In commenting on the American Red Cross in college life one of their representatives writes the following:

The American Red Cross gives the students of colleges and universities something to do and something to think about. In disaster relief and first aid on land and in water, it offers adventure to the enterprising along with service to one's fellows. Then, too, the Red Cross has educational interests. The Red Cross looks to the colleges for its coming leaders. It wishes to interest students now, so as to enjoy their fresh enthusiasm, energy, and constructive ideas when they take their places in the world.

In its progress upward, meeting the increasing responsibilities put upon it, the Red Cross must not only replenish itself but add to itself as it goes. That is one reason why it is making a special appeal to college men and women.

The membership fees paid by thousands of students last year are now doing their share in this relief work. The Red Cross is supported by its membership fees.

Water safety is a Red Cross service which has been so widely adopted in colleges—men's, women's and coeducational—that a list would read like a college directory. As typical examples, West Point, Annapolis and Yale may be mentioned in the East, Northwestern University, the Iowa agricultural and Michigan State colleges in the Middle West, and Universities of California, Southern California, Arizona, Oregon and Washington in the Pacific area. This takes no account of the many local corps in colleges communities, made up of students, of which so many flourish in the middle west and south. In some institutions, college credit is given for Red Cross first aid and life-saving.

As President Coolidge phrases it, the Red Cross "has become an intimate part of our daily life." The same may be said of our colleges, whose graduates are a great uplifting force in national advancement. Thus the Red Cross Roll Call is held in our college because again, in the words of the President: "We have tested the Red Cross in war and peace. It has never failed us. It never will so long as it holds your support."

Y. M. C. A. MEETING

A musical program was presented at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Oct. 9, which was well attended by the men of the College.

Ual Henshaw led the devotions and after reading the scripture lesson gave a short talk concerning the value of prayer in the life of young people, especially college young people.

Milan Lambert then contributed two piano solos, and Forrest Strickler, accompanied by Charles Kraft, played two numbers on the trombone. Both Lambert and Strickler were encored by the audience.

DEVELOPING INDIVIDUALITY

One of the duties, and glories, of true education, we believe, should be to help develop the individual characteristics of men; not to attempt to mould all by a certain pattern.

The fact that a young man or a young woman has an inclination or bent in a certain direction, even though it is not scholastic in the strictest sense of the word, does not always mean that that young man or young woman will fail in life. In fact, it has often happened that many really valuable people in the world, both men and women, have been essentially non-conformists.

The tendency to follow a precedent is one of the great hindrances to the development of individual traits. We often have the feeling that people should be a certain age before being capable of doing some things. If a boy of eight can draw a better picture than a young man of eighteen, should he nevertheless not be allowed to paint until he is eighteen? If a college freshman has more ability for extra-curricular activities than a college senior, should the freshman nevertheless not be allowed to enter into those activities?

Tell any senior class that Thomas Bailey Aldrich, at 19, published a book of poems, and that William Winter, at 19, reviewed it, and that Edward Everett, at 20, was pastor of a Boston church, and watch the expression of incredulity spread over their faces.

We do not mean to suggest that college freshmen should be permitted to take any course in college they want to just because they feel they can do the work and are so inclined, but rather we would suggest that undergraduates, so far as possible, be allowed to participate in any activities in which they show interest.

THINK IT OVER

"Experience is the best teacher," is an old maxim, but some young men students are not awake to the opportunities for experience offered here. As coach said in his Y. M. talk, "Turn the knob and grasp the opportunity."

Any young man should have work with boys if he expects to make his life worth while. There is a great chance for experience with boys in the Pioneer clubs of the Y. M. C. A. in York. These clubs take an hour of a young man's time only once a week. Surely there must be someone in College who will give this much time for an experience.

The leaders of these clubs will learn much from the boys, and develop leadership qualities. The more time spent in such work, the more happiness and experience the leader will get.

Will the Y. M. C. A. be forced to resort to the young ladies as leaders, or are there some fellows in school who are going to wake up and grasp this opportunity for experience with young boys?—H. A.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Without any noticeable agitation on the part of the students Dean Charles Bisset announced in chapel on Oct. 3 that the faculty has appointed a committee to meet with two representatives from each class for the purpose of discussing the advisability of having student government in York College.

Someone is certainly giving some thought to student responsibility. After all, college students are (or should be) young men and women. A little responsibility with reference to activities and behavior on the campus would tend to give students more confidence in themselves and perhaps a better realization of their duty as citizens.

Many students are now old enough to vote for the president of the United States. Their ideas and co-operation might help the administration materially in some of their problems.

Oct. 6, 1928

Mr. Fred Gilbert,
York, Nebr.
Dear Fred:

Your letter and the first two issues of The Sandburr have been received and read with unusual interest. I appreciate your interest in attempting to keep us "grads" in closer contact with the College. For the benefits derived from this contract really means more to the graduates than it does to those in the present status of students. I would really hate to miss a single issue of The Sandburr, so am therefore sending my dollar for subscription fee.

In compliance with your request I will give a word in regard to myself. I am principal of the Bladen High School and am finding the work very interesting. We have a mighty fine school here, new building, modern in every respect, and well equipped. There is an even one hundred enrollment in high school, of which we are justly proud although it is several short of being a school record. We have six high school teachers, all doing capacity service. We edit a weekly school paper in conjunction with the local newspaper, the former of which I am supervising. I am using The Sandburr as a model for class instruction in the rudiments of journalism, and am attempting to give the staff on the school paper a working plan to follow in their reports.

Mrs. Ashmore is as interested in receiving The Sandburr as I am, as we find it brings back pleasant memories in and about old Y. C. We also have another member of the family, Lyn Durand Ashmore, seven weeks old today, who in time will become another Sandburr fan.

Sincerely yours,
Harold V. Ashmore

MUSIC DEPARTMENT NOTES

Ethel Dixon and Brighton Houston, students of the conservatory, were awarded the first places in the annual Atwater-Kent vocal contest, the first audition of which was conducted by radio station KGBZ, of York.

The two winners are both studying with Dean Charles Amadon, of the Hulitt Conservatory. Both are well known in York for their singing ability.

Others entering from the conservatory were: Mary Marjorie Haner, Harold Ellis, Theodore Peterson and Jack Gibbs. Miss Haner placed second in the girl's division and Ellis placed second in the men's division. Neva Brookhart was accompanist for all the conservatory students.

These contests are held in order that those who have real ability in radio singing may be given a chance to get more training for vocal work, according to Dean Amadon. The National winners will receive rewards, both money and scholarships. The scholarships will admit the recipients to the best music conservatories in the United States.

The "Quaker Girl" is a guest at the Hulitt Conservatory.

Lourene Edmondson and Milan Lambert, graduates in piano last spring, are doing post graduate work in music with their college work. Miss Edmondson is also one of the piano teachers at the conservatory.

Dean Amadon is very well pleased with the work of the Glee Club. The parts are exceptionally well balanced and of good quality. "The Man Without A Country" by E. S. Hosmer is to be given soon. Plans are being completed to give some of Bach's passion music in the spring. This conservatory is the first of its size in the state to work on any of this music.

Last summer Frances Edmondson, soprano, placed first in the state contest of the Colorado Junior Music Club, at Montrose, Colorado.

YORK VANQUISHES CENTRAL IN SLOW GAME ON OCT. 11

York Holds Doane to 30-0 in First Game of Season on Home Field

"We have met the foe and they are ours!" The old expression found a new use last Thursday when the report of the Panthers' tussle with Nebraska Central came back to the campus. With the memory of the defeat of the week before still fresh in their memory the Panthers went out for revenge.

Unluckily for Central they were the first in the path of the enraged Panthers, and when the whistle sounded and the final noise of battle had died away York was on the long end of a 16-6 score.

A large part of the student body accompanied the team to Central City and in spite of the unfavorable elements did their bit in getting the victory.

The game began by York's kicking to Central. The ball struck deep in their territory and rolled over the goal line. It was put into play on the 20 yard line and Central easily made first down with a series of line plunges. Then a wild throw from Central allowed York to recover the ball. Central's five-yard line after that was only a matter of seconds, and Sterner smashed across for the first touchdown. Captain Mann kicked the point after goal.

A little later a heavy rain set in making the field a duck pond and the ball was unmanageable. Fumbles were numerous on both sides. In the second quarter Central on exchanges of punts and fumbles succeeded in carrying the ball across for their only touchdown. Their kick after goal sailed wide, and York was leading by a single point.

The last half opened with a punting battle. Central seemed to be having the advantage until Ruppel scooped a punt from under the nose of a Central end and ran thirty yards with it. In the punting duel that again began, York had the advantage and before the quarter ended were in a position to try a drop kick. Mann's dropkick sailed high but true, making the score 10-6.

In the last quarter York again scored a touchdown. After a series of off-tackle plays by Roberts and line plunges by Casebeer, the Central team found themselves with their backs to the goal posts. Casebeer carried it over, but Mann's kick after goal was low, making the score 16-6.

Central chose to receive and did succeed in getting within threatening distance of York's goal, but the game ended too soon for them to score. The game was full of fumbles and mistakes, due to the steady down-pour of rain. Central played good football and Lear was their outstanding man. For the Panthers Ruppel, punter, safety man, made a remarkable showing. Casebeer made good gains on the line smashes, and Roberts made some fine off-tackle plays.

DOANE GAME

The Doane Tigers invaded the Panthers' lair Saturday, Oct. 6, and when things were over the Tigers were on the long end of a 32-0 score. But at that they were not jubilant, for the Panthers had hotly contested every point and the Tigers felt the effect of that contest. The Doane team was considerably heavier and much older than York's outfit. As someone on the sidelines remarked, their coach looked younger than some of the players. It is believed that Doane had planned to "steam roller" the Panthers to the tune of about 80-0, but the younger team showed a determination and fight that lopped off more than half that theoretical score.

The game was rather loosely played on both sides. Doane failed more often to gain than a conference rating would justify. York surprised many with flashes of real ability.

Doane's first touchdown came early in the game. York received and failed to make much of a return. Not being able to gain they signaled for a punt, but with the wind strong in their faces it was impossible to get any distance on the punts. Doane took the ball and soon carried it over the goal line.

The Panthers then began to hit a better stride and although two more touchdowns were scored by the Tigers in the first half neither was made as easily as was the first.

In the third quarter France, of Doane, got away for a 65-yard run for a touchdown. In the last quarter, however, York forced their way to Doane's 15-yard line. Being unable to go further, Captain Mann attempted a drop kick which was low and Doane took the ball and carried it back into York's territory where it was when the whistle blew.

Ruppel did some very clever punting for York. Jeffers, at center, played an excellent game. All the men proved themselves worthy of wearing the moleskins for York College.

Stehlik, Doane's little full back, was the outstanding player for the Tigers.
