YORK COLLEGE TO HAVE NEW GYMNASIUM FRESHMEN TO WEAR GREEN CAPS

NEW REQUIREMENT HOPE TO BECOME COLLEGE TRADITION

Prof. John K. Miller Announces
New Rule and Reads Laws for Freshmen

Green caps will be worn by all freshman men and green ribbons will be worn by all freshman women until certain requirements are met. These requirements, which it is hoped will become a tradition of the College were announced in chapel on Oct. 25 by Prof. John K. Miller, who was selected by a committee on the matter to make the announcement and explain the reasons for the requirements.

"True loyalty for our College will be gained only by the acquirement of the spirit de corps, the warp and woof of which are the traditions of the College. To attempt to strengthen and increase the spirit this tradition of 'the wearing of the green' is being introduced," stated Professor Miller in the first part of his announcement.

Professor Miller pointed out emphatically that it was not an attempt to establish a line of demarcation between the freshmen and upper classmen, but rather a tradition for recognition of freshmen. He explained that the success of the tradition's establishment depended both on the spirit in which the freshmen take the requirement and also on the spirit in which the upper classmen take it, and added that upper classmen taking unnecessary advantage of the tradition would be punished just as readily as freshmen who violated it.

The set of rules or the temporary constitution which was read to usher in this new tradition was as follows:

We, the representatives of the York College student body, in order to form a tradition which will heighten the spirit de corps of York College and to establish a more perfect understanding between the freshmen and upper classmen, and to establish the custom for future College classes, do ordain and establish this code of laws for the government of the conduct of the members of the freshman class.

ARTICLE I

All freshmen of college rank will be expected to wear green caps from the date of October 31 until the Thanksgiving recess. The women of the freshman class shall wear the prescribed green ribbons.

ARTICLE II

The afore mentioned articles must be available for inspection whenever such an inspection is required by an upper classman.

ARTICLE III

Articles I and II are invalid on Sundays and during the period that the freshmen are absent from the campus. Caps are to be removed in buildings.

ARTICLE IV

All freshmen of college rank will assume the courtesy due the faculty and upper classmen by remaining in their respective seats after the chapel hour on Monday morning until the faculty and the upper classmen have had time to make their unobstructed exit from the room. The signal for the freshmen dismissal will be given by Dean Bisset.

DR. R. N. MACAGBA WRITES TO FRIENDS

Former College Student Is Now on Phillipine Islands

Dr. R. N. Macagba, who graduated from York College Academy in '19, is now practicing medicine in the Phillipine Islands. Shortly after arriving on the island, Dr. Macagba wrote to Miss Bessie Riggs. In his letter Dr. Macagba, or Rufino, as most of his friends called him, said:

"In spite of the fact that I fed the fishes three times during my voyage across the ocean, I had a delightful trip. I could hardly recognize my own town when I arrived. There are quite a few new houses and high school students. My first operative case was a girl of eight who was struck by a water buffalo, which lacerated her stomach badly. I feared she would die of peritonitis, but with the help of God she is progressing very nicely."

REV. C. L. YOUNG IS SPEAKER AT Y.M.C.A.

College Pastor Addresses Men on Subject "Almost"

"Almost," was the subject of a short talk given by the College pastor at Y. M. Oct. 26. In his talk, Rev. C. L. Young said that it was time for manhood and womanhood to rise up, and go the full distance, and carry on the work of Jesus Christ as their leader.

An announcement was made by Homer Crosby, who asked for volunteers for a gospel team for this year.

The topic for Tuesday, Oct. 30, is "What do we owe our college?"

Schuyler Phillips led an interesting discussion on "What constitutes success in college," at Y. M. meeting Oct. 16. Many of the members, and faculty took part in the discussion which made the meeting interesting.

A vocal solo, "A Pirate Bold," was sung by Harlie Allen.

ARTICLE V

All freshmen women will attend all college classes, chapel, etc. on Monday without having used powder, rouge or lipstick.

ARTICLE VI

All freshmen are prohibited from sitting on steps leading into the College buildings.

ARTICLE VII

All freshman men must wear neckties to college classes, chapel, etc.

ARTICLE VIII

Contests in the nature of a football game, a contest of tug-of-war, and a basketball game between the women of the upper classes and the freshman women are to be arranged between the freshmen and the upper classmen. In case the freshmen win, they will be allowed to discard the caps and ribbons at the Thanksgiving recess. In case of defeat in the majority of these contests, the freshmen will continue to wear the caps and ribbons until Christmas vacation.

ARTICLE IX

Freshmen will not be allowed to have dates on Homecoming Day.

ARTICLE X

The administration and jurisdiction of these laws rests with the student government organization. Acting in this capacity temporarily the Booster Club will hear cases of offense of any violation of these rules, and will administer any penalties.

FRESHMEN CLASS HAS BARN PARTY WITHOUT A RAID

Theatre Party Is Also Enjoyed by Members of First Year Class

The first freshman party of the year was held on the evening of Oct. 12 in a barn east of town. It was evident that the upper-classmen were "in the dark" concerning the time and place of the party.

A freshman gives the following version of the party:

The freshman started to gather for their first party about eight-thirty p. m. One by one, the autos, loaded with the "green," ploughed and bounced through the mud to the farm where the party was held. When all had climbed the ladder to the haymow of the barn, the fun began.

A grand march to the tunes of the mighty Fischer organ, donated for the party by a freshman, opened the party. Whenever order was obtained, games and exercises were enjoyed. The uproarious affair was closed by the serving of sandwiches, doughnuts and pop, and ended about 11:30.

When the freshman Conservatory scattered about the "Con," they decided on revenge. It was sweet. With cold, clammy hands, the upper class girls were pulled from their warm beds and ducked in a bathtub of cold water, after which all sought rest.

Because notice of the theatre party planned for that night was too widespread, that feature was held the following night at the York Theatre. The class saw "Forgotten Faces," which concluded the first class party.

REV. PAUL TURNER IS SPEAKER AT CHAPEL

"Project Yourself Into Reality," Advises Local Pastor

"Are you a partaker of life! Do you project yourself into reality?" These two questions formed the theme for chapel address on Oct. 17, given by the Rev. Paul Turner, pastor of the local Presbyterian church.

"Many of us excuse ourselves out of the little services we should render our neighbors, and throw the responsibility on to the other fellow. Why shouldn't we shoulder at least our share of that responsibility and thus be real partakers of life?" commented Rev. Mr. Turner.

The story of the good Samaritan, taken from the Bible, was the principal illustration used by Rev. Mr. Turner, and in telling the story he stated that some of the best short stories in literature were to be found in the Bible.

English teachers think slang is "all wet." They say you can't make your meaning clear with it, and that slang was out of style long ago. Accordingly you can't say that Mann played a "bang-up" game. He has to play very well. Can you beat it?"—A Freshman.

NO REGRETS

Professor: "You missed class yesterday, didn't you?"

Student: "Not at all, old boy, not at all."—Sour Owl.

PANTHER HEAD MAY BE WORN BY BOOSTER CLUB

"Y" Club Votes to Extend This Privilege to Club

The emblem of the head of a Panther, which is the athletic insignia of the College, may be worn by all members of the Booster Club, according to a decision of the "Y" Club in its regular monthly meeting at the conservatory on the evening of Oct. 24.

The "Y" Club also took up the matter of properly standardizing the College letters, for which purpose a committee was appointed with Coach R. B. McCandless as chairman. Rollie Wildman was appointed chairman of a committee to collect as many pictures as possible of former York College athletic teams, and Sutton Hice was appointed chairman of a committee to formulate a constitution for the "Y" Club.

RETURN MISSIONARY TELLS OF HURRICANE

Mrs. C. I. Mohler Describes
Storm at Porto Rico

The recent hurricane which devastated much of the island

Mohler, '07, at the Sunday evening church service of the United Brethren church on Oct. 14. Mrs. Mohler just recently returned with her children from Porto Rico where her husband, also a member of the class of '07, is now assisting in the work of reconstructing the island.

Mrs. Mohler said that the banana crop of the island was almost entirely destroyed and that many of the palm trees were blown over. She said that during the storm the roof of their house was torn off and the rain drenched the furnishings thoroughly. In the course of her talk Mrs. Mohler expressed an appreciation of the support the Christian organizations of the College gave on the evening of Oct. 18, the proceeds of which were to be sent to Porto Rico to aid in the work there.

HALLOWE'EN IS FEATURED AT ZETA MEETING OCT. 23

Hallowe'en was featured in the Zeta Literary Society program Oct. 23.

The program was as follows:

Rachmaninoff's Prelude -----

Charles Kraft

Hallowe'en Story - Verne Dierdorff

Vocal Solo ----- Donald Fisher

"In the Heart of the Hills"

Violin obligato by Francis

Edmundson.

"Origin of Hallowe'en" -----

Ferne Meadville

Surprise Number, "Silent Vitaphone"

Harlie Allen, Hazel Bearss and

Francis Price

The "silent vitaphone" is the name given to the shadow pictures which were acts presented by Francis Price and Harlie Allen.

At the business meeting, the following officers were installed: treasurer, Anna Marquardt; critic, Doris Smith; chorister, Marletta Cain. Seven new members were initiated, following which pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and candy were served as part of the surprise party.

PRES. OVERMILLER STATES GYM WILL BE READY DEC. 30

New Athletic Building to Seat
1000; to Have Good Size
Playing Floor

A new gymnasium, which has been desired for so many years, is now definitely planned for York College. Pres. J. R. Overmiller announced in chapel on Oct. 25 that the gymnasium would be available for the first home game of the season, stating that the date set for its completion was Dec. 30.

The dimensions of the playing floor, which will be made of oak, will be 80x44 feet. Two galleries on each side of the playing floor will seat approximately 1000 spectators. Two dressing rooms, which will be under the galleries, two shower rooms, and two offices will also be located in the gymnasium. The playing floor will be set on a concrete base. The building will be stuccoed. The outside dimensions of the entire building will be 90x74 feet.

The alumni of the College are advancing $2000 from their building fund to start the construction of pledges.

The president's announcement in chapel received a hearty applause from the students, both when he announced that York College was definitely going to have a new gymnasium and when he added that it would be completed in time to play the first basketball game of the season in it. Following his announcement the students gave him a generous cheer.

The new gymnasium will meet a need which has been realized for some time, particularly last year when York College won the Nebraska Collegiate Athletic Conference basketball championship, that need being a standard size, unobstructed basketball court and a building large enough to accommodate all the spectators who want to attend the games. In the past many spectators were obliged to stand up to witness the game, while many more undoubtedly would have attended the games had there only been seating accommodation.

With three seasoned players back from last year's championship basketball team, Coach R. B. McCandless feels that the prospects of another championship basketball team are unusually bright. Captain Fred Gilbert, Louis Helzer, last year's captain, and Vernon Moist, whose height is more than six feet, will form the nucleus around which Coach McCandless will build his basketball team this winter. Helzer was rated as all-state center last year, while both Gilbert and Moist stand good chances of rating on the all-state teams this year.

WEBSTER'S "UP-TO-DATE"

Chapel—a necessary evil.
Date—the coed's chief ambition.
English—a dead language, used in the class room only.
Football coach—an ambulance.
Office—a place to meet your friends.
Rally—John K's golden opportunity.
Recitation—sixty minutes of dodging the professor's curiosity.
Study—obsolete, a lost art.
Student body—the source of all evil.

CHEER UP MAC

"I met a college boy the other evening who did not have a sneer for an Eddie Guest poem or a Bruce Barton editorial and who did not think H. L. Mencken was so hot. It was for me the first glimmer of hope for young America since Lindbergh made his trip," remarked O. O. McIntyre in his syndicated column in the Nebraska State Journal two weeks ago.

Cheer up, Mac. There are literally thousands of young men and women in Christian colleges over the land who enjoy the poems of Edgar Guest and the editorials of Bruce Barton, and undoubtedly many of them have no time for H. L. Mencken either.

At the pep rally on the evening of Oct 18, Coach McCandless bought a can of marshmallows and passed them around to the students who turned out. We believe this ought to be kept a secret or the whole school is liable to turn out for the pep rally.

WHICH ARE YOU?

The two kinds of people on earth I mean
Are the people who lift and the people who lean.
Wherever you go, you will find the world's masses
Always divided in just these two classes.
And, oddly enough, you will find too, I ween,
There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.
In which class are you? Are you easing the load
Of overtaxed lifters who toil down the road?
Or are you a leaner who lets others bear
Your portion of labor and worry and care?

ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS

Ethyl Spore, '27, has accepted a position in the Division of Field Studies, which is in the Institute of Educational Research of the Teachers' College at the Columbia University. Dorothy Feaster, '23, met her at the station when she arrived in New York. Miss Spore, however, is now in Tennessee with a surveying party. Lloyd Nichols, '27, of Denver, Colo., is attending the Bonebrake Seminary this year. Elzadie Leese, '27, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is attending the University of New Mexico this year. Miss Leta Harris, of Smith Center, Kansas, has recently announced her engagement to Mr. Jewel Gardner. Miss Harris attended school here in 1926-27. Donald Hale, who taught and coached at Milford high school for two years, is now attending school at Lincoln. G. W. Saunders, who has been superintendent of the Milford high school for five years, is now a salesman for a book concern.

Irvin Caldwell, '24, is now teaching and coaching at the Milford high school. This is Caldwell's second year at Milford.

Florence Townsend, '22, after returning from her trip around the world, is again located at Danville, Conn.

Florence Moore, '25, and Gilbert Deason were recently married by Prof. Warren Baller.

Mrs. C. I. Mohler, '07, is now visiting her home while Mr. Mohler remains in Porto Rico to help in the reconstruction work about the island. The Mohler family will make their home in the N. A. Dean house during their stay in York.

W. B. Johns, '01, has been given a fellowship at the University of Nebraska.

Ruth Garwood Quick has a baby boy. No wonder Grandpa Garwood looks happy. He has also been entertaining a son and his family from Colorado.

Marie Jeffers is teaching normal training and history in the high school at Silver Creek.

C. W. Gwinn, who graduated from York College in 1905 and later received his M. A. degree from the University of Nebraska, is now head of the Department of Education in the Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, West Virginia.

Mrs. L. H. Wimmer was a visitor in York recently. Mr. Wimmer, '24, or "Harvey," as he was known in College, is teaching in Portis, Kans. Camille Packner, '27, is teaching at Rising City, Nebr.

Lynn Dankle, '23, is superintendent of schools at Colburg, Ia., this year.

Five years after graduation the class of 1923 is still enjoying each other through the medium of a round robin letter.

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

A new student, Miss Elma Katzenbrink enrolled in the Commercial Department this week.

Ardyce Chapin was awarded two pins by each of the Under-111 Freshmen and the L. C. Smith, Inc., typewriting companies for passing the 50 word test last month. Florence Oberlander was awarded two bronze pins for passing the 40 word test.

Brighton Houston, who won first place in the local audition of the Atwater-Kent vocal contest, was placed second at Omaha.

The Carter's Ink Company, who awarded a Carter pen and pencil set last year to one of the students will again offer this award to any student in the school making the greatest improvement in penmanship.

PALS GIVE HALLOWE'EN PROGRAM FOR MEETING

A Hallowe'en program was presented at the Pals Literary meeting the night of Oct. 23.

The program, which was very suitable to the occasion, was as follows: Extemporaneous:

"My Ideal Hallowe'en"
Katherine Spore, Raymond Bryant
Vocal Solo-----Marjorie Carpenter
Dissertation on a Pumpkin -----
----- Fred Gilbert

Vocal Solo, "The Sneak" -----
----- Mary Marjorie Haner
A Hallowe'en Poem:

"Tricky Hallowe'en"
Esther Barker

"My Ideal Hallowe'en" consisted of the stories of Hallowe'en parties. Fred Gilbert's "Dissertation on a Pumpkin," brought in numerous things about a pumpkin, and "The Sneak", was particularly suggestive of a Hallowe'en.

The York College Glee Club will present a cantata, "A Man Without a Country," on the evening of Oct. 30 at 8 o'clock at the United Brethren church.

If either Raymond Bryant or Frances Harbert should be asked by his wife to copy the radio recipe some morning and there are two stations on at the same time, one broadcasting setting-up exercises and the other recipes, someone has suggested that the result would be something like this:
"Hands on hips, place one cupful of flour on shoulders, raise knees and depress toes, and wash thoroughly in one-half cupful of milk.
"In four counts raise both legs and mash two hard-boiled eggs in a sieve. Repeat six times. Inhale one teaspoonful of baking powder and one cupful of flour, breath through the nose and exhale the sift.
"Attention! Jump to a stride, stand and bend the white of an egg backward and forward overhead, and in four counts make a stiff dough that will stretch at the waist. Lie flat on the floor and roll into a marble the size of a walnut.
"Hop backward and forward in boiling water, but do not boil into a stationary run afterward. In ten minutes remove from the fire and dry with a towel. Breathe deeply put on a bath robe and serve with a fish soup."

N. C. A. C.—WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

What do they mean? They are the initials of the Nebraska Collegiate Athletic Conference, of which York College is a member.

The college conference of Nebraska formerly contained practically all of the colleges of the state. But many felt that the normal schools had an unfair advantage over the smaller denominational colleges, and as a result a meeting was called last year after football season. Each college was represented, and eight denominational colleges of the state formed the new conference. The normal schools with Dana college and Omaha university formed another.

The eight schools forming the N. C. A. C. are: Nebraska Wesleyan, at Lincoln; Cotner, at Bethany; Doane, at Crete; Hastings, at Hastings; Grand Island, at Grand Island; Midland, at Fremont; Nebraska Central, at Central City; and York, at York.

We are all proud of the fact that our own college won the first championship in the new conference by winning the N. C. A. C. basketball championship last season.

Feathered Dustbins

Would you care for a vulture in place of your dustbin? In Tibet, where there are no modern facilities for getting rid of refuse such as are afforded in this country, vultures are used for this purpose.

The lamas make a practice of trapping the cinerons or black vultures and fastening a long rope to the bird's leg. The other end of the rope is attached to a peg driven in the ground, and each bird is provided with a big rock on which to perch. Garbage is strewn around it, and the scavenging birds feed on this and quickly clear it away.

Best Talking Parrots

The Maraban double yellow-headed parrot is probably the best talking bird among American parrots. It is probably the equal of the African gray, which is the Old world favorite.

Demand for Oxygen Grows

The demand for liquid oxygen since it was first made in this country in 1907 has grown enormously, and there are now in the United States 150 oxygen manufacturing plants, not to mention the 500 and more warehouses and distributing stations. In 1909, the output of liquid oxygen amounted to 3,814,000 cubic feet. Sixteen years later, in 1925, it reached 2,073,826,000 cubic feet. It is an interesting fact that the cost of production within that interval was reduced from 4.7 to 1.09 cents per cubic foot.—Washington Star.

York Ties Grand Island On Oct. 26 By Score of 0 to 0

Cotner Bulldogs Beat Panthers in Hard Fought Battle on Home Field

The York College Panthers and the Grand Island Zebras battled against each other on the Zebra's home gridiron to a scoreless tie on Oct. 26.

The game was ragged, full of fumbles and loose plays, and neither team showed very much aggressive football. The Panthers showed a slight superiority to the Zebras, although they were not able to score.

Part of the Panther team's lack of punch may have been due to the changes in the line-up. Captain Mann was at fullback instead of his usual tackle position. Ruppel was playing at end instead of halfback. Roberts "played on one leg," an injury to his knee preventing him from playing his usual game. Casebeer received an injury that took him from the game before it was well under way.

Vaughan for Grand Island played a wonderful game, and got away for a number of good gains for his team. The game opened by Grand Island kicking to York. York could not gain, was penalized, and finally punted. Vaughan broke loose and made a forty-yard run. Later in the quarter Byrnes intercepted a pass and ran forty-five yards with it. The breaks were fairly even in the first quarter, but from then on Grand Island seemed to get most of them.

In the second quarter Grand Island came near scoring twice. The first time York held for downs and punted back to safety. The game was full of punts from then to near the end of the half. A fumble gave Grand Island the ball on York's four-yard line. York held three downs and the ball was still a yard from the goal when the whistle blew for the half.

The game ended with the ball in Grand Island's possession on York's 40-yard line, leaving both sides disappointed in the outcome, the score being 0-0.

The Cotner Bulldogs tried to run away with the Panthers on the gridiron on Oct. 19, but when the game ended the Bulldogs found that, although they had a ferocious bark, barking wasn't everything.

The final score was 25-0, but from remarks heard before the game and from certain press reports we suspect that the Bulldogs had expected it to be some four times that difference.

York chose to receive and made a first down. Cotner held and then took the ball. A fumble gave the ball to York, but another fumble returned it to Cotner again, putting them close to the goal line. It wasn't long until Kitchen scored for Cotner, but his kick after goal went wide.

During the second quarter Cotner scored two touchdowns and failed to make a third when they sent an incomplete pass into the end zone. York showed little punch in this quarter and Cotner substituted freely. The half ended with the Bulldogs on a rampage, and the score 18-0.

After the half the teams started with the same line-up, except that Bowers substituted for Richards in center position on the Cotner team. The Panthers showed more fight, and forced Cotner to make their first punt of the game. Again during this quarter Cotner lost a touchdown by making an incomplete pass into the end zone.

Casebeer hit the line for a series of plays that started York for the goal. But they couldn't maintain the pace, and were forced to punt. The quarter ended without either team scoring.

In the last quarter Cotner recovered one of their own punts on York's 19-yard line. In only a few seconds the ball was over again, and Kitchen made good the try-for-point with a place kick. The game ended with the ball deep in York's territory. Cotner showed lots of power, but they seemed unable to use it as much as they wanted to. Heavy penalties held them back considerably.
