VARSIITY-FRESHMEN GAME ENDS IN TIE

SENIORS ENTERTAIN JUNIORS AT ANNUAL HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Merry Gathering at Y. M. C. A. Finds Late Ending at Winter Garden

Members of the Senior class entertained the Juniors at an annual Halloween party, in the city Y. M. C. A., on Friday evening, October 31. Special guests were Mrs. Henry Kliever, Mrs. Homer Crosby, and Miss Ethel Dixon. Mrs. Warren Baller could not be present.

Each Senior was responsible for the safe arrival of at least one guest. The guests were blindfolded before the journey began. Then they were taken on foot or in cars by devious ways, to the scene of festivities. Only when the final destination was reached were the blindfolds removed.

Everyone was told to dress in the oldest garments he could find, therefore the costumes beggar description. A prize, offered for the best costume, was awarded to Neva Brookhart, who appeared in cap, shirt, and trousers much too large. A typical witch, a demure deaconess, an old tramp, and a kitchen maid were among the group.

Games and stunts of various kinds were enjoyed in the gymnasium and the students were afforded the rare privilege of watching Professors Warren Baller and Ray Hill, the class sponsors, each push a penny along the floor with his nose. Prof. Baller won this exciting race, amid the cheers of the spectators.

After tiring of games in the gymnasium, the group proceeded to the lobby, where those who desired to do so played billiards, table tennis, dominoes or checkers. The management of the Y. M. C. A. was very generous in giving the Juniors and Seniors free way here.

Luncheon, consisting of pop-corn balls, apples, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee, was then served in the dining hall, which was gaily decorated in Halloween colors. Long streamers of crepe paper hung from the lights, skeletons and witches appeared in unexpected places, and the tables were lighted by huge jack-o-lanterns. Favors were paper horns, upon which everybody blew lustily. Music was furnished by a radio. Milan Lambert, also played some piano numbers, while Lee Knolle contributed some vocal selections. Vivian Hoyle, on behalf of the Juniors, thanked the Seniors for the pleasant occasion.

But the evening's enjoyment was not yet complete, for now all proceeded to the Winter Garden to try their hands at indoor golf. After chasing the balls through the intricate mazes of the eighteen hole course, all departed for their homes, with the pleasant feeling that the evening had indeed been very enjoyable.

MRS. J. C. MORGAN TALKS TO Y. W. C. A. CABINET GIRLS

Mrs. J. C. Morgan gave a review of the book, "Mabel Cratty" at the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet meeting on Oct. 22.

The book is an autobiography of a woman famous in the work of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Morgan mentioned the early life of the author, and the Christian influence of her Scotch-Irish ancestors. During her girlhood Mabel Cratty lived in Ohio and later taught in the schools of her home town.

Mme. Gray-Lhevinne and Laddie Boy

Laddie Boy, pianist, and his distinguished mother, Mme. Estelle Gray-Lhevinne, will appear together in a special engagement at the United Brethren Church on the evening of Nov. 5, at 8 p. m.

York College in sponsoring this program of unusual interest and entertainment, brings to York two world famous music masters. Mme. Gray-Lhevinne is acclaimed the world's most noted woman violinist, while Laddie Boy presents the same selections as Mozart played at his age before the Royal houses of Europe.

MISS GLADYS SHAMP ADDRESSES Y. W. C. A.

Discusses Activities and Ideals of Campfire Girls.

Miss Gladys Shamp, national field secretary of the campfire girls of America, addressed the Y. W. C. A. on October 28.

In the course of her address, Miss Shamp discussed the various activities of the organization. Girls, below ten years of age, who are members of the group, are known as Blue Birds, those above as campfire girls. The campfire group is then divided into three groups, namely, wood gatherers, fire makers, and torch bearers. Each girl is to select for herself a symbol and a name suggestive of something which she hopes to become. Her activities must then be bent toward the attainment of this aim.

The speaker pointed out happiness, health, love of human-kind, and the attainment of a good character as ideals of the organization.

Miss Shamp was accompanied by Mrs. Walter Baer, guardian of the Toheo camp of this city. Mrs. Baer also addressed the group, stressing ideals of service, health, appreciation for the beautiful, and trustworthiness. She emphasized the fact that by following these ideals, the girls of America will become better citizens. In closing, she expressed the need of the local organization for more guardians, as all the girls who wish to join cannot do so, because they cannot be taken care of.

MEN AND WOMEN DEBATE ON SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Y. W. C. A. Takes Judges' Decision Two to One.

The joint meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. on Oct. 21 was devoted to a debate on the question: "Resolved, That our college and university students are devoting too much time to outside activities."

The affirmative team representing the Y. W. C. A., was composed of Neva Brookhart, Maude Mann, and Minnie Gebbers. The negative team, representing the Y. M. C. A., was made up of William Hice, Rodney Whittemore, and Russell Lewis.

The affirmative speakers defined education and stressed the limited time for obtaining it, the benefits of library and research work which can not be derived if too much time is spent on outside activities, and the effect of the divided interest which will result if there are too many outside activities.

The negative team claimed that there was a justification for outside activities, that leading colleges and universities are restricting them, and that there are moral values to be gained from these activities.

The judges, Professors Warren Baller, J. C. Morgan, and Mary Alice Slee gave the decision to the affirmative team by a two to one vote.

"THURSDAY EVENING" PRESENTED IN CHAPEL

Members of Histrionic Club Give Comedy.

"Thursday Evening," a one-act comedy of domestic life, written by Christopher Morley, was presented in chapel October 23 by members of the Histrionic Club.

The scene was laid in the kitchen of the Gordon Johns' home, the action taking place on Thursday evening. It was the maid's night out and the young husband and wife were enjoying an evening together as they washed the dishes, until discussion arose over matters of economy and ended in a quarrel. A visit from both mothers complicated the situation until, seeing the need for a better understanding between their children they devised a plan for reconciliation.

The cast of characters was as follows:

- Gordon Johns-----William Hice
- Laura Johns, his wife-----
- Dorothea Hintz
- Mrs. Sheffield, Laura's mother-----
- Naidine Robinson
- Mrs. Johns, Gordon's mother-----
- Marle Anderson

Preceding the play a short quotation from Phillips Brooks was given by Floyd Merchant, a member of the public speaking class. June Crosby, president of the Histrionic Club, acted as chairman.

ANNUAL FOOTBALL CLASSIC ENDS IN SCORELESS TIE

Upperclassmen Hold Advantage In Yards Gained; Students View Struggle.

The annual freshman-upperclassmen football classic ended in a scoreless tie on the Panther gridiron last Thursday afternoon. It was the first of three contests in the Freshman Olympics which decide the fate of the green caps. Harlan Muth, of Seward, led the Freshies against Captain Ruppel's varsity eleven.

Statistics of the game show that the varsity had a slight advantage in the contest. The varsity gained 154 yards from the line of scrimmage, while the Freshies annexed a total of 117. PASSES accounted for 114 yards for the upperclassmen, while the Green Caps caught the pigskin for a 58 yard total. Subtracting the losses from the line of scrimmage, figures prove that the varsity gained a net total of 137 yards to the Freshies 99 yards.

First quarter First quarter.

Hersey kicked to Flickinger, who returned 8 yards. Wendell tried the varsity line for a gain of one yard. Wendell went off tackle for four yards. Muth kicked to Ruppel who returned four yards. Gard tried the freshman line for no gain and Ruppel made a yard through the center. Green kicked to Muth, who returned seven yards. In two line bucks Wendell annexed five yards.

Muth's attempt to pass was incomplete, and Greene returned Muth's punt ten yards. Greene made five yards in three line bucks. Hersey's pass was incomplete but the Freshies were penalized 5 yards for offside. First and ten for the Varsity.

A bad pass from center was recovered by Hoffman. Muth's pass was incomplete. A pass, Muth to Jeffers was good for 23 yards and a first down. Adams hit tackle for 3 yards. A pass, Adams to Muth, gained 7 yards. In two line bucks Wendell made a first and ten. Gallant threw Adams for a 13 yard loss on an attempted end run. Muth's pass to Wendell was incomplete. The freshmen were penalized for offside.

The upperclassmen gained 10 yards in a short punting duel. Ruppel went off tackle for 3 yards. A pass, Green to Gallant, was good for 40 yards as the quarter ended.

Second quarter.

Ruppel lost 2 yards on a bad pass from center, and Green lost 15 yards on an attempted pass. Hersey's pass was incomplete. Knolle kicked to

FRESHMAN CLASS HOLDS PARTY IN GYMNASIUM

The absence of upperclassmen from the freshman party held at the gymnasium on Friday evening, Oct. 24, was the great surprise of the whole affair. Except for the lovely odor of hydrogen sulfide that permeated the building, and the absence of fuses that were later replaced, the freshmen were not inconvenienced in any way.

The evening was spent in playing such games as, Happy is the Miller Boy, Lose Your Supper, Three Deep, and Spin the Milk Bottle. The main feature of the program was the presentation of four stunts: The Burial of the Upperclassmen, Singin' in the Rain, Middlebrook, and Gatherin' Nuts.

After the games and stunts, "eats" consisting of elder, popcorn balls and ham sandwiches were served.

HARLAN MUTH
Muth, regular varsity quarterback, led the Freshman against the upperclass team, last Thursday afternoon. Harlan's home is Seward, Nebraska.

RAY RUPPEL

LITERARY SOCIETIES

In former years the literary societies in York College were one of the main activities. In the last few years the aims of the societies have become more along the social line. We have other organizations on the campus to carry on these social activities.

The literary societies should afford a place to express one's self in, a place in which to lose one's self-consciousness when appearing in public, and a place in which to hear of things of literary value.

It is the aim of the Zeta Literary Society to carry out these purposes to the fullest extent possible. The programs have all been planned with this literary aspect in mind.

You are invited to attend the programs and join our society if you wish. We are striving to get members who will be willing to carry out the principles of the Zeta Literary Society, and those who will do their part toward making Zeta a growing society.

ANALASISS OF THE FROG

By Josh Billings

In writing for yu an analasiss ov the frog, i must confess that i hav copied the whole thing, "verbatus ad liberating," from the works ov a seledrated French writer on natural history, ov the 16th sentry.

The frog iz, in the fust case, a tadpole, aul boddy and tail, without cuming tew a head.

He travels in pond holes, bi the side ov the turnpike, and iz accelerated bi the aekktivty ov his tail, which wriggles with uncommon limberness and vivacity. Bi and bi, pretty soon before long, in a few daze, his tail iz no more, and legs begin to emerge from the south end ov the animal; and from the north end, at the same time, may be seen a disposttion tew head out.

In this cautious way the frog iz built, and then for the fust time in his life begins tew git his head abuv water.

His success iz now certain, and soon, in about five daze more, he may be seen sitting down on himself bi the side ov the pond hole, and looking at the dinner baskets ov the children on their way tew the distrikt skoolhouse.

Az the children cum more nearer, with a club, or chunk ov a brickbat in his hand tew swott him with, he rares up on his behind legs, and enters the water, head fust, without opening the door.

Thus the frog duz bizzness for a spell of time, until he gits tew be 21, and then his life iz more ramified.

Frogs hav 2 naturs, ground and water, and are az free from sin az an oyster.

I never knu a frog tew hurt enny-boddy who paid his honest dets and took the daily papers.

I don't reckoleckt now whether a frog has enny before leggs or not, and if he don't it ain't enny boddy's bizzness but the frog's.

Their hind leggs are used for refreshments, but the rest ov him won't pay for eating.

A frog iz the only person who kan live in a well, and not git tired.

PANTHERS SCORE WIN OVER QUAKER ELEVEN ON CENTRAL GRIDIRON

Central Goes Down to 28 to 0 Defeat at Hands of the York College Gridsters.

After being held to a single touchdown during the first half of their battle with the Nebraska Central College eleven at Central City, Oct. 25, the Panthers of York College finally got going during the last two quarters and took the Quakers into camp by a 28-0 score. While the York eleven clearly outplayed their opponents during the first and second quarters they couldn't seem to find the proper combination when they reached scoring territory. Soon after the opening kickoff a series of line bucks, featuring the terrific smashes of Fritz Wendell, brought the ball near the Nebraska Central goal line but a fumble spoiled this chance to score.

York's passes were going wide of the intended mark most of the first half and it was principally the ball lugging efforts of Wendell and the nice returns of Central punts by Muth that kept the ball in Quaker territory. The York line piled up the running plays of the Central City backs and on several occasions got through to block the Central punts.

The first touchdown came during the first period when Fritz Wendell went banging off tackle for several good gains that brought the ball close to the Central goal. Harlan Muth went over for the counter on a drive through center. Hersey place kicked the extra point and York was leading, 7-0.

Just previous to this scoring effort, the Quakers had held on their one-yard line to terminate a Panther threat which developed when a pass, Muth to Gallant, gained 40 yards and put the ball deep in Central territory.

The Panthers entered the second half with new life and with Jose, Wendell and Muth alternating at lugging the ball on line smashes, mixed in with a pass, Muth to Ruppel, and an occasional scamper around end by the fleet-footed Clark Adams, the Panthers put over their second counter during the third quarter. Fritz Wendell packed the ball over the goal line. A pass for the extra point failed to connect and the teams went into the fourth period with York leading, 13-0.

Going with the wind during the final quarter the McCandless machine seemed to "click" in approved fashion. Several passes from Muth to Adams, Gallant and Ruppel, and runs from punt formation by Jose and Muth, coupled with Wendell's line smashes, brought the ball to the Central 10-yard line where the sturdy shoulders of Wendell finally shoved the Quaker forwards over the final white stripe. The try for point failed.

Soon after the next kickoff the Nebraska Central pivot man passed the ball over the head of the kicker who was back in punt formation and when a Central back attempted to return the recovered pigskin Ray Ruppel downed him behind the Central goal line, adding a safety to the York scoring column.

With about a minute left to go Central put the ball in play from their own twenty yard line and kicked to the Panthers. Adams, whose speed has manufactured several brilliant scoring efforts this season, grabbed the ball on the York 30-yard line and streaked down the side lines for a spectacular 70-yard run over the final chalk mark. When Marvin Hersey place-kicked the extra point the day's scoring was done and the blue and white held a 28-0 advantage.

Nebraska Central put up a game fight during the early part of the battle and with Wilson and the husky Watkins carrying the ball they did a nice job of driving through the York line for substantial yardage on several occasions.

Melton stood out in the Quaker line and proved to be a vexation to the Panther ball-luggers all afternoon.

For York, acting captain Wilbur Gard played a strong defensive game, as did Hersey and Lewis. As usual Gallant and Ruppel were making it tough for opponents who thought of trying the Panther ends. The work of Muth, Wendell and Adams looked best in the Panther backfield.

STUDENT COUNCIL HOLDS COURT MEETING

At the court session Tuesday, October 21, the student council tried the following students for infraction of the college regulations: Calvin Feemster, Vicente Colon, Harold Wilcox, Oren Jose, and Margaret Johnson. Calvin Feemster pleaded not guilty to the charge of not having his green cap. However, proof was presented and he was sentenced to fifteen spats.

Vicente Colon was tried for misconduct, contempt of court, and protecting a guilty freshman. He pleaded "not guilty" and as no proof was presented, he was released.

Harold Wilcox was convicted of not having a green cap and sentenced to push a peanut with his nose from the intersection of the walk south of the library to the library steps.

Oren Jose was found guilty of not having his green cap with him and sentenced to push the peanut in the same manner from the library steps back to the intersection.

Margaret Johnson, who pleaded guilty to charges of not having the green cap, was sentenced to wear a sign on her back: "This freshman did not wear her green cap."
