

Annual Jolly-Up Reception Held At Y.C. Gym.

First All-College Social Event Well Attended by Student Body

The first all-college function of the year was held in the college gymnasium on the evening of Sept. 16, at 8:00 p. m. A large group of students and faculty participated in this annual get-together.

Following informal introductions, the three upper classes gave a program of stunts and music. Prof. Ray Hill awarded the winning prize, a link of balogna, to the sophomore class who presented the cleverest stunt.

The sophomore stunt was in the form of a mock wedding, Dean Kimball acting as the bride and Jack Graham as the groom. The ceremony, performed by Vernie Buttermore, was also attended by Milton Maurer, as the bride's father, and Lyndie Moore, Maid of Honor. Preceding the ceremony Arthur Amadon and Howard Kingsley scattered flowers for the bridal couple.

The junior quartet sang, "Grandfather's Clock". The juniors displayed the actions of a Freshman sponsor who had to spend about a quarter of an hour in determining whether it was safe for his class to cross a railroad track.

The seniors presented the actions of an old school teacher in welcoming his new class of freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Five years later he welcomes them back expecting to see the fruits of his labors but his hopes are blasted and he falls in a faint.

Refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served at the conclusion of the program.

Y.M.C.A. Holds First Meeting of New Year

Men Are Welcomed by President Raymond Wochner, of Y. M. C. A.

Conditions pointed to an active year in Y. M. C. A. work as President Raymond Wochner called the first meeting to order Tuesday morning, September 20, for the purpose of explaining Y. M. C. A. principles, and also to get the young men of York College interested in coming to the regular meetings.

It was emphasized that the meetings belonged to the members. Each member might consider himself free to bring up any life problems or make any suggestions that he might care to make throughout the entire year. In this way fellowship, one big purpose of the Y. M. C. A., is expected to be brought to a higher level than before.

The meeting opened with the reading of scripture by William Hice. Raymond Wochner then gave a welcome address to the new men, inviting them to attend the regular meetings. Prof. Ray Hill, sponsor of the Y. M. C. A. gave a short talk on the place of Y. M. C. A. in York College. He emphasized the idea that the organization should create fellowship and establish religious principles.

A schedule of some of the events that will take place within the next few months at Y. M. C. A. meetings was given by Theron Maxson, chairman of the program committee.

Two musical numbers, a baritone solo by Maurice Brookhart and a saxophone solo played by Vicente Colon concluded the program. William Hice acted as accompanist.

Y. W. C. A. LITTLE SISTER HIKE

The annual Big and Little Sister hike, sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., was held on the evening of September 19.

About thirty girls left the conservatory at 4:30 p. m. and hiked to the city park. Appetites were sharpened by several games and stunts, after which a picnic supper of wieners, buns, pickles, and marshmallows was served.

The purpose of this annual affair is to further acquaintance among the old and new girls.

U. B. STUDENT CONFERENCE

Students in all United Brethren

Colleges, including York, will meet for a three day conference at Bonebrake Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, December 27-30, 1932. Questions for discussion at this conference have been selected so as not to overlap with those usually considered at such national student gatherings as are sponsored by the Christian Associations and Student Volunteers. Campus problems will be presented for consideration and action, special attention being given to the relationship between college students and the church and how to create a sane, constructive spiritual life on the campus.

Roy A. Burkhart, Associate Director of Young People's Work of International Council of Religious Education, well known to college students, is one of the leaders already selected. Other speakers will be announced soon including several students who will present the undergraduate's point of view.

Delegations from each United Brethren college will be limited so that the conference shall not exceed fifty persons. This will facilitate frank, free discussions, and tend toward a unity of purpose not possible in a large gathering. Aside from York, other institutions represented at the conference will be Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio; Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pa.; Indiana Central College, Indianapolis, Ind.; Shenandoah Junior College, Dayton, Vr.; Bonebrake Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio. This will be the first gathering ever held where United Brethren students have assembled for a conference of their own.

Students Win Local Atwater Kent Audition

Julia Wilson and Frank Green, in the women's and men's classes respectively, won the 6th annual Atwater Kent local audition held in York, Sunday, September 18, over KGBZ, in which five young women and seven men participated.

Others taking part in the contest were: Doris Stiverson, Mrs. Ray Ruppel, Genevieve Rystrom, Evelyn McKain, Arthur Amadon, Kenneth Jenkins, William Hice, Raymond Wochner, and Marvin Hersey. The winner will compete in the district audition and the winner of the district audition will compete in the national audition.

Recent winners of local auditions have been York College students with possibly one or two exceptions. In 1927, Theodore Peterson, '31, and Irene Campbell were the winners. In 1928, Brighton Houston and Mrs. Ray Hill, then Miss Ethel Dixon, '30. In 1929, Lee Knolle, '32, and Mrs. Lois Overmiller Ruppel, '31. In 1930 Lee Knolle duplicated his feat and this time Miss Jeanette Bisset, '32, was the winner in the women's division. In 1931, again Lee Knolle won the men's class with Lucille Campbell in the ladies' division.

A prize of $5,000 each is given the winners of the national audition, $1,000 each to the second place winners, and prizes of $500 each to the next six runners-up.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR HOLDS RECEPTION

A large number of young people attended the Christian Endeavor reception for new students given the evening of September 21 at the United Brethren church.

A new male quartette, consisting of Carl Lee, Carroll Myers, Samuel Lee, and Paul Myers, appeared on the program. They sang "Stars of the Summer Night", the words of which were taken from Longfellow's "The Spanish Student". The greetings of welcome were given by Frances Michael, president of the organization, and were responded to by Viola Wimmer. Alma Walker then contributed a piano solo, which was followed by a reading given by Walter Speece.

A girl's trio consisting of Viola Wimmer, Julia Wilson, and Carolyn Duncan, sang a sacred number. William Hice gave a reading followed by a vocal solo by Kenneth Jenkins. Raymond Wochner, Y. M. C. A. president, spoke briefly on The Place of the Christian Associations on Our Campus, after which the male quartette sang. The organ postlude was played by Miss Eda Rankin.

Rev. H. A. Dierdorff Delivers Address At Formal Opening

Convocation Service of Fall Term Held at Chapel Hour On Sept. 13

"Take God into Partnership", urged the Rev. H. A. Dierdorff, speaker at the formal opening of the forty-second year of York College. The program was held in the chapel the morning of September 13.

Following the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy", by the group, the Rev. Paul Porter, college pastor, read the scripture and led in prayer. President Overmiller then introduced the Rev. Mr. Dierdorff, United Brethren pastor at Hastings.

As a text the speaker used the words, "What Hast Thou in Thy Hand?", as spoken to Moses at the beginning of his ministry.

"God gives each a talent", the Rev. Mr. Dierdorff stated. "It is your duty to analyze the possibilities that lie in your hands". The student body was asked to take God into partnership in business, in studies, in social activities and in religion.

"The fear of the Lord", the speaker pointed out in closing, "is the beginning of wisdom".

Following the address Frank Green sang an aria from Faust, "Even Bravest Hearts", accompanied at the piano by Miss Eda Rankin.

Preceding dismissal, President Overmiller presented Dean Bisset, who introduced the faculty members to the incoming student group.

Mrs. J. C. Morgan Speaks at Y.W.C.A.

Women Welcomed at First Meeting of Year

"Loyalty" was the subject discussed by Mrs. J. C. Morgan at the first meeting of the Y. W. C. A. in the new college year.

Following group singing, led by Evelyn McKain, Frances Michael spoke briefly of loyalty as related to a girl's religion. It was emphasized that one should not neglect to defend a chosen religion if it seems necessary.

Evelyn Dixon then introduced Mrs. Morgan, who cited the life of Mabel Cratty as an example of unswerving loyalty to home ideals. "In your attitudes", Mrs. Morgan stated, "in bearing responsibilities, and in taking criticism cheerfully, remember the examples of your home people".

The talk was closed with the definition of a thorough-bred as "one who is of the same piece all the way through, who never whimpers, but always tries again".

Carolyn Duncan next spoke of loyalty to York College, as shown by respecting its traditions and having faith in the undertakings and activities of the school.

The meeting was closed by a prayer offered by Miss Alma Tress Lundman.

OPEN HOUSE AT CONSERVATORY

About forty young people attended the program given at the Conservatory on Sunday afternoon, September 18. The Christian associations sponsored this "open-house", the purpose being to help the new students spend this time in a useful way.

Melba Manning presented a piano solo, after which Marian Hill gave a reading entitled, "Eskimo". Rebekah Spore then introduced an alphabetical game, and following this, the group joined in singing the College songs. Miss Cone acted as chairman. Light refreshments were served at the end of the hour of jollity.

York College—York College!

THE SANDBURR

As York College opens its forty-second year, THE SANDBURR begins its thirty-second year. First printed in pamphlet form, then as a monthly and finally as a bi-monthly paper, it has served the campus group, the alumni, and interested friends.

THE SANDBURR is the student's paper: the voice of the college. We, the editors, ask help in making the coming issues of the college publication alive and interesting. We urge contributions, active criticism, comments, and occasionally praise of our efforts.

Inasmuch as the college group is interested in the paper, to just such an extent will THE SANDBURR be a piece of York College life.

READY LET'S GO

Freshmen! Ready! Let's go! Another school year is beginning. Let's start it in the right way. The fellow who gets the most from his college is the fellow who puts something into it.

There are endless opportunities for a well rounded life here on the campus. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. So round out your scholastic work with the numerous extra curricular activities. They are not purely for diversion. They are for your development. Let's accept every opportunity to serve our college. Do not shirk any responsibility which is given you. It will add to your life on the campus.

You will have untold opportunities to boost, to cooperate, and to show the old Y. C. spirit. Come on! Do it with a grin! Are you—Ready? Let's go!

WINGS

A well known writer, Zona Gale has said that she has no fear of being bored with the life of a small town, for her soul has wings by which she can fly to the heights where she wishes to be. Her philosophy might well be adapted by college students in the small institutions of the middle west.

Perhaps Alma Mater is not as excellently equipped as are publicly endowed colleges; on the other hand, opportunities for student fellowships are greater. The faculty is not to be considered merely as a group of people whose mission in life is the teaching of text book knowledge. Each teacher is a real personage, deeply interested in the affairs of the student group. Minor difficulties seem of small importance when balanced with the opportunities for knowing folk.

After all, one comes to college to gain a knowledge of how to live more wisely. Why not secure wings of imagination, of idealism, of purpose—wings which will carry one above the trivial inconveniences to the attainment of chosen goals.

RULES PERTAINING TO REGISTRATION

1. For full admission to freshman standing, candidates must present twelve units (twenty-four points) earned in grades ten, eleven and twelve, of high schools maintaining full accreditation with the University of Nebraska or an accrediting agency of equal rank.

2. Candidates who lack not more than one unit of graduation (of meeting the standard set forth in the paragraph above) may enroll in the freshman class, conditionally. At the close of the first semester, if the work of the candidate is of satisfactory grade, enough credits shall be placed to the student's high school credit to make up that deficiency and the condition will be removed, to permit unconditional college standing.

3. A maximum of 18 college hour may, under exceptional circumstances, be permitted in the enrollment of students who have satisfactorily completed a semester's work in York College. In no case will a student be allowed to carry more work than is equivalent to one college hour per week of any term. Sixteen college hours are considered full college work.

4. In no case will college credit be allowed for work carried in high school, except that where a graduate of a high school belonging to the North Central Association has been granted such credit by the State University of the state in which he completed his high school work. Such credit as is thus given will be accepted by York College.

5. No credit will be given for work which has not been properly enrolled for with the college registrar before the candidate entered upon the work of the course. York College will not give credit for work carried in any department unless that work has been regularly enrolled for on a date preceding the student's participation in the activities or the class.

6. In order for a student to be regularly enrolled in any class, it is necessary to present to the instructor in charge a registration card designated as "The Permanent Enrollment Card". Students who enter classes upon presentation of "Temporary Enrollment Cards" must, at an early date, supplant these with "Permanent Enrollment Cards". Teachers are not allowed to give credit to students who fail to present their permanent enrollment cards.

7. A fee of fifty cents (50c) will be charged for every change of registration after the first week of school.

8. Whenever courses have been dropped after the student has been enrolled in a class, it will be necessary for the student to inform both the teacher of the class and the registrar of this fact. Otherwise the course will be recorded with a grade to indicate failure in the work of the course.

9. All freshmen must present high school credits before any college credit will be recorded for work taken here. Students coming from other colleges must present a transcript and honorable dismissal from last school attended.

THE FRESHMAN AND THE SENIOR

"Where is your cap, my pretty maid?
 It's not upon your head".
 "I didn't like the color so I Threw it away", she said.

The Senior's face grew pale at first. Then purple, and then pink. Exclaimed he with unwilling smile, " 'Twould become you, quite, I think".

So now the little Freshie Is not seen without her cap. And the Senior has occasionally A smile upon his map.

SKELETONS

On the first day of school Professor Ray Hill donned his best bib and tucker and strolled over to Botany class. His brow was unfurrowed as he contemplated with pleasure the hour before him.

Approaching the classroom, he paused to straighten his tie and arrange his smile. He paused with his hands halfway to his tie and a look of incredulity crossed his face. Surely that couldn't be a child crying! Then he heard a chorus of sobs which grew in volume and intensity as he listened.

Rushing into the classroom, he exclaimed, "Children! What in the world is wrong. I expected you to greet me with laughter and shouts and instead I hear weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth".

Kenneth Holzer, braver than the rest, rubbed his coat sleeve across his eyes and blurted, "Teacher, it's the skeleton. All our lives we've had to put up with skeletons in closets, but we just can't bear a skeleton in the classroom. We did want so badly to take Botany, and we're crying because we have to tell you goodbye".

Prof. Hill, always tender-hearted and obliging, dried the eyes of all within reach and said reassuringly, "My dear kiddies, we can't let a thing like this spoil our fun. We'll just go into Miss Slee's room, where you won't have to see the ugly old skeleton".

"Th-thanks, Teacher", chorused the Botany class with a long drawn sigh of relief. That makes us feel much happier!"

Now, Prof. Hill is greeted with smiles each morning and Botany class goes merrily on.--P. G. W.

SKELETONS

On the first day of school Professor Ray Hill donned his best bib and tucker and strolled over to Botany class. His brow was unfurrowed as he contemplated with pleasure the hour before him.

Approaching the classroom, he paused to straighten his tie and arrange his smile. He paused with his hands halfway to his tie and a look of incredulity crossed his face. Surely that couldn't be a child crying! Then he heard a chorus of sobs which grew in volume and intensity as he listened.

Rushing into the classroom, he exclaimed, "Children! What in the world is wrong. I expected you to greet me with laughter and shouts and instead I hear weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth".

Kenneth Holzer, braver than the rest, rubbed his coat sleeve across his eyes and blurted, "Teacher, it's the skeleton. All our lives we've had to put up with skeletons in closets, but we just can't bear a skeleton in the classroom. We did want so badly to take Botany, and we're crying because we have to tell you goodbye".

Prof. Hill, always tender-hearted and obliging, dried the eyes of all within reach and said reassuringly, "My dear kiddies, we can't let a thing like this spoil our fun. We'll just go into Miss Slee's room, where you won't have to see the ugly old skeleton".

"Th-thanks, Teacher", chorused the Botany class with a long drawn sigh of relief. That makes us feel much happier!"

Now, Prof. Hill is greeted with smiles each morning and Botany class goes merrily on.--P. G. W.

Panther Squad Prepares To Battle Tarkio in First Test of Season

Ten Lettermen and Many New Prospects Bolster Hopes For a Winner

The York College Panthers, under the tutelage of Head Coach Howard Hill and Assistant Jack Minnick, are being groomed for their initial test of the current football season against Tarkio College on September 30. This game may be said to be the crucial test of the season for the result will enable the followers of the team to judge for themselves as to the capabilities of the York College football team of 1932.

Ten lettermen have returned which will serve as a nucleus about which the team will be molded. The lettermen back in the fold are: Lewis, Hersey, Gard, Conklin, Hoffman, Endres, Burnham, Brookhart, Moline, and Moore.

The center position will be ably filled by Hersey, a three-year veteran. The veterans Gard and Endres along with several new men will take care of the guards. Lewis, Hoffman, Moore, Brookhart, and Moline all saw service at tackle last year but it is probable that Moore and Moline will be used in the backfield while Brookhart has been shifted to end. The ends have been a source of considerable worry. Brookhart has apparently aided in solving one of the problems while Seigel, Jones, and Anderson are working for the other berth.

The backfield was hard hit by the failure of four of last year's regulars to return to school. Burnham and Conklin, halfbacks, are the only vets in the backfield. Maurer of last year's reserves is making a formidable showing and probably will be in the starting lineup. Besides Moore and Moline other likely backfield candidates include Merchant, Franz, and Holzer. Several other new men are furnishing plenty of competition and are likely to be heard from soon.

In all there are a total of thirty men making a bid for a berth. Those having checked out equipment are: Russel Lewis, Aurora; Marvin Hersey, York; Robert Moline, York; Herbert Burnham, York; Lyndle Moore, Aurora; Tennis Hoffman, Yuma, Colo.; Maurice Brookhart, Nelson; Dave Endres, York; Lawrence Conklin, Great Falls, Mont.; Homer King, York; Robert Graham, York; Kenneth Holzer, Russel, Kans.; John Seigel, York; Raymond Krieger, York; Walter Speece, York; Wilbur Gard, Waco; Herman Mohler, Humacao, Porto Rico; Warren Witham, Edgar, Kans.; Lloyd Anderson, Exeter; Willard Walker, Agra, Kans.; Floyd Merchant, Bradshaw; Jack Graham, York; Lawrence Rogers, York; Eddie Miller, York; Dale Jones, Utica; Henry Franz, Henderson; Milton Maurer, York; James Speece, York; Arthur Amadon, York, and George Keith, Dacoma, Oklahoma.
