Zeta Literary Group Sponsors Reception For Campus Newcomers

Welcome Speeches and Musical Numbers Feature Evening's Entertainment

New students of the college were welcomed to the Zeta Literary Society in their annual reception Tuesday evening, October 4. After a program, representative of the year's programs, old members and visitors joined in a social hour.

The greeting by the president, Robert Graham, was responded to by Walter Speece, a sophomore. Jean Hanna played a piano solo, "Chaminade" by MacDougal. Marvin Hersey, accompanied by Doris Stiverson, sang "I Hear You Calling". "A Sisterly Scheme" by H. J. Bunner, was read by Evelyn Stream. A brief sketch of the founding and history of the society was given by William Hice and Frances Michael. Melva Tack played "Song" from the "Sea Pieces" by MacDougal.

After the social hour in charge of Cora Mae Hayhurst and Jack Graham, refreshments were served by Veryl Burch and Odessa Green.

The Zeta society states its purpose as follows: "The promoting of social culture, scholarship and good fellowship among the students". The present society was formed from two societies, the Zetaethan for the women and the Zetathean for the men, which were organized in 1914.

PRESIDENT OVERMILLER SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

Brings Greetings from Various State Conferences

"The conferences depend on you", stated Pres. J. R. Overmiller in the chapel address of Oct. 5. He brought greetings from the various church conferences which he has attended recently, Kansas, Colorado, and Iowa being among the states visited.

Pres. Overmiller pointed out that each state group looks with expectancy toward York College, being interested in its social life, its student body, and especially in the religious attitudes developed on the campus. "Let us remember to uphold the standards of the group from which we come, that they may be proud of us", urged the president in closing.

Each conference has designated one Sunday in November as York College Day. At this time offerings for the college will be taken and special Booster Clubs organized.

FORENSIC CLUB ELECTS PRESIDENT FOR SEMESTER

William Hice was elected president of the Forensic Club for this semester. Jack Graham was elected vice president and Evelyn Dixon will take charge of the treasurer's books. The club is sponsored and directed by Prof. J. C. Morgan and Miss Alma Tress Lundman.

Plans are being made for a local Old Line Oratorical Contest to be held in December. Anyone in school, carrying the required number of hours, is eligible to compete by submitting an original oration of two thousand words. The winner of the local contest will go to the state contest. The winner of the state contest will go to the National contest.

One of the members of the Forensic Club stated the purpose as follows: "The Forensic Club is a group of students organized for the purpose of developing in themselves the art of oral controversy. Local and state contests in debating, extemporaneous speaking and oratory help to stimulate this interest".

ANNUAL MELON FEED HELD IN COLLEGE GYM

The Y. M. C. A. sponsored a "watermelon feed" for the college men on October 3, at the gymnasium. Bob Graham was chairman of the entertainment committee and under his direction unique boxing matches were worked out featuring gloves smeared with shoe polish. The sensation of the evening was the boxing match between Dean Kimball and Edward Medina. The rest of the evening was spent in disposing of a large number of watermelons. Each year the Y. M. C. A. has a stag party for the college men to enable them to get acquainted.

MISS CONE ADDRESSES Y. W. C. A. CROUP

Brief Survey Given of Standards of Organization

"The Purpose of Y. W. C. A." was the theme of the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held Tuesday morning, September 27.

To renew the ideals of the old girls and to help the new ones to better understand the magnitude of it all, Marian Hill gave a brief survey of the National Y. W. C. A. Miss Cone, faculty advisor, spoke of what the local Y. W. C. A. can do for York College in maintaining its standards and ideals.

The meeting was closed by a piano solo played by a freshman, Belva Blakely of Kearney.

It has been decided that the finances of the association will be taken care of this year by dues of fifty cents a semester instead of the old system of pledges.

W. A. A. ELECTS ODESSA GREEN NEW PRESIDENT

Odessa Green of Clayton, Kansas, has taken the place of Frances Ramsey as president of the Women's Athletic Association. Miss Ramsey, who was elected president last spring, did not return to school.

Lucile Dierdorff of Smith Center, Kansas, was elected secretary-treasurer and Georgia Haner, York, student council representative.

At the meeting held Tuesday, September 27, chairmen of the various activities were also chosen. They are as follows:

Baseball ----- Betty Spore
Tennis ----- Marian Hill
Hiking ----- Carolyn Duncan
Volley Ball ----- Lucile Dierdorff
Basket Ball ----- Bessie James
Swimming ----- Eleanor Maxson

W. A. A. is a girl's athletic association based upon the point system. The awards are letters, pins, sweaters, and blankets, depending upon the number of points earned. During the year there are various inter-class contests held.

Miss Wakelin has been chosen sponsor for this year.

Y. M. C. A. BUDDY SYSTEM DISCUSSED IN PROGRAM

Russel Lewis Talks to Men of Fellowship Plan

The "how and why" of the "buddy system" was explained by Russel Lewis at the Y. M. C. A. meeting held on September 27.

The program was given by the "big brothers" and Theron Maxson acted as chairman. Group singing was led by Maurice Brookhart, followed by devotions led by Bernabe Hererra. Jack Graham presented a new feature, "Sense and Nonsense", after which Floyd Merchant sang a solo. Lewis explained, for the benefit of the new members, the purpose of the "buddy system" and how it works.

Prof. Hill dismissed the meeting with a prayer.

First Court is Held by Student Council Group

Maurice Brookhart, President, Imposes Sentence on Those Violating Rules

The first court session of the Student Council held in the college chapel October 6 tried and convicted three freshmen on charges of intentional violation of the freshman rules. The student council, acting as a jury, recommended the sentences for the offenders, and the judge, the president of the student council, Maurice Brookhart, imposed the sentences on the guilty parties.

The first offender called before the court was Raymond Kreiger. He pled guilty to the charge of having no freshman cap and was duly sentenced to carry the football dummy dressed in a girl's sweater and skirt from seven-thirty until twelve o'clock on October 7.

Misses Ella Larson and Mary Lowe were the next culprits hailed before the court. Both young ladies pled guilty to the charge of wearing cosmetics contrary to the freshman rule which states that:

"All freshman women will attend all college classes, chapel, etc., on Monday without having used powder, rouge, or lipstick".

Judge Brookhart, upon the recommendation of Lyndle Moore, foreman of the jury, sentenced the young ladies to refrain from using any cosmetics at any college function from October 11 to October 14.

The student council has full authority to enact rules and regulations concerning the government of the student body. The president of the student council presides as judge at the court sessions and the twelve members of the student council act as the jury. Each week the student council holds court and hears all complaints and charges.

NEW GIRLS INITIATED IN ANNUAL CEREMONY

Candle Lighting Service Feature of Y. W. C. A. Meeting

About twenty-five new girls were made members of the Y. W. C. A. at the Recognition Service held at the regular meeting Tuesday, October 4th.

The cabinet members and sponsors, dressed in white, formed the Y. W. C. A. emblem, the triangle, while the old members formed the outer circle. The new members then formed the inner circle and lighted their candles from that of the torch-bearer as a symbol of their desire for service to the Y. W. C. A. After all had repeated the Y. W. C. A. pledge in unison the meeting was adjourned.

Before the Recognition Service, Julia Wilson sang "My Task". She was accompanied at the piano by Marian Hill.

Professor: (sternly) "Do you know why you flunked?"
Student: (angrily) "I haven't an idea."

LIFE WORK RECRUITS ELECT CARL LEE PRESIDENT

The Life Work Recruits organized on Thursday evening, Oct. 5. Carl Lee was elected president of the association and Frances Michael secretary-treasurer. The following chairmen were appointed: Neva Fellman, program; Pearl Wolford, devotional; Vernie Buttermore, look-out.

This organization plans to conduct meetings Thursday of every week in preparation for the meetings to be held here by Bishop R. B. Warner. Rev. Mr. Warner is bishop of the west coast district and will hold meetings at the United Brethren church and at York College Nov. 13-27.

Y. M. C. A. PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY FRESHMEN

Buddy System Is Discussed by New Members

"The 'buddy system' makes us feel that we have a solid foundation", said Raymond Krieger, a freshman, to Y. M. C. A. enthusiasts, on Oct. 4. The entire program was presented by the "little brothers", with Chester Freet, another freshman, as chairman.

Harold Friesen led the group in singing and L. S. Johnson had charge of the devotional period. Krieger, in his short talk, expressed the appreciation of the "little brothers" for their "big brothers". Christian Gjerloff sang, "Sunshine of Your Smile", after which Edwin Miller told several of the recent campus wisecracks. Nelson Ronne then played a piano solo, entitled "The Burning of Rome".

At the close of the "little brother's" program, Raymond Wochner supervised the election of the Student Council representative, who is Lyndle Moore. Prof. Townsend closed the meeting with prayer.

Y. CLUB ELECTS STUDENT MANAGER AT FIRST MEETING

The "Y" Club had its first "feed" on Sept. 26 at the "Con". This year's president, Marvin Hersey, presided over a short business meeting. The members voted to elect a student manager for every major sport. These managers will receive a manager's letter and be admitted to the "Y" Club. Theron Maxson was elected student manager of the 1932 football squad. The "Y" club decided to again sell candy at the football games. The candy selling committee is Lawrence Conklin and Melvin Thompson.

The Club is an organization of those men who have been awarded the official "Y" in any of the sports in which the school takes part. As quoted from the constitution, "the purpose of the 'Y' club is to regulate intramural and college athletics, and to bolster up the spirit of York College". Although membership in the club is perpetual, only those who are actually in college are considered active members. This year, sixteen letter men are back in school. The honorary members of the club are Dean Chas. Bisset and Prof. Ray Hill.

Y. W. C. A. GROUP MEETS

Doris Stiverson, Y. W. C. A. president, was a delegate at the annual meeting of the advisors and presidents of the various colleges in this state. The meeting was held in Lincoln, October 8, in the Ellen Smith Hall on the university campus.

The new state secretary, who replaced Miss Maude Gwinn, had charge of the meeting. Plans were discussed for the work of the coming year.

Pals Society Gives Annual Reception For New Students

Welcome Speeches, Impromptu Debate Are Features of Program

To welcome new students to their group the Pals' Literary Society gave their annual reception in the Pals' hall Tuesday evening, October 4. Games were played and refreshments served after a short program.

Marion Hill played the piano prelude. Julia Wilson, the president, welcomed the newcomers, and Lucile Dierdorff, a freshman, responded. In order to have both views, the impromptu "Comparing a senior and a freshman" was answered by both a senior, Maurice Brookhart, and a freshman, Chester Freet. Floyd Merchant sang Wm. Ernest Henley's "Invictus", being accompanied by Evelyn McKain. Teresa Lou Conneley gave three short readings, "The Gate", "Tomorrow", by Anna B. Bryant, and "Unfortunate Coincidence", by Dorothy Parker.

An impromptu debate was one of the features of the evening, the question being "Resolved: That face powder is more dangerous than gun powder". The affirmative team, composed of Teresa Lou Conneley and Maurice Brookhart, won a 2-1 decision from the negative team, consisting of Evelyn Dixon and Lyndle Moore.

During the social hour Theron Maxson presided. Carolyn Duncan, Eleanor Maxson and Nadine Robinson acted as the social committee. The refreshment committee was composed of Bessie James, Evelyn McKain, and Raymond Wochner.

WALTER BLACK DIRECTS FOOTBALL RULES MEET

Coaches Discuss Changes in Code at Impromptu Session

Walter Black, secretary of Nebraska State High School Association, presided over a football rules discussion meeting Tuesday evening, September 27, held in the York College gymnasium. Coaches and players from surrounding towns took part in the impromptu session.

It was planned for Dana X. Bible and Henry F. Schulte, of the University of Nebraska, also to be present at the meeting, but due to urgent work with the Nebraska Cornhusker squad, they were unable to attend.

Black took the new rules in order as they were presented by the various coaches or players and explained the violations and the penalties inflicted for each violation.

Following the regular meeting the coaches met with Black and discussed various problems that they have experienced and others that they might be confronted with at some time.

CLASS ELECTION

Pearl Wolford, of Corning, Kans., was elected president of the college women's Sunday school class Sunday, Oct. 2. Marian Hill, of Dennis, Kans., was elected vice president, Carl Harrah, Tillamook, Ore., secretary-treasurer and Beth Riggs, Des Moines, Ia., look-out chairman.

Mrs. R. B. McCandless has been teaching the class during the absence of Mrs. Earl I. Doty, the regular teacher.

York College—York College!

RIVALRY

As usual, the college year has opened with rivalry between existing social clans on the campus—the Pals and Zetas Literary Societies. The freshmen have been asked to "join the Zetas", and to "be a Pal", and the bewildered newcomer may well wonder at the comments on the relative merits of each society.

Stop a moment, upperclassmen, and consider. Are you accomplishing anything by praising your group to the detriment of the other? Are you giving the proper impressions to those whom you hope to make your friends? After all, what difference will it make in years to come, whether you—or they—"went Zeta" or "joined Pals".

If you so choose, freshmen, join Literary—yes. But remember that the opposite group is of the same type as that of your selection. If you must be rivals, remember that more is gained by being friendly enemies than bitter foes.

Y. C.

"OH, YEAH!"

Your pep! You've lost it, let's find it. Your pep!

What can you, as a student body, expect of a football team that has no encouragement? A few half-hearted yells, a perfunctory hand-clapping, and your duty is done. You have supported the team. In the common vernacular, may the editors exclaim, "Oh, yeah"?

It is not sentimental to praise a bit the efforts of a team. After all, the fellows are representing the college, and you are a part of the college. Football is fun, but it is also hard work, needing a little incentive. Can you expect a team to do its best to the tune of a feeble "Rah, Rah"?

Let's talk "Beat Central", let's answer roll call "Beat Central", and let's "Beat Central"!

Your pep! Come on, gang, let's go!

Chapel Briefs

Professor Ray Hill was the speaker in chapel Friday morning, September 25. He spoke on the beauty and appreciation of life.

"Radical means going to the root of trouble and finding the cause" were the words used by Professor Morgan in speaking to the student body at the chapel hour Wednesday morning, September 27. He stated further that "The Kingdom of God is within you" and, in closing, "The all-important thing in the world is life".

The advanced public speaking class had charge of the chapel program Thursday morning, September 29. Marian Hill, acting as chairman, announced the program as a radio review of news events which took place during the summer. The following people, representing famous personalities, were introduced, Levi Johnson, Dean Kimball, Carl Lee, Russel Lewis, and Vernie Buttermore.

Miss Slee was the speaker in chapel Friday morning, September 30. Her talk was based on a chapter from the book, "Religion in a Changing World" by Rabbi Silver.

Miss Lundman, head of the expression department, spoke to the student body in chapel Monday, October 3, on the subject of etiquette.

Football rules for the 1932 season were explained to the students in chapel Thursday morning, October 6, by Coach Howard Hill.

Departmental News

The Freshmen were given an intelligence test on September 29, under the direction of Miss Slee and Prof. Hill.

The High School Methods class has begun observation in the ward schools of this city.

Have you noticed the display case in the hall with its collection of curios? There are skulls of a monkey, a duck, and a rattlesnake, and skeletons of a sea-horse, a turtle, and a frog. Several jars of preserved creatures and models of the human heart and larynx may also be seen here.

Mrs. Clarke has decided to disband the orchestra, temporarily at least, because of the lack of violins. She plans, however, to arrange for an orchestra for each of the Histrionic plays when they are given.

If

If you know rules—but don't make rules your master,
System—but do not make of it your aim;

If you can meet a thousand students
And call each student by the proper name;

If you can bear to hear the acts you've gathered
Twisted by "profs" to prove their notions right,

Or see your registration plan discarded
And build a new one up without a fight;

If you can talk with students or with teachers
And make both like you—and respect you, too;

If you can render aid to all who ask it,
Student or "prof"—yet to yourself be true;

If you, in ev'ry unforgiving minute
Full sixty seconds' worth of service spend;

Then you are qualified to be a Registrar,
And, man or woman, you're a man, my friend.

CAPTAINS FOR 1932

Marvin Hersey will lead the team on the York gridiron in the first home struggle against Nebraska Wesleyan. The Coyotes were the only team to defeat the Panthers in the N. C. A. C. last year.

On Nov. 4 Wilbur Gard will lead the York men into battle against the Doane Tigers.

Robert Moline and Lawrence Conklin will head the team against the Midland warriors at Midland.

Russel Lewis and Tennis Hoffman, both juniors, and both tackles that will cause many a ball-lugger a long afternoon, will lead the Panthers in their last encounter of the season against the Cotner Bulldogs.

Hit and Drag Crusade

On the last day of the ninth month of the year nineteen hundred and thirty-two, at exactly 8:30 A. M., the Panther pigskin luggers left the York College campus for a trip to the mule state. The purpose of the trip, may we state, was to play football in the Missouri mud. After thoroughly inspecting the air currents and testing the swaying of the "Show Boat", Midshipman Amadon gave the command "full speed ahead".

When the cars and the "Show Boat" began to get up steam to take off from Nebraska City, Coach Hill recognized a person of the fairer sex, who drove by. He immediately dashed down the street and—for further information consult H. H. Hill. He finally returned to the cars after having held up the procession a long half hour. His excuse was "old friends, boys, very old friends". The long distance telephone being busy, the boys decided to table the matter until they returned home.

The trip was finished uneventfully and Tarkio finally hove into view. "Tiny" Hersey and "Herb" Burnham, out souvenir hunting, purchased jail bird sweaters. Like a flock of sheep each squad member bought one, and while parading the streets, fell into lock step and sang, "we're in the jail house now".

As for the game, that is history. A new system was employed—"Hit and Drag". Hit the line, look for casualties, and drag the wounded from the field of battle.

Following the game the squad drove back to Nebraska City. Everyone enjoyed a peaceful night's sleep but Robert Moline. Bob said that he slept fine until 9:00 A. M. but he just tossed and tumbled from then until noon!

After an hour's visit at Arbor Lodge, the players proceeded to the University Varsity-Freshmen game. And Tennis learned to his sorrow that it would have been wiser to notify the "White Elephant" commander, before he enjoyed social life at the Uni.

Then home again, where they lived happily ever after.

Jim and Cal

The latter day of August came. The boys begun to plan How they might down to Kansas go their girls to see a span. Says Cal, "Uncle Silas gave to me a motorcycle grand, With side-car, tires, and wheels and things. I thing the trip 'twill stand".

Says Jim, "We'll go! I have three bucks". Says Cal, "I have but two". But after figuring awhile they thought their dough would do. "We'll start! We'll go! We'll make the trip! I've got to see my gal. She's now been gone almost two weeks". Thus pondered Jim and Cal.

They started out—their spirits high—their motorcycle packed. Says Cal, "This here machine will go, you can't deny that fact". Says Jim, "It's riding rather rough, perhaps you'd better stop". It seems to me 'mongst other things I faintly heard a pop". Cal pulled her down. They both got off. Says Jim, "She's flat, old pal". "We'll have to take the darn thing off to fix", says Jim and Cal.

They fixed the tire and got aboard. They started down the road. They fixed the clutch, transmission, chain, they even fixed the load. Says Jim, "It's getting rather late and looks a deal like rain". Says Cal, "We'll crawl in yon box car and stay till morn' again". "We'll never tell how far we got." "I'll say we never shall". "We'll make it up tomorrow though", and so talked Jim and Cal.

They rambled on for many days, and each one saw his Jane. The roads were getting long and rough so each jolt caused a pain. Says Jim, "Were going rather fast". Says Cal, "I think you're right". "I'll hit that post and break our speed". Says Jim, "You sure are bright".

They hit the post and Cal got off. Jim's seat was all too tight. He took the bank, then through the fence and came out quite a sight. They stood and looked far down the bluff to see their wrecked machine. Says Cal, "Go down and bring it up". Says Jim, "Go soak your bean". Says Cal, "You asked to have it stopped, now do your stuff, old pal". Says Jim, "You stopped the thing too short". Thus argued Jim and Cal.

They went to town five miles away—Garnett,—it chanced to be. A doctor Carter sewed them up and gave them food and tea. And then says Jim, "We must phone home and ask for thirty smacks". Says Cal, "Your head is working fine. We'll ride the cars by Jacks". Says Jim, "That's what I'll surely do. I'll phone to Daddy Al". They got the tickets and the mon and home came Jim and Cal.

HISTRIONIC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR SEMESTER

Freshmen proved to be most popular in the election of officers of the Histrionic Club held Monday, September 26. Bernard Mohler, a freshman from York, was elected president.

The other officers chosen were: Dietrick Ratzlaff, vice president; Carrrol Harrah, secretary, and Georgia Haner, treasurer. Rodney Whittemore, a junior, who was elected business manager, kept the colors flying for the upper classmen.

This club is composed of about thirty members who will put on most of the dramatic productions of the year. The productions are all directed by Miss Alma Tress Lundman, who has charge of the entire expression department.

At present the club is working on several short pageants and playlets.

How do you do, York College students. Mrs. Nothing hopes to keep you informed about the deeds and misdeeds (chiefly misdeeds) of the Y. C. Gang. And here is the first installment.

It has been observed that some people are fast workers. York College's All-Conference singing center broke all local records in this respect. A few nights ago it was necessary to get his "Con" date in early. In less than a half hour after she had been delivered he was seen in the clutches of another woman. Whatta man! Whatta man!

We see that the Vigilants (ambitious souls) ae still drawing names out of the hat to learn who the late Noah Lott was. They got "all-hot-and-bothered" over a mere rumor that Noah was publishing a column in THE SANDBURR. They worked hard one night on the mimeograph in Rystrom's garage publishing a scandal sheet on the alleged identity of Mr. Lott. And then—Noah Lott did not even appear! Brookhart's and Whittemore's efforts were all in vain.

Tommy and Rodney are not yet able to get "Con" girls in at the prescribed time. We would suggest that they buy a reliable watch. Those boys will learn yet!

And then Rodney told Mrs. Nothing that the bashful young chemistry assistant drove down to Rystrom's Sunday night and ordered "two bits worth of gas". Rod filled the order, and then invited "Nate" to drop around for him about eleven o'clock. But "Nate" very graciously apologized and said, "A—er—I am very sorry—but—I don't think I'll get back to York by that time".

Then, there's the Oklahoma Kid who evidently despises water. His favorite remark after football practice is, "Gimme a towel. I wanna dry clean".

Panthers Defeated By Hastings Broncos In Conference Tilt

Crippled York Ranks Wage Game Fight as They Lose by 19-0

The York College Panthers lost to the Hastings Broncos by a score of 19-0 on the night of Oct. 7. Although the Panther line-up contained several new men they fought hard and put up a great battle throughout the first half. In the second half Hastings' reserve power showed to advantage, York's only backfield veterans, Burnham and Conklin, were out of the game with injuries.

The first half ended 6-0. Mercier put over the lone counter of the period on an eleven yard off-tackle thrust. The kick for point was low. York failed to show a sustained offensive and resorted to keeping the Broncos in midfield.

Early in the second half the Panthers flashed a passing attack that carried them to the Hastings' 5 yard line. An incomplete pass over the goal muffed the scoring opportunity and they never seriously threatened thereafter. At this point Jim Dutton entered the game for Hastings and with the aid of some fine blocking drove deep into York territory where Chase carried the ball over. Dutton passed to Alexander for the extra point.

The Hillmen then resorted to passes but one of these went astray and Holmes intercepted it and ran 28 yards to score. The try for point was low. This ended the scoring of the game at 19-0, neither team threatening again.

Hastings out-yarded York from scrimmage 268 to 442 and compiled sixteen first downs to York's five. In the matter of penalties the Broncos fared the worst losing eighty yards to the home men's thirty-five. The Panthers passed a total of nineteen times for a gain of eighty yards while their opponents passed six times for a total of five yards. In the punting department the Hillmen again held a slight advantage making twelve kicks for an average of thirty-nine yards as to the Hastings' eleven attempts for a thirty-one yard average. On several occasions quick kicks by the Panthers caught the Hastings' safety off guard.

Mercier, Dutton, and Alexander showed to the best advantage in the Hastings line-up.

For York Holzer and Graham looked best in the backfield while Moline's punting featured. In the line Hersey, Gard, Lewis, and Enders did some great defensive work.

The line-ups:

YORK	POS.	HASTINGS
Brookhart	AC	le Stanton
W. Speece	lt	Morrow
Hoffman	lg	Chamberlain
Hersey	c	Construck
Gard	rg	Moore
Lewis	rt	Rounds
Seigel	re	Harrbaugh
Holzer	qb	(C) Mercier
Moline	rh	Glenn
Moore	lh	Chase
Maurer	fb	Holmes

Substitutions: Hastings, Parsons, Leffler, Taylor, McLaughlin, Pleron, Brown, Tully, Young, Logan, Alexander, Bosserman, Ridley. York: J. Graham, R. Graham, Enders, Walker, Anderson, King, Franz.

Officials: Referee, Ernie Frank, Nebraska; Umpire, Dr. E. C. Jones, Kansas State; Head linesman, Dwight Thomas, Nebraska.

N. C. A. C. BRIEFS

A glance at the sports page of our daily papers reveals that York was not alone in a non-conference setback on Sept. 30. By hook or crook there wasn't an N. C. A. C. team to record a victory on that date.

York lost by a one-sided score of 32-7 to Tarkio. Without a doubt she was at her worst. New men and inexperience tell the tale. But—be aware—the Panthers have a bad habit of spilling the dope bucket.

Hastings suffered a 20-6 reversal at the hands of the Emporia, Kans., Teachers. "Sonny" Mercier, Hastings quarterback, served notice that he will need watching by returning a punt 90 yards to score.

Wesleyan dropped a close decision to Wayne Normal 26-22. Bob Gibb, who very capably backs up the line for the Coyotes, likewise served notice that he contemplates going places and doing things by respective dashes of 47, 28, and 40 yards for touchdowns.

Midland dropped a hard fought 13-7 battle to Peru Teachers and Cotner was downed by Omaha Uni. 26-0. Doane lost to Kearney Normal 13-0.

And so is the story of the first week of stiff competition for N. C. A. C. teams. But we are serving warning—watch each and every one of them henceforth. There will be some real football played.

Panthers Lose To Tarkio Gridsters

York Drops Non Conference Game on Missouri Field

The York College Panthers suffered a 32-7 reversal at the hands of Tarkio College at Tarkio, Mo., in their first grid battle of the season.

Inexperience in the Panther ranks proved their downfall. On the opening kickoff by York, Davison, star Tarkio fullback, returned for a touchdown. Henn was sent immediately into the Tarkio backfield and converted the extra point.

In the middle of the second quarter Tarkio again scored on an end run but the try for point was blocked. At this juncture Holzer entered the York lineup and the Panthers drove deep into the enemies' territory and scored a short pass, Burnham to Seigel. The try for point was good, and the half ended with the score 13-7.

Davison, Hughes, and Hall were outstanding for the Tarkio team while the work of Holzer and Lewis and the punting of Moline featured for York.

The lineup:

YORK	Pos.	TARKIO
Brookhart	le	Hughes
Hoffman	lt	Hutchings
Enders	lg	Sterrett
Hersey	c	Barr
Gard	rg	Eastwood
Lewis	rt	Brown
Seigel	re	Mertz
Burnham (AC)	qb	Schrauger
Moline	rh	Hall
Conklin	lh	Craig
Maurer	fb	Davison

Officials: O'Sullivan, referee; Gemple, Umpire; Dietrick, head linesman.

Substitutions: Tarkio, Henn and others. York, King, Holber, Franz, Amadon, R. Graham, J. Graham, W. Speece, Moore, Anderson, Keith.

ALL BECAUSE OF WOMAN

This is no fable but a true story dealing with an episode which befell two of our promising young gentlemen. The chief characters concerned were the two said young men, two young ladies in distant points and one of these marvelous three-wheeled mechanisms of the machine age more familiarly known as a motorcycle with a sidecar attachment.

The young men of dash and brilliance, being unfortunately members of the great majority—the unemployed—acquired a seemingly uncanny longing or desire to journey to a certain city in our neighboring state of Kansas.

An ancient motorcycle long since discarded by its master as no longer of any usefulness to mankind was resurrected and mechanically adjusted to such a degree that it was deemed to be a more pleasing means of transportation than for the young men to propel themselves by means of their own locomotion.

Now for the journey. The trip to Lawrence, Kansas, where the first young lady was visited proved more or less uneventful save for a "flat", a broken chain, and a few other minor difficulties. Then "On to Parsons". Of course outside of customary greetings and salutations, et cetera, this part of the journey might again be said to be uneventful compared with its relation to the events that were to follow.

'Twas on the return trip that our heroes encountered serious difficulties. From all reports and after having drawn as logical conclusions as it is possible to draw, one might suppose the dear old motorcycle was being extended slightly beyond her means of power and understanding in the descent of a sharp decline. At any rate Calvin reports that the vehicle suddenly became more unruly than a Jackass in trying to unseat its rider and in less time than it takes to think sensibly he and James were hurtling through space at an inconceivable rate of speed. The driver reported a perfect three-point landing (head, arm, and knee) through a barb-wire fence on to a rock pile. His companion likewise hit the rocks but failed to land so gracefully and was rather bruised by the failure of the rocks to comprehend that his untimely arrival was positively unintentional. Oh, yes! As to the fate of their transporter—Well! It descended some seventy feet from the course in which it was being originally directed and likewise cracked up. Now it is serving a new master.

As for the young men,—after having received medical adjustments—with their hearts still fluttering, their vanity in a state of collapse, and their spirits somewhat congested they were able to contain themselves sufficiently to decide that more modern means of conveyance was more suitable to their kind and hence they boarded an iron-drawn horse for home. One of our heroes has now returned to football practice but the other still limps quite noticeably about the campus and eats his dinners at the "Con".

And—all because of a woman.

Alumni News

Fred Gilbert, '29, is mathematics teacher and coach at Osceola.

Miss Lillian Bearss, '26, instructor in the Fairbury schools, was a member of the Fifth Good Will Tour of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women and because of this affiliation she was able to enjoy some unusual experiences, according to a statement made on her return. The group left New York on July 6 on the Berengaria and returned to New York on the Carinthia which sailed from Southampton, England, August 13. The tour included seven countries; France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland and England. Stops of several days were made in most of the leading cities and in each case the party was met by a group of business and professional women who entertained at teas and banquets in their honor and helped them to see the interesting sights of each city.

"Of all the countries visited", declared Miss Bearss, "Switzerland was to me the most fascinating, and I should enjoy living in Geneva". Before sailing, Miss Bearss spent a few days in Pittsfield, Mass., in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Blakeslee, (Betty Robson, '26), and their small son, Bobby Gordon. Mr. Blakeslee is assistant pastor of the First Congregational church in Pittsfield. Miss Bearss also visited with Misses Ethel Spore, '27, and Josephine Spore, '32, in New York City, a few days before sailing.
