College Plans Full Day of Activity For Homecomers; Beason Reigns Today

Nearly 250 parents, friends, and board members are gathered on the York College campus today for the annual Homecoming and Parent's Day celebration. Reigning over the day's festivities is Homecoming Queen Arline Beason, elected by vote of the student body last week. Chief speaker of the day was Rev. A. R. Sweet, '18, LaCrosse, Kansas, who spoke at the 10 o'clock program.

The opening event of the day was this program held in the college gymnasium. A large platform erected at the east end of the building held the throne of the queen. Flowers, and the college colors, blue and white, added finishing touches.

Procession Opens Program

The procession of the Homecoming Queen and her attendants opened the program. The York College string ensemble under the direction of Mrs. Muriel T. Clarke played "Coronation March" as the processional.

Beason Crowned Queen

Miss Arline Beason, senior, of Circle, Montana, was then crowned queen of the day by Panther Club president, Harold Windsor, senior, Marley, Iowa, who also presented her with a gift from the Panther Club.

Queen Beason wore a white shark-skin formal, a robe of royal blue lined with sequins and carried a scepter in her hand signifying the authority of her office. Miss Beason has been very active in organizations on the campus during her three years at York. Some of these include: President of W. A. A., vice-president of Recruits, vice-president of PALS, vice-president of the Student Council, member of the Panther Club, and present feature editor of the Marathon.

Attendants Wear Blue and White
Her attendants were one man and one woman selected by the queen from each class. The women wore blue skirts and white, long-sleeved blouses. The men wore blue suits, white shirts, and blue ties.

The attendants were: seniors,

PALS Discuss War Depression

A round table discussion on "Post War Depression" was conducted by Lorena Wygle, Arline Beason, Harold Windsor, and Bob Hunt at the PALS' Literary Society meeting, Tuesday evening, Oct. 7. Miss Wygle discussed, "Trade through barter"; Miss Beason discussed "Unemployment"; Windsor and Hunt talked on "Price fixing" and "International loans" respectively. Virginia Hinkle carried out the patriotic theme with a reading entitled "The Star Spangled Banner". Everyone joined in the flag salute at the opening of the meeting.

At a called meeting Sept. 30, the revised constitution was presented and adopted. Among the changes made was a provision to take in no new members the first semester before Homecoming or after the 30-day period following Homecoming each year. There will be one guest meeting and one closed meeting held each year before Homecoming alternating with the guest meeting and closed meeting of the Zeta Literary Society.

LEAMING ATTENDS SEMINARY

Rev. Vaughn Leaming, '41 and Mrs. Leaming, (Letha Robinson, ex-'41), who had planned to leave for the mission field in Sierra Leone, Africa, this fall, have been unable to get permits from the British government. So they will attend Bonebrake Theological Seminary at Dayton, Ohio.

Y. C. Music Groups Organize

Three new music groups, a women's trio, a men's quartet, and a trumpet trio have been organized.

The trumpet trio consists of Elwyn Phillips, junior from Merna, LeRoy Bott, freshman from Alexander, Kansas, and Gerald Edgar, freshman from Beloit, Kansas.

Sixteen Couples Attend Y-Club Date Picnic

"Dates or spats" was the order of the day at the Y Club's first social event of the year, the annual "date" picnic.

New sweaters were voted for five new members of the Y Club who were initiated last spring. Wayne Kaeding, sophomore, York, Jim Kaeding, sophomore, York, DuWayne Grimes, junior, Harlan, Kan., Louis Webb, junior, DuBois, and Paul Worthington, sophomore, Creston, Iowa.

Sixteen couples, accompanied by Coach and Mrs. Rolland Tonkin, Prof. Charles Bisset, chairman of the athletic board, and Mrs. Bisset, and Prof. Delbert L. Christensen, were at hand at the city park when the function began.

Grimes, W. Kaeding, and J. Kaeding won their letters in basketball, Webb in track, and Worthington in tennis.

The Defense program is expected to delay the shipment of the sweaters for several weeks, according to Russ Williams from whom the sweaters were ordered.

Bishop Weidler Speaks

Bishop V. O. Weidler gave the opening address at the Southwest District Congress, which was held at the local United Brethren church on October 15, 16, and 17.

Zetas Hear Talk on Hymns

The Zeta Literary Society met at 7:30 Tuesday night, October 7 for its first regular meeting since the revision of its constitution. President Jimmy Koontz presided over the business meeting with a Robert's Rules of Order in his right hand. The organization plans to follow these rules faithfully in carrying on its business meetings, according to Koontz.

After the business meeting LaDena Faye Sloniger spoke on the origins and composers of three well known hymns. The first, A Mighty Fortress is Our God, by Martin Luther, was sung by Catherine Woolever. The second hymn, sung by Jimmie Koontz, was Abide With Me, by Henry F. Lytle. The last hymn, Blest Be the Tie That Binds, was sung by Clifford Hartman.

Class Introduces Formal Chapels

The class in Philosophy of Religious Education, under the supervision of Dean W. E. Bachman, is planning the Thursday morning chapel programs as a special project.

The members of the class participate in the service by reading the scripture, offering prayer, singing in the choir, and ushering.

Each service is planned by a different committee of three members. A definite theme is followed in the music, the scripture, and the ten-minute sermon, which most of the time, has been given by Dean Bachman.

In order to lend further unity to the service, all who take part wear academic gowns.

FACULTY HOLDS SOCIAL

The York College faculty held the first of a series of social events Monday evening, Oct. 13, at Harrison Park. Games were played followed by a picnic supper. Miss Mary Alice Snee is the chairman of the social committees for the year. A special committee is in charge of each event.

Even if a hurricane does comparatively little damage, its still quite a blow.

Cameras Snap As Shooting of Pictures Begins on Campus

Ballyhoo for the 1941-42 Marathon, Y. C. year-book, was off to a rousing start last week as flash bulbs flashed, staff meetings started, and about 70 students staged an impromptu "Yea, Marathon" meeting as shown above in cut.

Work on the Marathon this year will be handled by the Capital Engraving Company of Lincoln and the York Blank Book Company. The Capital Company has charge of engraving, and York Blank Book Co. will do the printing.

"That man Gale" will take individual shots of juniors and seniors.

DeVriendt, Jordan Photograph

Photographs will be handled by Bill DeVriendt of Capital, and Andy Jordan, senior, Beloit, Kansas, who is staff photographer.

DeVriendt was on the campus Thursday and Friday prying off the lid on Marathon activities with his camera and flash bulbs. Pictures were run off on 10 minute schedules Thursday.

Staff Holds Meeting

At a staff meeting Wednesday night, Oct. 8, DeVriendt revealed early plans for the Marathon. The meeting was held in the McCloud Hotel after the staff had been guests at dinner of DeVriendt and Frank Curran of the York Blank Book Co.

Frances Bullock, editor, said after the meeting that this year's book will have several innovations. Some new features, according to the editor, will be more use of color, a brand-new theme, and a more representative picture of college activities.

Sales Begin Soon

Bill White, sales manager, also has some new promotion schemes up his sleeve. He has announced that payment plans will again be available. Everyone who buys a Marathon will receive a tag. The sales division plans to reach every one in college.

Marie Pettit, business manager, and Al Zerwekh, advertising manager, announce that the business side of the book will be in line with new features.

The staff as picked last week consists of the following:

Y. C. Library Undergoes Renovation

The college library has undergone a renovation, under the supervision of Mrs. W. J. Karraker, the new librarian. The shelves of books have been arranged according to the Dewey decimal system. The backs of the books are marked with their classification numbers. Each book has its own particular niche on the shelves. In the new system, the students look up in the files the call number of the book they want before they inquire for it at the desk.

Mrs. Karraker and her assistants began work in the library on August twenty-eighth, and worked every day and several of the evenings until college started.

Every book was taken from the shelves, dusted, and checked on the files. New catalogue cards were made for the books which lacked them. Pockets and cards, and "date due" slips were placed inside the covers of the books. On the backs of the books the classification numbers were written with the electric stylus.

Book shelves were moved, repainted, and new ones were built. The old magazines were sorted in bundles ready to be bound and placed in alphabetic order in the magazine room.

All during this semester there will be students working on the books. New improvements will take place in the library throughout the school year.

Y. M. C. A. Meets Have Ashcraft, Weidler Speakers

Dean C. E. Ashcraft, of Bonebrake Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, was the guest speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on September 30. He addressed the group on the subject of peace, dealing particularly with the part the United States is to play in the post war reconstruction period. He suggested that if war is to be eliminated from the world, it must be replaced by some other institution. Walter Brant, junior of Robinson, Kansas, sang a sacred solo.

President D. E. Weidler spoke at the October 7th meeting and took as his theme "On Being A Gentleman". Devotions were led by Andy Jordan, senior of Beloit, Kansas, and Glen Lange, junior of Robinson, Kansas, sang a vocal selection.

Mouse Terrorizes Con Girls

Piercing screams rent the usual silence (?) of the "Con." Bewildered, I dashed from my room—to find that the screams were being emitted by two freshmen—Mary Belle Johnson, and Dorothy Windsor, who were both standing on the bed in their room.

Chaos reigned! Piled high in the middle of the floor were the contents of dresser drawers and closet. And all because of a cute little creature called a mouse,—you know, what cats like to chase.

Some false alarm said "There it is," and the two stricken screamers headed for the hall in terror. And there they stayed, still screaming incessantly.

Quiet came again after some charitable girls put things back in their places. But the mouse was not found, and the girls slept with their door open—just in case.

New Crop of Pilots Starts Work

May Be Last For York College

York's third primary Civil Aeronautics class started work last week. The groundwork class will meet on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday nights from 7:30 to 9:30, and flying hours for each student will be arranged each day.

College credit of three hours is offered this year for the flying course. Prof. W. J. Karraker is again in charge of the groundwork, while Arvin Bierman of Holdrege is once more the flying instructor.

Larry Smith and Richard Van Pelt were the first of the present class to go up. They took to the air Saturday.

Women are not allowed to enroll in the course this year.

Interesting is the fact that insurance offered by the C. A. A. for these student flyers is now only about a fifth of what it was when the C. A. A. was inaugurated. This year it is $7.00.

This may be the last unit here at York College, unless the city of York establishes a municipal airport, according to Prof. Karraker.

Dahlstedt Moves To Take Position At Illinois U.

Wayne Dahlstedt, '40, who has been working as a reporter for the Nebraska State Journal in Lincoln, has received an assistantship at the University of Illinois in the English Department.

He and Mrs. Dahlstedt, (Bette Crum, ex-'42), left immediately for Illinois.

Dahlstedt was active in publications work here at Y. C. and was an English major. He earned a master's degree at the University of Nebraska last year.

Read This! You May Be Asked About It . . .

We looked through some Sandburr files recently, and in one which was dated in 1937, we found an extensive front-page editorial dealing with the need for a men's dormitory here at Y. C. The arguments were fairly evident; (1) It would offer better advantages to the fellows. (2) The women had one, why not the men? (3) Most of the student body favored it, as did (4) the faculty members. The editorial pleaded for action.

So, now it's 1941, and it's been four years since that editorial was printed. There is still no men's dorm. But last year there was a movement to start a cooperative house for college men. Considerable research showed that such a house could be established on a pay-as-you-go basis. At that time there was no house available.

Since then the college has obtained a house which can be used for the co-op idea. While it's hardly possible to start it this year, it could be operating in 1942.

The foregoing is the case. Keep it in mind. Consider whether you think the co-op is a good idea, or whether men should wait for a dorm. Think it over. Then, next week, someone will ask your opinion for a Sandburr story which will be a sort of poll. What do you think?

When the football candidates went leapfrogging around the field at the end of practice last week, they had a hard time with H. Klick, 220 pounder, who extended higher than any one else. He was constantly raising his head to see how many more were coming, and at times the vicinity around Klick resembled a rodeo.

Y. C. Faculty Members Spread Far And Wide for Summer Vacation

Members of the York College faculty spread from coast to coast during vacation time this summer.

President D. E. Weidner received an honorary degree at the 75th anniversary commencement of Lebanon Valley College in Annville, Pennsylvania. His trip also included Maryland and New York. In August President Weidner took a 26-day trip during which he visited the mission in New Mexico and attended California, Oregon, and Montana conferences.

Miss Edith M. Callender visited in Iowa, Chicago, Indiana, and Kentucky. One of the highlights of her trip was her visit to Lincoln's birthplace at Hodgenville, Ky.

Dr. E. I. Doty taught summer school in York and visited in Iowa, Chicago, and Evanston.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bisset drove to Simla, Colorado, to visit their daughter and family, Supt. and Mrs. Tennis Hoffman. From there he went by train to Berkeley, California, to visit relatives.

Miss Charlotte Miller attended summer school at Kansas State Teacher's College in Emporia. She took a course in play production under Dr. Gibson, a well-known dramatic artist.

Professor J. C. Morgan taught Literature, Roman History, and Latin in summer school. He spent all summer in York.

Professor Delbert Christensen worked in Minden, Nebraska, all summer.

Miss Zeldia Wakelin stayed at her home in Lincoln all summer.

In August, Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Karraker took an automobile trip to southern California and Tijuana, Mexico. Points of scenic interest visited en route were Yosemite and Grand Canyon.

Miss Mary Alice Slee spent most of the summer in the Pacific Northwest. She attended Washington University at Seattle for nine weeks, visited Mt. Ranier National Park, Victoria, in Canada, Salem, Oregon, and took a scenic drive around the Olympian Peninsula.

Dean W. E. Bachman taught both in summer school and in the Missouri Conference camp. He spent the remainder of the summer in Des Moines, Iowa.

Professor W. C. Noll spent most of the summer in York. He took a short trip to the Nebraska oil fields at Falls City and to St. Joseph, Missouri.

Irene Thompson spent a short time vacationing in Denver, Boulder, Estes Park, and Grand Lake.

Miss Anna J. Thompson took a four weeks Radio Drama Course at the Wisconsin College of Music in Milwaukee. Her course included Radio Acting and Directing Technique, Voice and Diction, and Radio Script Writing.

Professor R. E. Townsend and family drove to Kirwin, Kansas, for a short visit with relatives.

Coach R. E. Tonkin and family spent part of the summer in Greeley, Colorado, where he attended summer school. They visited relatives in New Mexico and Kansas.

Due to lack of space, write-ups of summer vacations of the music department staff will be printed next issue.

PANTHER PATTER

Sports Chatter from here and there:

The Kearney-York game turned up a couple of interesting little items.

First, was the fact that Glen Stauffer's father saw his first football game the same day that Glen, 200 pound York tackle, played in his first one. The Stauffers are from Phillips, where high school football is not.

Second: They're still snickering over Les Auchard's brilliant tackle in the first quarter of that same game... Auchard made probably the best tackle of the game, and York was penalized 15 yards for it. Reason was that Auchard's victim had signalled for a fair catch of a punt.

Mentioning Auchard (pronounced more or less Ow-ward) reminds us that the Hastings announcer last Friday insisted on calling him "Awkward."

"Pick" Van Pelt, signal-caller for the B. team, was up a stump the other night at Dana after Hickey scored a Cub touchdown. Inexperience is so prevalent on the B squad that there was no one to kick or pass for the extra point, and Witham, line-plunger, was out of the game. Pick finally called a plunge anyhow, which failed.

B Team Shows Improvement at Dana

Showing sharp improvement after their trouncing at Fairbury Junior College, the York College B Team Cubs held Dana College to a 25-6 count last Thursday night at Blair. Earlier this year Dana had beaten Concordia Teachers 9-0 just after York's A team had taken the Teachers 14-0.

Most improved was the Cub line. Splintered by the Fairbury backs, it became a unit at Dana to turn back the Swede's rushes time and again.

Hickey Runs 98 Yards
York's touchdown came via an 98 yards kick-off return by freshman Joe Hickey. Hickey outraced the Swedes, and aided by a jarring block which Johnson, York end, threw into the Dana safety man, went across standing up.

D. Severn and Jensen bolstered the York line. Hickey and Van Pelt paced the backfield.

No Seniors on Squad
There is not a senior on the B squad roster, and only a few juniors. The B team is maintained to give experience to such unseasoned players.

Helping Coach Tonkin with the Cubs are Warren Neal, senior Brookfield, Mo., and Prof. Delbert Christensen of the mathematics department.

York Panthers Groom for Sterling Game

Doane Backs Tear Loose to Humble York 37-6

Campbell Scores Panther Touchdown

Unable to stop slippery Doane backs who tore loose all evening for long runs, the York College Panthers took a 37-6 licking at Crete Friday night, October 3. York's lone tally came late in the fourth quarter when freshman Cleo Campbell went over from the 1-yard line.

The game started with both teams playing cautiously. A punt exchange gave Doane the ball on their own 20. Bigelow, elusive half, carried to the 45 off-tackle. An off-sides penalty against York took the ball to the 50.

Stastny Scores
Then, like lightning, the first Doane touchdown came, as Stastny found a big hole, to race over. Gerner's kick was no good.

A streaking punt return by Bigelow gave the Tigers touchdown number two, as he scampered 65 yards to score. Gerner's attempt to convert was partially blocked.

York Drives Hard
York's one sustained drive came in the second quarter as Graff passes, and Taylor and Campbell runs gave them five straight first downs to carry the Panthers from their own 20 to Doane's 33. There they lost the ball when Taylor's plunge on fourth down was inches short.

Then, before the Parent's Day crowd was hardly aware of what was happening, Stastny, shaking tacklers as a dog shakes water, veered across the field, cut back, and went 67 yards to make the score 18-0. For the third time Gerner's kick was off.

Panther Pass Backfires
Striking suddenly again, Doane's Bigelow intercepted a Graff pass on his own 25 and hipped his way clear to the York 10. On the next play Bigelow crossed the line to make the score 24-0, as the conversion attempt again missed fire.

Another Bigelow touchdown came on a 35-yard sally through the Panther line. The Tiger's plunge for extra point was short, and Doane led 30-0.

Gerner to Grosscup passes set up Doane's last touchdown on the York 4-yard line. Gerner then drove across, and finally made a kick good, 37-0.

Doane Fumbles
Just four minutes before game's end, the Panthers got their chance. A Doane substitute, Brown, fumbled on the Doane 20, and York recovered.

Campbell moved through the line and around end to go to the Tiger 1. Campbell then hit the line, and plunged over. Burl Graff's kick hit the upright.

Flurries of passes marked the last few minutes of the game, but neither team came close to scoring.

Captain Kenneth Willits was outstanding for the Panthers. Backing up the line, he repeatedly

Broncos Trample York 52-7

Panthers Count Once in 4th Period

York's Panthers sank definitely to the bottom of the N. C. A. C. pile Friday afternoon, as Hastings trampled the Cats 52-7 in the annual Mom and Dad's Day game at Hastings. For York it was the second straight conference loss.

On even terms with the Broncos the first quarter, the blue and white fell apart in the second period before a Hastings onslaught that gave the Broncos three touchdowns and 20 points to lead at halftime 26-0.

Broncos Continue Scoring
The Broncos added 20 more to their total in the third quarter, and drove over once in the final canto to bring their total to 52.

Long Abe Dick wrapped his lanky body around the ball when Hastings fumbled on their own 10 in the last quarter to set the stage for York's only touchdown. On the first play Burl Graff passed to Harve Peters for the counter, and Burl converted.

Willits Stars
Captain Kenneth Willits once more was York's defensive star. Horsham, Hastings left half, scored 24 points for the Broncos.

Warriors Appear Tough Customers For Homecoming

With four games gone by the board out of which they have salvaged one victory, the Y. C. Panthers point tonight for their Homecoming battle with the football Warriors of Sterling, Kansas.

The Panthers want the victory. They have taken drubbings from Kearney, Doane, and Hastings. They would like to redeem themselves before the Homecoming crowd.

Sterling Always Tough
But Sterling, always a tough nut for York to crack, looks even tougher this season. They played to a 6-6 tie with Fort Hays State, a team which held Kansas State to a 0-0 draw. Then, Thursday, Oct. 9, they rolled over Nebraska Wesleyan 25-0.

York has tied once and lost once in games with Sterling College the past two years. Two years ago the game ended 6-6, and last year the Panthers took an 18-0 beating on the Sterling field.

Queen Honored
Before the game tonight, Homecoming Queen Arline Beason will be honored, and she will reign over the field.

York will probably depend on usual starters: Peters and Haberman at ends, Porter and Denton at tackles, Auchard and Boehr at guard, Captain Kenneth Willits at center, and the twin Graffs, Burl and Earl, Floyd Taylor, and either Hartman or Campbell in the backfield.

Three More Games Here
October 24 the Peru Bobcats play on York sod, and in the two remaining games after that encounter, Midland and Wesleyan come here.

HAVE a new portrait made, specially for your soldier in camp or for the folks at home. Why not have them made NOW for Christmas.

By an oversight, the names of Misses Bertha and Edith Lawson, '29 and '34, of Washington, D. C., were omitted from the list of summer visitors to the campus. They arrived in time to attend the picnic of the summer session.

More Weddings Take Place

Other weddings of the summer include those of Miss Lucille Heins, '38, to Mr. Gerald Wallace of Rising City; Miss Beverly Hennings, ex-'38, to Mr. Howell Cox of Ogallala; Mr. Robert MacCannon, '40, to Miss Verla Jeanne Shafer; Miss Berdena Martin ex-'44 to Mr. Leroy Shafer of Seward; Miss Allegra Byrnes, ex-'38, to Mr. Harry Wedberg of Lincoln; and Miss Imogene Smith, ex-'43, to Mr. Jack Carter of Lincoln. The wedding of Miss Sadie Westwood, ex-'40, is announced, but the name of the groom was not learned by the historian.

Dahlstedt to Teach

Mr. Wayne Dahlstedt, '40, has been elected to a teaching position in the English Department at the University of Illinois, at Champaign and Urbana.

Here and There

Misses Nelle, Lillian, and Hazel Bearss, '24, '26, and '30, with their mother, spent their summer vacation in California.

The address of Professor A. B. Cope, Campbell, '04, is Evansville College, Evansville, Indiana.

Dr. Guy T. Buswell, '13 professor of Educational Psychology, University of Chicago, and Miss Ruth Callender, '15, of York High school will have a part in a panel discussion on the subject of reading at the Nebraska State Teachers Association meeting at Lincoln.

Mr. Fred Rasp, ex-'38, is employed by the Firestone Tire Co. and is located at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Gutschow, '33, '34, announce the arrival of a son, Richard Arthur, born Sept. 9.
