Reception Tonight Has 'Canteen' Theme

Sophomores Plan Musical Numbers, Skits for Program

A "Canteen" theme carried out with popular music and clever skits will be presented at the sophomore reception tonight at the United Brethren Church according to Dorothy Bradwell, York, entertainment committee head.

As a means of creating better feeling among the classes, Miss Vera Blinn, a faculty member and sponsor of the sophomore class instituted the sophomore reception in 1911.

First Reception on Hallowe'en
The first reception, held in the parlors and music rooms of Hulitt Conservatory, was an informal Hallowe'en party according to Mrs. Howard C. Feemster, '13, who attended it.

A record in President D. E. Weidler's office states that the following year the sophomores again entertained the students and faculty on Oct. 4. This time the comedy, "A Perplexing Situation," in which all the sophomores had part, was presented in the old gymnasium, now the library.

The sophomore reception is now traditionally formal and has been held in the parlors of the United Brethren Church in January for a number of years.

Committees Working
Working on the program are: Dorothy Bradwell, York, chairman; Frances Hickey, Spokane, Wash.; J. Hill Anglen, Amistad, New Mex.; Manson Crippen, Garwin, Ia., and Don Haberman, York.
Invitations: Eleanor Pfug, York, chairman; Wilma Easterling, Enid, Okla.; Allen Friesen, Henderson; Clarence Mabon, Phillips; Maurine Marvel, Giltner, and Cleo Campbell, York.

Decorations: Gerald Edgar, Beloit, Kans., chairman; Arlene Adams, Clayton, Kan.; Carol Willer, Menville, Ia.; Burdell Lower, York; Wm. Feemster, York, and Milton Johnson, Polk.

Refreshments: Mary Miller, Broken Bow, chairman; Fred Gaston, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Hal Goodrich, Portland, Ore.; Ruth King, Topeka, Kans., and Marvin Garlock, Trenton, Mo.

New Floor Laid in "Con"

A new floor was laid in the reception room of Hulitt conservatory during vacation. It was financed by the Preachers' Wives' Association who established a fund two years ago for this purpose.

This association has a fund which they donate each year to York college for some improvement in the conservatory.

Phillips in Recital

Elwyn Phillips, Merna, will be presented by Miss Eda Rankin in his senior piano recital, January 25, at the United Brethren church.

It will be nice if insurance companies would base rates on the idea that you're only as old as you feel.

Alumni Hold Mid-Year Banquet At U. B. Church

York college alumni, former students, and friends held the annual mid-year banquet in the dining hall of the college church the evening of Dec. 28. Miss Edith M. Callender, '15, as president of the Alumni Association, presided. The theme of the evening's toasts was "Keep the Home Fires Burning", and each number on the program was introduced by an appropriate quotation.

"Who hears music, feels his solitude peopled at once," from Browning, introduced Miss Thelma R. Gilmore, '36, a teacher of music and English in the Barnes-ton consolidated high school, who played the piano solo, "Impromptu", by Lily Strickland. The toast given by Myron L. Holm, '25, superintendent of the York county schools, was based on Goldsmith's "Such is the patriot's boast, where'er we roam His first, best country ever is at home."

Miss Hazel Bearss, '30, of Denver, who is particularly interested in the child welfare division of social work, spoke from "It is not from top to bottom that societies die; it is from bottom to top," from Henry George

Mrs. Riddell Hired in English Department

Mrs. John Riddell, wife of a local lawyer, will replace Mrs. Zelma Pope Arnold in the English department this semester. Mrs. Riddell is a former student of York College and is a graduate of the University of Nebraska with a major in English.

Mrs. Riddell is a former English teacher of York High School and substituted at York College four years ago. She is a member of the school board of the York city schools at the present time.

Mrs. Riddell is active in Red Cross work. She is chairman of the Packing Committee and works in the Surgical Dressing department.

"I like to teach both in high school and college", Mrs. Riddell said, "and I am looking forward to my work at York College because I enjoyed it very much when I substituted there a few years ago."

Vacation! From Washington to the Atlantic and from Texas to the Great Lakes was the extent of travel of Y. C. students on their Christmas vacation.

Other states visited by York college students during the holidays were: Oregon, New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, New York, and Michigan.

Cupid in Texas
Some students say that Texas is the state of love because Professor Zelma Pope, English Department, came back from Hillsboro, Texas, having acquired a husband. And Elizabeth Miller came back from Victory Field, Texas, with a diamond from her boy friend who is an instructor there.

Helen Hall of Parsons, Kansas, went to West Point to see her brother, Plebe Dale Hall.

"The thing that I enjoyed most," she said, "was the West Point chapel. The front windows of the chapel showed the standards of men by picturing Bible stories. The windows at the back were based on the Book of Revelations. I might mention that they have the second largest church organ."

While on the trip she saw the Norfolk Naval Base, Niagara Falls, and the Skyline of New York.

Visits Sister WAAC
By traveling a shorter distance, Ethel Brooks of Cedar Rapids saw her sister, Irene, a WAAC in Des Moines.

"The meals thrilled me," she stated. "They fall in in four groups and then march to the mess hall fifteen minutes apart beginning at 11:45. Inside, they serve themselves cafeteria style to a well balanced meal of meat, vegetables, soup, milk, etc."

Her sister is now stationed at Fort Devens, Mass.

Larry Smith stated that in Pontiac, Michigan, his home, there was a shortage of butter and eggs. You could get them, though, if you hurried to the store when they first came in.

Serves As Hostess
Eloise Tabor of Spokane, Washington, said she enjoyed serving as a junior hostess at the opening of the 1200th USO club on New Year's Day.

"If you listened to the broadcast from there that day and heard a dog bark, it was I who carried the cute puppy out," she stated.

Miss Wirz to Teach First Aid Course

Miss Frieda Wirz, R.N., York public school nurse, will teach a class in First Aid at York College during the second semester, according to an announcement made by Pres. D. E. Weidler at a recent chapel.

Miss Wirz was born and reared in Switzerland, and received her elementary schooling there. When the first civilian boat left for the United States following the last war, Miss Wirz was on it.

She went to Berea, Ohio, where she received her B.A. degree from Baldwin Wallace college. In Cincinnati, Ohio, Miss Wirz entered nurses training, but because of ill health, at the end of one year she was forced to postpone her course.

Knowing the need for educational and medical missionary work in India, she went there and remained for seven years. When she returned to the states, she completed her nurses' training.

In 1934 Miss Wirz came to York to supervise the health of the children of the Mothers' Jewels Home, and also to be public school

BOYS IN THE SERVICE

Everette W. Berry, '41 is assisting in preparing a new camp for the reception of recruits. His experience with wood work is proving very convenient. His address is:

S/Sgt. Everette W. Berry

Albert H. Kamm, '39, is with a medical detachment of the army engineers in England. In writing to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kamm of Platte Center, he expressed strong appreciation for the superior advantages enjoyed by the masses in America as compared with the opportunities open to the average Englishman.

He mentioned especially such things as modern conveniences in the home and educational opportunities, and commented on the number of children on the streets of London with nothing to do. These children claim to have "finished" school, as only about twenty per cent are considered brilliant enough to be given further training after they are fourteen. His address is:

Leslie O. Callahan, ex-'38, until recently an accountant employed by the Eastman Kodak Co. of Rochester, N. Y., is now a cadet stationed with the air forces weather training school at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

William Conant, ex-'27, an electrical engineer, after a recent visit with York relatives, left for North Carolina for induction into the marine corps with a first lieutenant's rating.

Carl Bedient, '40, who has been for several months with parachute infantry at Fort Bragg, N. C., was promoted on Dec. 23 to the rank of staff sergeant.

Howard May, ex-'35, who was recently promoted to the rank of seaman first class in the U. S. coast guard, has been selected to attend the school of pharmacy at Columbia University.

Fred Novak, '42, until the holidays superintendent of schools at Blue Hill, is now with the army at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., where he is giving tests to soldiers.

Jacob Sandoval, '43, has completed work for his bachelor's degree at York College and has been inducted into the army. He is in the Chemical Warfare School at Camp Silbert, Ala.

Reporter Interviews Barber Who Has Advertised in 'Burr 18 Years

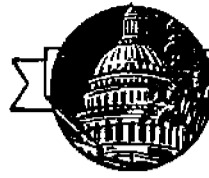

"I think York College should be more appreciated and better supported by our local community," declared H. M. Wilcox, local barber, who has been advertising in the Sandburr continuously for 18 years.

The reporter found Mr. Wilcox in his spacious, well lighted shop which was brightened by an aquarium. In one of the show cases were pictures of his grandson, David, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Lee, '36, of Emerson, Iowa. Mr. Wilcox was busy with a customer, who by the way, was a York College alumnus. He was conversing pleasantly as he worked, accompanied by the buzz of the clippers and the snip of the scissors.

Mr. Wilcox has always been interested in York college and his daughter, Byrdine (Mrs. Samuel Lee), attended college here. During the period from 1930 to 1940, forty college students resided at the Wilcox home.

"I am very proud of the way those of the faculty and the students whom I have had the pleasure of knowing personally, have accepted me as their friend," said Mr. Wilcox.

College Training Plans for Army, Navy Men

Washington—(ACP)—As students left the nation's campuses for holidays at home, the Secretaries of War and Navy—with approval of Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt—announced the long-awaited college training program for service men and servicemen-to-be.

Loose ends of the dual program still need to be tied together. For example, just how men are to be chosen for the college work isn't yet clear.

Which colleges will be selected for training centers is another unanswered question, although secretary of Navy Knox has said "We will give special consideration to those (colleges) with meager financial resources whose existence is threatened by the war."

Main provisions of the plans, as they affect both Army and Navy, are these:

Army men 21 years old and under, and Navy men 22 and under, may apply for the college work.

Nothing in the new plans will affect existing contracts of Army or Navy with colleges.

Men selected for college training will wear uniforms, be on active duty and receive service pay. Soldiers will go to school as privates, seventh grade; sailors as apprentice seamen.

Civilian professors will do most of the teaching.

The Navy's side of the new program is known as the "Navy College Training Program."

Normally, students in this program will be picked during their senior year in high school.

At a "date to be announced," all V-1, V-5 and V-7 reservists in college will be placed on active duty as apprentice seamen, and V-1's and V-7's then may continue their studies under the new plan at least through their junior year. Those who qualify as medical, dental, engineering and theological students may complete their professional studies.

V-5's may complete the year "current at the time of their enlistment or transfer to V-5."

Students now holding probationary commissions may resign "at a date to be announced," enter the new college program, and be commissioned again later.

Ruth Simmons, freshman, York, and Evangeline Tracy, freshman, Strang, moved into the "Con" after Christmas vacation.

Eloise Tabor, senior, Spokane, Wash., has had to resort to whispered communication since she lost her voice temporarily, due to a cold.

Lorraine Garlock, junior, Trenton, Mo., and Elizabeth Miller, freshman, Dumont, Iowa, have been ill with the flu.

They feel that something of "once-in-a-life-time" variety is occurring and they are viewing it via letters from Pvt. Bill, lectures by history professors, the newspaper and the radio.

Boys needn't believe that just because they are not in uniform now that they are about to miss the entire show. The first act of this super-thriller is still underway. And the head Allied coach has formulated definite plans for using all of his substitutes long before that final gun.

Teachers are obviously having a difficult time in keeping students interested in training primarily for civilian life when military training seems so much more important.

But even if this war lasts for years, there will be people who will emerge from it. The odds are in the soldier's favor that he will come back, despite the innumerable dangers of military life in the trenches. Of course, people will die. People are killed annually in appalling numbers in automobile accidents. Most men will be back. Then how can college students afford to waste valuable time now when they could be amply fitting themselves not only for war but for life?—Eastern (Ill.) Teachers News.—By A. C. P.

By PROF. J. C. MORGAN

Out of town alumni who were present at the mid-year banquet included: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hersey '32, Hazel Bearss '30, Florence Jenkins '26, Thelma Gilmore '36, Myron Holm '25, Hazel Emma Morgan '39, Lucille Vannice '42, Viola Samuelson ex-'21. The presence of many of the local friends of the college was much appreciated.

Dr. Wayne Soper '13, Rev. and Mrs. Sam Lee '36, Mildred Thompson '34, Supt. and Mrs. W. E. Thompson '26, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Thompson '27 and '28, Supt. and Mrs. Ray Wochner '34, and Helen Hammar '42, visited in York during the Christmas vacation.

Alumni who could not be present at the banquet, but sent greetings were Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Overmiller '39, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Feaster '36 and '40, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lewis '37, and Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Deever, Campbell College '10 and '12.

Lt. Ralph W. Schmidt writes that he is now stationed at Camp Berkeley, Texas. At the present time he is acting as one of the instructors in a Special Training Unit.

Married

Miss Doris V. Holloway, ex-'42 to Lt. Wayne Sindt. Mrs. Sindt is teaching at Peabody, Kansas.

Irvin Lewis, '37 has enlisted in the Air Corps and is stationed at the Santa Ana Army Air Base, Calif. His work is administrative and is similar to what he was doing as a civilian before enlisting.

Births

The Burr Speaks

Army Plan Inferior?

The more information on the subject that emanates from Washington, the more one believes that the Army plan of aiding college students, reservists and otherwise, in getting their education is definitely inferior to that of the Navy. Several prominent educators have commented that the Navy's plan for college training provides students more opportunity to complete their education than does the Army plan. Dr. Harold W. Dodd of Princeton, Dr. Edmund E. Day of Cornell, and Chancellor Harry Woodburn Chase of New York University have all said that the Army's plan is inadequate. They believe that it will disrupt special war training programs now in operation, and weaken colleges to boot.

These men have voiced a protest that is common all over the country. One educator in Washington finally said in exasperation that his advice to all college men would be to get into the Navy. That fact was apparent to students long ago. All knew that the Navy program had all the advantages, but not all were fortunate enough to make the grade. It seems that some kind of plan could and should be worked out to equalize the Army program with the better systematized one of the Navy.

On the Sidelines . . .

At times the talk of college students in the halls and in rooming houses proves quite interesting and a bit disillusioning. Naturally, a large part of Joe College's conversation with classmates centers around the familiar trend of the progress of the war.

There seems to be a general feeling among the present crop of boys who frequent the college campuses that they are riding the high road to an early death. And even if the youngster is not unduly pessimistic, Latin, English, and zoology seem awfully trite in comparison to the incomparable adventures which accompany the donning of a uniform.

Too, each youth not now in uniform secretly realizes that the good jobs after the war will go to the man who has helped on the front lines to openly repulse the enemy. One soldier soon after he was commissioned a second lieutenant, was heard to remark that he valued his bars more than his college degree. He was convinced that the commission would be of more value after the peace than the result of his four years' labor for a bachelor's.

Then there is a feeling by many eighteen and nineteen year olds that this war is the biggest adventure of the century. It probably is.

Strike . . .

It was no so many years ago, so stories have it, that Wesleyan used to complain about basketball floors of other conference teams. Now the tables are turned and NCAC players look with foreboding to meeting the Plainsmen cagers on their home court. The floor has been nicknamed the "Wesleyan bowling alley" because of its lack of conformity to basketball court proportions. Visibility is reputedly poor and ball handling difficult because of poor lighting and a dark gray floor instead of the customary light colored maples.

Unpredictable . . .

It looks as if basketball might be as topsy-turvy as the football season was. At least the season is unpredictable if you try to judge by the scores that are now in. Wayne defeated Doane 47-42 before playing York, but lost to Midland 50-45 a few days later. Doane defeated Wesleyan 49-34, and York nosed the Plainsmen out by only one point, 37-36. Hastings, in spite of classing itself as top NCAC team after the tournament, lost to York 56-39. By the way, can you top this for a high score game—Rhode Island State 107, Northwestern 64?

Last Second Free Throw Beats Wesleyan

W. Kaeding Sinks Foul Toss As Game Ends

Storybook ending number one was written into the Wesleyan chapter of Panther basketball tales of '43 when Wayne Kaeding made good on the last of two free throws in the final seconds to break a hard-earned 36-36 deadlock and give the Panthers a 37-36 victory over the stubborn Methodists Friday night.

Kaeding was fouled by Story, Wesleyan guard, as he was attempting to shoot from the corner, and the referee's whistle caught the foul just before the horn went off ending the game. There followed a drawn-out dispute between referee and time-keeper as to which had blown first, but the official, Crabtree, from the Lincoln Air Base, ruled his whistle had sounded before the horn.

First Try Rolls Out

Another delay came as Story was finally waved out of the game since the foul was his fourth. Then Kaeding, with the crowd yelling bloody murder, stepped up to the free throw line. As the crowd's noise quieted somewhat, he arched his first shot which trembled on the rim and rolled out.

Again he poised, and this time the ball hit the bottom of the net with a swish which meant that conference victory number two was in Panther hands. The game ended simultaneously, and jubilant Yorkites went wild.

Panthers Cold

The story of the game for the Panthers was one of shoot, miss, shoot again, and miss. Cold, and hampered in their fast-breaking tactics by the small Wesleyan floor, the Yorkers had one long struggle before the happy ending.

At the half, after once holding a 7-0 advantage, the Panthers were lucky to lead 20-19. Wesleyan came back strong after intermission, and Gels hit three straight buckets to give the Plainsmen a lead they didn't surrender until the end of the game. Twice, in the closing minutes, they led by four points.

Panthers Tie Count

Shaneyfelt and Grimes hit for York in the last three minutes to pull within a point of the Plainsmen. Then Cleo Campbell made good his gift shot to tie the game at 36 all. It was then that Kaeding took charge of the happenings.

Jim Kaeding's 12 points was high for York. Wayne K. had nine, and Ketterer, Methodist center, topped all point-makers with 14.

After stepping outside the loop to meet Kearney Tuesday, the Panthers get back to conference competition against Midland here tomorrow.

York Takes Wayne, Concordia

Panthers Topple Wayne from Unbeaten List

Starting as underdogs for the first time this season, the Panthers continued to improve as they topped the Wayne Teachers by 4 points, 50-46.

Wayne, winner of the college basketball tournament at Hastings, took the ball on the tip off, and shots by Warner and Best gave them a lead. York countered to tie the score when Shaneyfelt and Wayne Kaeding netted two field goals. Two free throws by W. Kaeding and a short shot by Conway turned the lead over to York.

Then in a flurry of intercepted passes and fast break plays, the score was tied. In the next few minutes the lead changed hands with every basket until the Teachers scored twice just before the half ended with York trailing 24-21.

In less than three minutes of the second half, York gained a one point lead on two free throws by Jake Kaeding and three field goals. This lead was never relinquished and was built up to as much as seven points at one time. The two teams matched basket for basket in a series of fast clean plays and finally Wayne called for time out with only forty-five seconds of playing time remaining.

When play was resumed, the four point lead York held was halved on a shot by Magdanz. A few seconds later a foul was called on Wayne and the Panthers elected to keep the ball. A York pass was intercepted, fumbled, and knocked around until it was recovered by Grimes who tossed the final York tally with less than five seconds of game time left. The final score was York 50, Wayne 46.

Blue and White Rolls Over Hastings 56-39

York Panthers chalked up a victory of 56 to 39 against the Hastings Broncos on January 12 and avenged themselves for the loss to the Broncos in the tournament during the Christmas vacation.

From the time of the initial basket by Wayne Kaeding, to the end of the game, York never lost the lead. The score at half time was York 27 and the Broncos 15.

Wayne Kaeding led the scoring with 21 points, and George Shaneyfelt came second with 13 points. For the Broncos, Rader with 11 and Cochran with 8 led the scoring.

Although Lamb and Vap, both from Hastings, went out on personals, and several others had fouls called, the game was played fast and clean.

The substitutes of both teams saw considerable work during the third quarter.

Dick Pulliam, Grand Island was referee.

Panthers Notch 65 Points Against Seward Team

Finally hitting a winning stride after a miserable showing at the Hastings tournament, the Panthers toppled two foes in successive nights January 8th and 9th. The first win was over the Concordia Teachers' team by a 65-55 score, and the second was over the top-ranking Wayne outfit 50-46.

Concordia, having lost to York earlier in the season, never had a lead after the Panthers forged ahead in the early minutes of the game. Several times they came within one point of a tie score when Hufnagel and Neiting began hitting on long shots. Attempts to work through the York defense were unsuccessful.

Wayne Kaeding led the Panther attack with 27 points, while Neiting with 18 and Hufnagle with 12 led the Teachers. Grimes and J. Kaeding each added 10 points and George Shaneyfelt added another 8 to the York total.

Panthers Make Dismal Showing At Hastings Tourney

Ten days of vacation with no practice together showed up as York's Panthers, one of the early favorites in the holiday tournament at Hastings, made a dismal record by losing two out of three games. Two NCAC teams, Hastings and Midland, dealt out the defeats, Hastings winning 45-40, and Midland 50-43.

The Panthers came back strongly the last night of the tourney to give Peru its third straight licking 52-25.

Wayne Teachers, eventual winners of the tourney, was the only seeded team to get by the first round as York, Doane, and Peru dropped at the hands of Hastings, Kearney, and Wesleyan, respectively.

In the Hastings and Midland games, the Panthers could do nothing right and trailed all the way to disheartening losses.

The Peru game was important in more ways than one because it was in this set-to that Coach R. E. Tonkin moved stellar George Shaneyfelt to a guard post. This move so improved the balance of the team that York walloped Peru, Wayne Kaeding getting 21 points, and had marched on to five straight victories at the time this is written. Shaneyfelt's rebounding and defensive work has been invaluable.

Wayne Teachers won the tournament with successive victories over Midland, Hastings, and Kearney. Kearney reached the finals by whipping Doane and Wesleyan. Hastings bested Wesleyan to come in third.

Marvin L. Hersey, '33, who is in Red Cross work with headquarters in St. Louis, sang two current war songs—"This is Worth Fighting For," and "When the Light Go On Again." Hersey was introduced by the quotation from Armstrong, "Music exalts each joy, allays each grief." "An historian is a prophet in retrospect," by Von Schlegel, announced Prof. J. C. Morgan, Campbell college, '07, who, as historian of the Alumni association, read notes from absent friends.

President D. E. Weidler's toast was based on the American proverb "Hats off to the past; coats off to the future."

"Dispatch is the soul of business," a quotation from the Earl of Chesterfield, announced a brief business meeting which was conducted by Miss Callender. The program closed with the singing of the college song, "On the Hill of the Rising Sun" by all.

At one time Italy was called the key power of Europe. Somebody threw the key away.
