

Dr. D. E. Weidler to Attend Uniting General Conference Union of Churches To Be Approved At Johnstown, Penn., November 16

President D. E. Weidler will attend the Uniting General Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren churches at Johnstown, Penn. November 16 in which the union of the two churches is to be approved.

The Evangelical and United Brethren churches will hold their final separate General Conferences in Johnstown November 10 and 13. Then November 16 the two churches will meet in the Uniting General Conference.

The Evangelical church will meet in their First church November 10 and the United Brethren church will meet in their First church November 13. On November 16, both churches will meet in the First United Brethren church for the opening session of the Uniting General Conference.

The new church formed by this uniting conference will be known as the Evangelical United Brethren. Conference groups that work in the same territory will be known, until they are able to unite, as Evangelical United Brethren Ev. and Evangelical United Brethren UB according to the denomination to which they belonged before the union.

Johnstown was selected for the uniting conference because each denomination has eight churches in the city. The sixteen parishes of the united church will have the largest denominational membership in the city.

Open House Held At Hulitt Hall And Annexes

Hulitt Hall, the Annex, President D. E. Weidler's home, and the new "Diehl Den", the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Diehl where nine college girls are housed, were open to campus visitors at five o'clock on Homecoming Day.

It has been the custom each year for open house to be held in the college women's rooms. The main purpose is to give the parents and friends a chance to see the inside of dormitory life.

The Annex, which was just recently completed, and the Diehl Den had open house for the first time this year. Another new feature of Hulitt Hall is the addition of a guest room on each floor.

Modern Drama Class Attends University Players' Production

Modern Drama class under the direction of Miss Irene Shipley attended the first of five plays at the University Theatre at Lincoln, November 2.

Practical experience will be gained by the class by studying and criticizing the plays, one of the students commented.

The play was, "My Sister Eileen," adapted from the novel by Ruth McKenny. This comedy was very well presented by the University Players in all respects, according to class comments.

Recruits Hold Campfire Meeting

Campfire devotions, led by John Reger, freshman, Falls City, who used the theme, "Helping Others to Find Christ", highlighted a recent Life Work Recruits meeting held in Marathon Park.

The worship service opened with the singing of choruses while the campfire was being lighted. The scripture lesson was read by Merwin Kurtz, sophomore, Alton, Kansas.

Mary Alice Riggs, sophomore, Ames, Iowa, presided over a short business meeting held in the reception room of Hulitt Conservatory prior to the adjournment to Marathon Park.

Play Production Class Remodels Stage Equipment

The stage equipment is being remodeled by the class in theory of play production, according to Professor William C. White.

The flats are being repaired and glazed. A search is under way for stage properties for the forthcoming production, "Little Women". Each member of the class is on the lookout for costumes that date about 1865. They are also hoping to locate a few old pictures.

Doris Jean Canon Elected President of I.R.C. Club

Doris Jean Canon, sophomore of Philomath, Oregon, and Lois Shaneyfelt, junior of Central City, were elected to head the International Relations club for this semester as president and vice-president, respectively. The topic for discussion at the present time is the United Nations Organization.

Other officers elected are: Barbara Blauch, sophomore of York, secretary; Marjorie Thornton, senior of Billings, Mont., treasurer; and Prof. E. I. Doty, head of the social science department, sponsor.

The local club, which is a member of an international organization, expects a new consignment of books from national headquarters dealing with world affairs. These books will be in the library available to all students, whether or not they are members of the club, according to one of their officers.

Freshmen Girls Have Charge of Recent Y.W.C.A. Meeting

Freshman talent passed in review at a recent meeting of Y. W. C. A. in which the entire program was presented by freshman women from five states.

Barbara Bashaw, Moline, Iowa, led the devotions, after which Lois Riddle, Des Moines, Iowa, accompanied by Jeanne Anderson, Des Moines, led the entire group in singing. A reading, "Susie Slips to the City," was given by Velda Beedy, Agra, Kansas. Marjorie Voegelé, Great Falls, Montana, Stella Pankratz, and "Molly" Rafter, both of Harlem, Montana, sang "I'd Rather Have Jesus." They were accompanied by Dorothy Woodruff of Des Moines, Ia. Rachel Lagenberg, Sutton, sang "Blue Skies." Irene Brandenburg, Russell, Kansas, presided. She was assisted by Lydia Gomez, Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Jo Warner, Harvard.

Y.M.C.A. Receives 38 New Members

Thirty-eight new members were received into the Y. M. C. A. in a meeting held recently, making an increase in the membership exceeding that of pre-war years.

Every man enrolled in York College is already an associate member, but according to president Denny Auchard, sophomore, Woodston, Kansas, special emphasis is being placed this year upon becoming an active member.

Veterans Tell Y.M. of Religious Life In European Lands

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. took on an international flavor Tuesday, October 29, as ex G.I.'s aided in the observance of International Relations Day.

Richard Riggs, sophomore, of York, gave his impressions of the religious life of England. He had noticed, he said, that a more worshipful atmosphere prevailed in most English churches. There was less of the informality, chatter, and noisy hum that so often characterizes American churches just before a service. He found the British people quite friendly.

Marvin Herrick, junior of York, gave his impressions of Bavaria, where he was stationed. Crosses dotted the countryside, giving the impression that the Bavarian people were very religious.

Harold Holton, freshman, of Chariton, Iowa, also emphasized the international theme, reading from the second chapter of the book of Acts. Alyois Holst, sophomore, from Coffeyville, Kansas, led in prayer.

Homecoming Parade Shows Originality

By Lee Huebert

Creativeness and beauty were featured in the first Homecoming parade in nearly a decade as more than a dozen floats, cars, and other vehicles depicted the purpose and spirit of the various campus organizations.

Beauty reigned in the person of Jean Resp, junior, Shelby, Homecoming queen, who rode in a maroon convertible coupe, and the Pantherettes who marched beside it.

A truck load of musicians led the parade down Sixth street and around the courthouse square. They were followed by the Panther club float, which featured a very life-like Panther atop a car which was draped with grass-like material.

Both the YMCA and the YWCA depicted the three fold purposes of their respective organizations. The Student council car bore the names of the groups represented in its membership. While the Zetas displayed their Purple and Gold banner, the PALS were represented by youth, age, and Father Time, to emphasize their slogan "Once a PAL, always a PAL".

A car, bedecked with newspaper called attention to the Sandhurr and the activities of the Press Guild, while a giant book portrayed the spirit of the 1947 Marathon.

The WAA was represented by two bicyclists, their mounts, decorated with blue and white crepe paper. Professor William C. White, aboard a motorcycle directed the parade and acted as a co-ordinator of its movements.

A majority of the students took part in the parade, while the remainder lined the sidewalks with hundreds of townspeople who came, saw, "ah'd", and "oh'd".

York; Arlene Johnson, senior, Republic, Kans., Doris Jean Canon, sophomore, Philomath, Oregon, and Lois Shaneyfelt, junior, Central City.

Carmen Ware Haberman, junior, York, and Norma Jean Anderson, sophomore, York, were formally initiated into the Eta Kappa cast of the Alpha Psi Omega at a meeting held recently. Amber and blue flowers, candles, and crepe paper created the desired atmosphere for the initiation of the two neophytes.

Mr. William White, director of play production, acted as Grand Director of the initiation with Miss Irene Shipley of the expression department, Miss Anna J. Thompson, Marie Harris, junior, Great Falls, Mont., Hope Howland, junior, Mission, Kans., and Barbara Blauch, sophomore, York, assisting him.

A short program followed the initiation, including: a vocal solo, "Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child", sung by Barbara Blauch, and a reading, "He Apologized", given by Betty Jean Schoonover, junior, Des Moines, Ia. As a closing number, Mrs. Haberman and Miss Anderson gave a pantomime portraying their actions immediately preceding their initiation.

A short business meeting was held under the direction of the vice president, Iona Shaw, junior, Great Falls, Montana.

Refreshments of punch and cake were served by Barbara Blauch and Marie Harris, who were on the refreshments committee.

Other committees for the occasion were, initiation, Mr. William White and Miss Irene Shipley; decorations, Mrs. Edith Huebert, junior, York, Miss Jean Mattingly of the English department, and Mrs. Ruth Auchard; program, Fred Vorce, freshman, Brookfield, Mo., and Merwin Kurtz, sophomore, Alton, Kans.

Alpha Psi Omega is a National Honorary Fraternity. The Eta Kappa cast on the York campus was organized in May, 1938. Members in this organization are privileged to remain active after leaving school. Off campus members attending were: Irene Falk, '46, and Harold Wochner, '39, both of York.

College To Have Picture Exhibit At Uniting Conference

York College is to have an exhibit at the Uniting General Conference of the Evangelical and United Brethren churches to meet in the First United Brethren church in Johnstown, Penn. November 16, according to President D. E. Weidler.

A display of sixteen pictures eighteen by twenty-four inches showing York college will be placed in the exhibition of church schools which is a part of the conference. The display will be held in the First Evangelical church of Johnstown.

The pictures are now being fitted with title plates and hanging cords by Mrs. Josephine Hartsaw, the art teacher. They will be taken to the conference by President Weidler.

Five York College girls traveled to Lincoln last week-end to attend the University Homecoming celebration. They witnessed the football game between Nebraska and Missouri.

Observe National Education Week

Schools and colleges are called upon to build peace into the hearts and minds of men, to train young people for leadership needed to carry out the purpose of the United Nations Organization, and to prepare children for global understanding.

National Education Week starts November 10. All over these United States, schools, colleges, universities, and churches will set aside this week for special observation.

Education in America today is the greatest hope for its future. Only learned people of learned lands can work together to insure a lasting and intelligent peace. The students of today are the statesmen of tomorrow who will be able to prevent a third World War. Education is the best weapon to use in the fight for truth and peace.

Support The WSSF

On the campus next week will be a representative of the World Student Service Fund. He will tell of the hardships of the European students. He asked American students to give of their material wealth to those who are poor materially, but whose quest for truth and knowledge has not been quenched.

European students, whose schools have been bombed or burned, and whose education has been held back by years of war are eager to start their education again. They are eager to learn the mysteries of this atomic age and to make use of the educational advantages that Americans have. They, too, want to study to help to bring about world-wide fellowship. They want to have part in establishing a just, durable, and intelligent peace. We of America where educational advantages are so plentiful, can help European students to travel the path of knowledge, if we will. Will you do your part?

Do You Have A Well-Balanced Social Life?

There are three types of college students: the one who is an introvert and anti-social; the one who is the extreme opposite and has "an iron in every fire"; and the one who has his social life and extra-curricular activities well balanced and integrated.

College life is accentuated by the many social organizations on the campus. We don't have time to join them all, but we do need the social training that they give. A well-balanced social life on the campus can be attained by joining one or two of these organizations.

The PALS and Zetas who are carrying on membership campaigns now are two of the finest social organizations on the campus. Each student can benefit by becoming affiliated with one of these. Consider them carefully, and join one.

We don't want to be known as "anti-social" nor as having no time to do anything because we are too busy trying to do everything. We want a well-balanced social life and we want to be in college activities. Consider each organization and join as you see fit.

It Pays To Advertise . . .

"Things are getting funnier all the time," dryly remarked Dr. E. I. Doty after one literary society had made an announcement in chapel. He echoed the sentiment of many of the college students who have watched with interest the mounting competition between the PALS and the Zeta literary societies.

As is the tradition at the completion of Homecoming activities, the members of the two societies launched campaigns for the pledging of new members. Immediately, signs, chapel announcements, sung jingles, slides on a screen, sandwich men, etc. made their appearances.

The conventional "Sky's the limit" seemed to serve as an incentive to the PALS. An airplane which bore the banner, "Join PALS" swooped down over the campus several times showering it with paper bombs which contained candy and motto cards.

As the Saturday night skate progressed, evidence of the Zeta campaign was observed when prospective members began wearing the purple Zeta pledge pins.

Monday morning students were pleasantly surprised to hear music broadcast from the college tower. The music, which continued between class periods throughout the day, was interspersed with novelty commercials by Zeta members.

Although the rivalry is keen, and each society wants new members, their main goal is for each student to

They Tramped These Halls

By Prof. J. C. Morgan

Former students of old Avalon College, Trenton, Mo., are sponsoring a movement to commemorate the school by the establishment of an "Avalon College Chapel" in the newly erected United Brethren Church in Trenton. The plan is for the college alumni to equip the chapel in the church to be dedicated to the memory of the college. Mr. Charles Joslin of Parsons, Kans., is heading the project and is being assisted by Dr. C. H. Crandall, pastor of the church. The dedication service will take place, probably, in early November. Among leaders in the church who were at one time associated with Avalon College, have been Bishop C. J. Kephart, Prof. and Mrs. H. M. Ambrose, Prof. W. S. Reese, and Dr. F. W. Stiver-son.

The following Y. C. students at the Bonebrake Theological Seminary took a leading part in the pageant given in connection with the observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the school: Rev. F. D. Cody, '45; Rev. Robert Tupper, '45; Rev. and Mrs. LeRoy Bott, '43 and '45; and Rev. Bruce Herrick, '44.

A large number of alumni were present for the Homecoming. The historian noted the following: Mrs. H. A. Dierdorff; Rev. and Mrs. Paul Riggs, '23; Rev. Paul Clark; Mr. Elmond Holbrook, '41; Mr. Edwin Seward, ex-'45; Miss Esther Megill, '46; Rev. Lowell Herrick; Rev. and Mrs. H. V. Riggs, Leander Clark, '14; Rev. and Mrs. Harold Megill; Rev. and Mrs. Russell Dunlop, '42 and '39; Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Edgar, C. C., ex-'13, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bedient, '40 and '44; Miss Margaret Fitchett, ex-'48; Miss Eunice Stauffer, '46; Miss Betty Stauffer, ex-'48; Rev. Paul Porter, '15; Miss Blanche Leach, '46.

There were present at the Homecoming sixteen members of the Riggs families. So it seems they get the prize for attendance. It is also of interest that 22 members of this clan have been or are students at Y. C.

Hi-Lites from Chapel Talks

By LOUIS RACHOW

"To resist the glory of God means defeat for ourselves and for the purpose of God," declared Pres. D. E. Weidler in a recent formal chapel address. "We must learn discipline; we must submit to things that are right and good for us. Jesus insisted that it is the individual who is important and significant in the sight of God," continued Pres. Weidler.

In conclusion Pres. Weidler emphasized the idea that life is a challenge which calls for our greatest effort. We must set our goal to achieve the greatest self-realization in this life and in the life hereafter, he added.

"When God touches the hearts of men the inevitable result is enthusiasm," declared Prof. W. C. Noll, head of the biological science department, in the last formal chapel address. "Men's hearts are stirred and their lives multiplied more today than ever before when God breathes the breath of divine grace into man."

Prof. Noll continued by saying that our nation is saved if our homes have the touch of God. The trend during the next few years will be determined by the influence of the home.

BOOK LURE

By Barbara Blauch

Richman? Poorman? Beggarman? But is that a practical way to decide your future? Some books in our library might furnish a more practical guide for your planning. Read "The Doctors Mayo," to see how an ill wind did blow some good. It helped convert a small town practice into an international institution.

Maybe you sling a mean typewriter and dream of being a second Winchell? "Biographies of Famous Journalists," collected from Saturday Evening Post stories, will show how others before you have succeeded in the profession.

How about a music major? Sullivan's "Beethoven, His Spiritual Development," deals with one of music's greatest names. The book is not technical, but discusses two universal subjects, music, and human life, in a way that the average amateur can understand. The author, who died in 1937, is the son of an Irish sailor. He was not a musician, but a mathematician—and he was one of those men with great potentialities, but few opportunities.

Why not be president of the U. S.? It's one way to assure yourself of a place to live. The White House was one government building ready for occupancy when school began. "Woodrow Wilson and the Great Betrayal," has been recommended by many critics as excellent reading material for every American.

Its author, Thomas Baily, is professor of history at Stanford University, and has written many books on international affairs. In 1944 he published "Woodrow Wilson and the Lost Peace," which should serve as a good foundation for this latest work in the Wilson era.

Here's a book entitled "The American Prison System," by Fred Haynes. But wait, this might put the wrong light on your future plans, so don't read it with the idea of investigating the system for yourself—the hard way.

YORK DUMPS STERLING 17-7

Panthers On Short End of Score; Fall 19-13 to Broncos

Again the York College Panthers missed by six points winning a conference game this season, as they fell 19-12 to the Hastings College Broncos at Hastings Nov. 1.

It was a hard fought battle the first half as Speece's usual words of encouragement, "fight fiercely, fellows", really took effect. The half-time score showed a 6-6 tie and marked the first time this season that the Panthers have scored against a conference team during the first half of a game.

The Broncos scored in the first quarter after a York punt went out on the York 36. Two passes, Perdue to Horsham and Regier, carried the ball to the York 7, from where Warwick scored. Try for point was no good.

In the second quarter the Panthers scored. After taking the ball on the Hastings 40, Cleo Campbell on a naked reverse ran 40 yards to score. Try for point was short.

Again in the third quarter Hastings scored after driving from their own 49. Rader carried the ball over from the three. Try for point was wide.

The Panthers threatened to score, too, after a long aerial from Bob Schneider to Denny Auchard carried the ball to the Hastings three. A powerful Hastings line held the charging York line and the threat was stopped.

Hastings started another drive in the last quarter from their own 36. Jim Perdue scored and the extra point was good.

Taking over on their own thirty, the Panthers scored their second touchdown on a 45 yard pass from Bob Schneider to Cleo Campbell who with two men on him plucked the ball out of the air and raced the remaining 25 yards to score. Ross Speece converted.

York threatened again in the dying minutes of the game. Schneider passed to Campbell from the Hastings 40 to the 15 as the game ended.

It was Cleo Campbell who kept York in the ball game with his pass snagging, kicking, and running. Schneider's passing was outstanding, completing four out of six for long gains. Auchard made a nice catch of one, and a good run.

AROUND THE CONFERENCE

By BLAINE RONNE

"Hold that Tiger" is probably the central idea in the Nebraska College Conference at present. Jim Dutcher's Doane college Tigers appear to be the likely winners of the conference with only one game left with an underdog Chadron team on Nov. 15. The Kearney Antelopes have a chance of ending up on top, too, if they can get by Peru and Midland. The conference games this week are: Wesleyan at York; Midland at

Doane	4	0	1
Kearney	4	1	1
Wesleyan	1	0	2
Peru	3	2	1
Wayne	2	2	0
Midland	2	3	0
Hastings	1	2	1
Chadron	0	3	0
York	0	4	0

The Panthers have been playing without the services of ends Wayne Kaeding and Bill Johnson and center Bob Dicus. All three are suffering from leg injuries. Kaeding will be out the rest of the season.

Some football fans may not understand the sudden appearance and disappearance of number 40 and 50 jerseys in the Panther backfield. These jerseys are worn by Bob DeBoer, right guard, and Cleo Campbell, fullback. Coach R. E. Tonkin has been using both in the fullback slot and at the guard position, switching them back and forth on the offense.

The "B" squad has taken two "on the chin". They lost 26-6 to the Doane college "B" squad, and 31-0 to the Wesleyan "B" crew. Their touchdown against Doane was the first of the season.

Panthers Rally to Win Homecoming Game

Suddenly coming to life in the fourth quarter, the York college Panthers defeated a recalcitrant Sterling, Kans., college eleven 17-7 before a cheering homecoming crowd on the East Hill turf.

On the opening kickoff, the Warriors marched to the York 19 where they were stopped cold. York took over the ball and reversed the procedure carrying the ball back to Sterling's 11 as the first period ended.

As the second quarter opened, the Warriors stiffened their defense and the Panthers were held for no gains. At that point, Speece dropped back and attempted a field goal which split the uprights through the middle putting York in the lead 3-0.

The Warriors came back after taking the ball on the York 47 to score with Bradford and White carrying the ball and White scoring from the 10. White converted on a line plunge.

Near the end of the second quarter, Bradford intercepted a York pass near the midfield stripe and raced to the York 5 where he was run out-of-bounds. The Panthers buckled down and held the Warriors, taking the ball over on their own 4 as the half ended.

A blocked Warrior punt in the third quarter, which was recovered by the Panthers on the Sterling 49, started a drive which netted six points. Campbell carried to the 42 as the quarter ended. DeBoer, Graff, Speece and Campbell plowed their way to the Sterling 26. Denny Auchard, behind good blocking, speeded 26 yards to score and Speece converted.

After the kickoff, Bradford fumbled and York recovered on the Sterling 29. Auchard picked up 12 yards and Campbell another two. On a double reverse, Don Haberman went around right end to score and again Speece converted.

Again in the last quarter, Bradford fumbled and York recovered on the Warriors' 18. After failing to gain, Bud Feemster attempted a field goal from the right side of the field which was short. Sterling took possession of the ball as the game ended.

It was Sterling's Bradford who caused all the headaches for the Panthers. His line plunges accounted for most of the visitors' 158 yards gained by rushing.

Campbell and Bob DeBoer caused most of the trouble for the Sterling team, consistently pounding the line. Speece, despite an injured leg, did an exceptionally fine job of kicking extra points.

The Panthers' line work showed better than usual, but their passing was poor, as they failed to complete any, and had four intercepted. Their blocking was good at times, but their tackling still had the "hug me" effect.

Upperclass Women Defeat Freshman In Annual Game

35-24 Victory Determines Upperclasses As Winners of Homecoming Day Contests

Before a large Homecoming crowd, the upperclass women scored a 35-24 victory over the freshman team in the basketball game that determined the winner of the freshman-upperclassman contests.

Scoring in the first few minutes of the game, the upperclass sextet held the lead till the final whistle, in spite of the hard-playing frosh team.

Elsie Walker, sophomore, Santa Cruz, N. M., took scoring honors with 14 points to her credit, while Opal Anderson, freshman, York, and Margaret Gonzalez, freshman, Albuquerque, N. M., paced the losers with 8 points each.

With Opal Anderson, as captain, the members of the freshman team were Margaret Gonzalez, Ernestine Garcia I, Albuquerque, N. M.; Ernestine Garcia II, Santa Fe, N. M.; Cynthia Campbell, Trenton, Mo.; Pauline Smeltzer, Fulton, Mo.; Clarolynn Meeker, Enid, Okla.; Irene Brandenburg, Russell, Kas.; Stella Pankratz, Harlem, Mont.; Molly Rafter, Harlem, Mont.; Norma Ruth Ehler, Johnstown, Colo.; Virginia Wade, Enid, Okla.; Lydia Gomez, Santa Fe, N. M.; Bernice Dvorak, Swisher, Ia.; and Alpha Lucas, McLouth, Kas.

Homecoming Success Due To Work of Various Committees

Credit for the success of the program of activities on Homecoming Day goes to various committees appointed by the General Committee, which was selected by the Student Council and Panther club. Dr. Charles Bisset served as chairman of this general committee with Prof. Myron Holm, of the education department, Miss Maybelle Taylor, college librarian, Wanda Miller, sophomore, Russell, Kas., Marie Harris, junior, Great Falls, Mont.; Fred Vorce, freshman, Brookfield, Mo., and Cliff Rhoades, sophomore, York, assisting him.

J. Hill Anglin, senior, Amistad, New Mex., served as chairman of the morning program committee. The members of the committee were: Jane Martin, junior, Concordia, Kas.; Ethel Brooks, junior, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Dick Foulk, senior, Adrian, Mich.; Bob Gilles-

HATS OFF!

Hats off to the United Brethren Church of Brookfield, Missouri! When the York Panthers traveled to Chillicothe to meet the C. B. C. "Ducks" in football they were greeted with a cheer, much to their surprise, according to a member of the team.

The Brookfield church was present 26 strong as a result of the chartering of a school bus by the minister. "It was an act that shows York College support does not end in York county or with the alumni," declared the Panther spokesman.

Music Notes

The York College Chorus sang at the State United Christian Youth Movement Fall Retreat held in York on Thursday, October 24. Their numbers were, "Honeytown" by a local composer, the late J. A. Parks, and "Babylon Is Falling", arranged by Noble Cain.

Dick Riggs, sophomore, Ames, Iowa, sang several numbers at the United Brethren church at Cotesfield on Sunday, October 27. He was accompanied by Harold Holton, freshman, Russell, Iowa. Oren Reger, sophomore of Amherst, contributed a piano solo to the same program.

Wanda Miller, sophomore, and Irene Brandenburg, freshman, spent last week-end at their homes in Russell, Kas.

Winifred Smith, '44, was a recent campus visitor. Miss Smith is attending medical school at Omaha.

pie, junior, Glendale, Calif.

The chairman of the banquet committee was Mary Miller, hostess of Hulitt Hall. Assisting her were: Nadine Allen, senior, Delaware, Okla.; Lee Miller, junior, Ventura, Ia.; Mrs. Manson, supervisor of the college dining hall.

Wanda Wantz, senior, Shelby, was chairman of the banquet program committee. Her assistants were: Kenny Hicks, senior, York; Mrs. J. W. Hartsaw, art instructor, Ivalee Mizell, sophomore, Dellvale, Kas.; Eunice Goodrich, junior, Portland, Oregon.

Denny Auchard, junior, Alexander, Kas.; Clarolynn Meeker, freshman, Enid, Okla., and Merwin Kurtz, sophomore, Alton, Kas., were the members of the parade committee with Margaret Webb, senior, Omaha, and Prof. W. C. White, director of social activities co-chairmen.

Hi-Lites from Homecoming Speeches

By Louis Rachow

Evaluating the meaning and purpose of Homecoming, the Rev. Arthur C. Core, newly appointed Conference Superintendent, presented the main address to the Homecoming Day visitors at the college church immediately after the crowning of the queen.

"Homecoming day is a day of recollection and rededication," said the Rev. Mr. Core. "It is a great day for students, for parents, and for alumni, and promises to be a greater day next year and in the years to come with a greater Y. C. in the future."

Prof. J. C. Morgan, head of the classical language department, spoke in behalf of the alumni, in the absence of Mrs. Paul B. Porter of Aurora who had expected to be present. Prof. Morgan stressed the need of Christian education.

"The safety of the college is through Christian education," declared Prof. Al Zerwekh, head of the chemistry department, who spoke in behalf of the faculty.

V. D. Martin of Concordia, Kas., who represented the parents, stated that the faith of the parents is the making of the college.

Suzy missed Basin's "pan" in the cheerleading line-up on Homecoming. Glad to see you back in there pitching at Hastings, Dick!

"Snitz" is a "prince of a fellow", Maybe that's why he is so attracted by a certain "queen".

Dick and Margie are the two fastest characters on the campus, in the races, naturally!

1947 MARATHON TO BE LARGER SAYS L. HUEBERT

The 1947 Marathon will be a larger yearbook than its predecessor published in 1946, according to Lee Huebert, editor. A larger student body, more participating advertisers, and increased student sales insure a Marathon at least ten pages larger than the last book.

Bill DeVriendt and the Capitol Engraving Company will assist the staff in putting out the book. The printing is to be done by the North Printing Company of Lincoln. Both of these firms aided in the production of last year's annual.

Both junior and senior classes have had their pictures taken, while freshmen and sophomores are to go before the lens November 18, 19, and 20.

Holst Takes Top Honors In Bowling League

Aloyis Holst, sophomore, Red Wing, Minn., copped top honors at the first meeting of the College Bowling League with a three-game average of over 165. Floyd Taylor, professor of physics and assistant to the coach, shared top game average with Holst by matching his 174 high game.

Teams 2, 3, and 6 emerged victorious in two out of three starts. The teams are captained by: Don Robson, junior, Thayer; Galen Munsinger, sophomore, Speed, Kas.; Prof. Floyd Taylor, Dick Bason, freshman, Des Moines, Iowa.; O. J. Yates, freshman, Phoenix, Ariz.; Cleo Campbell, junior, York.

The College Bowling league is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. The league standings are as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pins
2.....	2	1	1732
3.....	2	1	1478
6.....	2	1	1670
1.....	1	2	1622
4.....	1	2	1416
5.....	1	2	1750
