

Honor Students Named In Delta Lambda Mu Chapel

Honor students of the previous year were named in a chapel program presented Nov. 3 by Delta Lambda Mu, the alumni honor society. Prof. Bruce Herrick, '44, department of philosophy and religion, program chairman, introduced the speaker for the morning, the Rev. Vaughn Leaming, '41, director of public relations, and the special music presented by Mrs. Bertha Riggs Boone, '41, of York.

Delta Lambda Mu members are graduates of York College who had an average grade of 88% or more while carrying at least 30 hours per year in their college course of study.

Representing the organization, the Rev. Mr. Leaming gave an inspirational talk emphasizing the need to make Christ the point of reference in the search for truth. He illustrated this theme by allowing the letters of the word CHRIST to stand for courage, heart power, righteousness, inspiration, and truth.

Mrs. Boone sang two numbers, "Voice of Spring" by Strauss and "Sing a Song of Six-pence" by Diack. She was accompanied by Prof. Herrick.

"Each of these qualities is needed to find 'truth' and each is received through Christ," stated Rev. Leaming.

Honor students whose names were read are as follows: seniors of last year earning Magna Cum Laude signifying an average of 90-93 were Marjorie Thornton, Billings, Mont., 93.63%; H. J. Walter Koester, York, 91.53%; Alden B. Sears, Velarde, N. Mex., 91.42%; Lee Huebert, York 90.63%; students with an average of 88-90% and eligible for Cum Laude were Richard J. Foulk, Adrian, Mich., 89.98%; Elizabeth Jane Anderson, Arlington, Colo., 89.24%; J. Hill Anglin, Jr., Amistad, N. Mex., 88.68%; Walter Grover Millett, Strang, 88.55%; Amy Lois Anderson, Billings, 88.34%.

Juniors of last year were Mary E. Karraker, York, 93.93%; Denny Auchard, Alexander, Kans., 91.94%; Eunice M. Goodrich, Portland, Ore., 91.54%; Hope Howland, Kansas City, Kans., 91.35%; Iona Shaw, Great Falls, Mont., 91.15%; Lois Shanefelt, Central City, 90.94%; James D. Townsend, York, 90.73%; Ethel Brooks, Cedar Rapids, Ia., 90.67%; Louis Rachow, Strang, 90.66%; Marie Harris, Great Falls, Mont., 90.46%; Jean Rasp Schneider, York, 90.36%; Jasmine Ingraham, Sewal, Ia., 82.28%; Gerald Edgar, York, 89.09%; Leland Miller, Ventura, Ia., 88.49%; Everett Thornton, Millings, 88.11%.

Sophomores named were Harriet Thomas, Topeka, Kans., 92.06%; Wanda Miller, Russell, Kans., 92.04%; Norma Jean Anderson, York, 91.34%; Mary Alice Riggs, Ames, Ia., 91.23%; Vivian Olson, Imperial, 90.80%; Willa Roberts, Fairbury, 90.36%; Barbara Blauch, York, 90.31%; Claude McMinn, York, 89.56%; Doris Jean Canon, Philomath, Ore., 89.21%; Eugene Harnish, Luray, Kans., 89.18%; Bonnie Ackland, Ames, Ia., 88.81%; Robert Dicus, York, 88.78%; John Richard Shapland, McCool, 88.73%; Elsie Walker, Santa Cruz, N. Mex., 88.27%; Anna Kamm, Platte Center, 88.05%.

Last year's freshman honor students consisting of only the upper ten per cent of the class were Melvin Thornton, Billings, 91.89%; Denzel Dyer, McCool, 91.87%; John Reger, Amherst, 91.27%; Bernice Dvorak, Swisher, Ia., 90.81%; Barbara Dick, DuBois, 90.59%; Robert DeBoer, York, 90.39%; Pauline Smeltzer, Fulton, Mo., 90.34%; Alfred Kilpatrick, York, 90.34%; Mabel Stahly, Milford, 90.10%; Mary K. Jackson, Adrian, Mo., 89.97%; Dorothy Woodruff, Des Moines, Ia., 89.77%; Robert Schneider, York, 89.68%; Velda Beedy, Agra, Kans., 89.67%; John Holm, York, 89.54%.

Those receiving honorable mention were Jane Martin, junior of Concordia, Kans., 29 hours, 92.35%; Irene Brandenburg, Edgar, freshman of York, 29 hours, 90.10%; and Jeanne B. Anderson Kurtz, freshman of York, 20 hours, 89%.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Edgar, (Irene Brandenburg), senior and sophomore respectively, spent a recent week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brandenburg, in Russell, Kans. Wanda Miller, junior, accompanied the Edgars to Russell to visit her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Miller.

omore, The Dalles, Ore.; and Donald Erfourth, freshman, St. James, Minn.; were arrayed as a Chinaman, a pirate, and a little girl respectively. Norma and George Harris, freshmen, York, who arrived after the unmasking, were given the floor and made to identify themselves.

The gym was appropriately decorated in black and orange crepe paper, garnished with pumpkins, candles, and skeletons. The adjustable skeleton hanging over the center of the floor caused quite a sensation when dropped on some unsuspecting skater. Apples were given to all who attended.

Expression Department Presents Program

A preview of the entertainment to be expected from the expression department this year was presented in the chapel recently by students under the direction of Miss Irene Shipley of the speech and dramatic art department.

The program consisted of a series of readings as follows: "She Liked Him Real Well", by Andrew Waules, and "The Wife He Wants," by John Stevenson, read by Mary E. Karraker, senior of York; "Guiseppi Buys an Automobile" and "Guiseppi Visits the Dentist" by C. A. Morena, read by Ethel Brooks, senior of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; "Mr. and Mrs. K." anon., read by Iona Shaw, senior of Great Falls; and "University Days" by James Thurber, read by Barbara Blauch, York.

Miss Shipley states that the following seniors will give recitals during the school year: Hope Howland, senior of Kansas City, Kans.; Marie Harris, senior of Great Falls, Betty Jean Noll, senior of York, Jean Schneider, senior of York, and Iona Shaw. Other recitals have been planned, and will be announced later.

Special Dinners To Be Given In Hulitt Dining Hall

Recently instituted in the dormitory dining hall is a special dinner and program to be a weekly event on Tuesday night for the regular boarders. This plan was inaugurated, according to the dining hall committee, to encourage cultural improvement and create a more social atmosphere in the dining hall.

The first dinner included a special menu provided by Mrs. Clem Manson and Mrs. Grace Medsker, cooks at the dining hall. The tables were decorated with center bouquets of flowers, candles, and individual place mats. Dinner was eaten by candlelight. After the dinner, Jane Martin, senior, Concordia, Kans. and Prof. Bruce Herrick of the Department of Religious Education led group singing. Richard Riggs, senior, Ames, Ia., sang several vocal numbers.

The dining hall committee is composed of two students from each class chosen by the class. Mrs. W. S. Luper, the hostess of Hulitt Hall, and two other members of the administration. Future plans for varied programs to be given each Tuesday evening are to include local, student, and guest entertainment.

Frances Porter, freshman, of Aurora, visited her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul B. Porter, over the week-end.

Dr. J. C. Morgan of the classical languages and Bible departments spent a recent Sunday in Lincoln where he spoke at the Southminster E. U. B. church.

Mrs. R. J. Mead and Mrs. Francis Stinnette of Imperial, were recent overnight guests of their daughter and sister respectively, Carol Mead, freshman.

Four Y. C. Students Chosen for Who's Who In American Colleges

Denny Auchard, Ethel Brooks, Robert Gillespie and Jane Martin Selected

Four York College seniors were chosen by the faculty to be included in the "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The basis of consideration is character, scholarship, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and potentiality for future usefulness to business and society. On this basis the following seniors were chosen:

Denny Auchard, the president of the Student Council, is from Alexander, Kans. Mr. Auchard was awarded the Jack Dempsey Trophy last year for being an "all-round" athlete. Co-captain of the football team, he has also lettered in basketball and track. He is a member of the Y-Club, Y. M. C. A., and the Zeta Literary Society. Mr. Auchard has acted as assistant mathematics instructor for the past two years. He is interested in mathematics and the coaching field. On completion of college, Mr. Auchard plans to take some graduate work before entering the teaching profession.

Ethel Brooks, president of the Y. W. C. A., is a senior from Cedar Rapids, Ia. She was out of college two years previous to her senior year teaching in the grades. Miss Brooks is teaching a course on the Principles of Religious Education this year and is also assistant to the hostess of Hulitt Hall. She spent two summers as a member of a Bible School Team. Miss Brooks is a member of PALS, African Project chairman in Recruits, and Christian Social Relations chairman of the Missionary Guild. Her plans are to enter the field of education.

Bob Gillespie, Glendale, Calif., is majoring in mathematics. He is an active member of Zeta Literary Society, Y. M. C. A., and the Y-Club, of which he is the secretary. Mr. Gillespie lettered in football and tennis, and also was a member of the basketball squad. He was conference champion in tennis singles last year. Mr. Gillespie was a member of the Marathon staff last year and is on the writing staff this year. Former Panther club president, he was one of the Freshman Court judges this year. His tentative plans are to continue his work for a Master's degree in Physical Education.

Jane Martin, Concordia, Kans., is lab assistant in her major field of chemistry. During her college career she has been active in Life Work Recruits, Y. W. C. A., PALS, and the college women's Missionary Guild, of which she has been the president for the past two years. Miss Martin is also president of the senior class. In the field of music, she has been a member of the Chapel Choir, has led in group singing, and done solo work. Miss Martin's plans for the future are not definite, but she would like to go to Europe to do some phase of social work.

Halloween Featured At College Skate

JANE MARTIN, PAULINE SMELTZER, DELMER WAY, AND WILLA ROBERTS WIN PRIZES.

Jane Martin, senior, Concordia, Kans., and Pauline Smeltzer, sophomore, Kansas City, Mo., were awarded first prize as the best dressed couple from Harlem at the Halloween skate.

The "cutest girl" present was Delmer Way, sophomore, Surprise, who won the award for the best man's costume. The large pumpkin which skated in the "ladies only" was unveiled to reveal Willa Roberts, junior, Fremont, the winner of the ladies' contest.

Honorable mention went to unidentifiable Martin Hasenkrug, sophomore, Great Falls, Mont., and fancifully adorned Mrs. Don Light, York, in the couples entry and clown Frances Porter, freshman, Aurora, and Harold Walker, junior, Santa Cruz, N. M., in the singles.

Messiah To Be Given Dec. 14

The annual performance of Handel's Messiah will take place on Dec. 14 at the college church. It will be conducted by Prof. James Koontz of the music department. Miss Eda Rankin, head of the piano department, will accompany the chorus at the organ. Harold Holton, sophomore, Russell, Ia., pupil of Miss Rankin, is serving as accompanist during rehearsals.

The York College mixed chorus will form the nucleus of the singers, and other students and townspeople will make up the total.

College Song Fest Held

A song fest was held on the college track field one recent Monday night. About seventy-five Y. C. students gathered about a blazing campfire to spend an hour singing songs. The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. sponsored the event and chose this time to initiate new chorus books the joint societies have purchased.

Students and Faculty Attend Play in Lincoln

York College students and faculty attended the play, "Joan of Lorraine," at the University Theatre in Lincoln October 30, and November 1. This is the first of five plays to be given by the University Players.

Those attending were: Mrs. Lee Huebert, senior, York; Doris Jean Canon, junior, Philomath, Ore.; Fred Koontz, sophomore, Des Moines, Ia.; Norma Jean Anderson, junior, York; Gerald Bailey, freshman, York; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Edgar, senior and sophomore respectively, York; Clarence Mabon, senior, Phillips; Prof. and Mrs. Al Zerwekh, chemistry department; Miss Jean Mattingly, English department; Mrs. Ruth Auchard, publicity secretary; Prof. Bruce Herrick, philosophy and religion department; and Dean and Mrs. W. J. Karraker,

WILL YOU BRUSH ME OFF, PLEASE?

We love our campus and we are proud of it. Especially are we proud now that we see little improvements appearing day by day. We appreciate the new walks and steps; we approve of the interior decorating that is being done and we like to day dream a little about the plans for the immediate future.

While we walk around with our proud chins held high, we drop little pits of paper on the lawns and form new paths across the campus. A little effort on the part of each one would keep everything looking at its best. We've got a new coat and it's hung where everyone can see it. Let's keep it brushed off!

ON MONKEYS AND MARBLES

There seems to be an old fable about a monkey who saw a bottle nearly filled with beautiful colored marbles. At the moment nothing could have been more desirable to the monkey than to possess those marbles; so logically enough he thrust his hand into the jar and grabbed a handful. But his plan failed when he started to withdraw his hand. Because his fist was full of the marbles, it was too big to slip through the mouth of the bottle. Therefore he sat there desperately clinging to all of the marbles and thus getting none.

To the students on our campus are presented many brightly colored marbles in the form of activities, programs, concerts, library books, magazines, and friends. They are laid out in tempting array and are to be had for the taking. Too often we as students thrust our hands frantically into the bottle and grab wildly. Then we sit by sadly because we have the marbles but they are still bottled up. They don't belong to us.

When we, as well as the monkey, get wise, we'll select those marbles which we want to belong to us permanently and concentrate on getting them from the bottle. Then their true value will be ours always.

Use "That Something" Everyday

Use that "something" which causes people to push on upward and outward until they have become outstanding persons. This was the advice of the Rev. F. C. Friederich, pastor of the First Methodist Church of York, in the last formal chapel address.

"We are composed of a physical and a spiritual part, the dust of the earth and the breath of God," declared the speaker. "We must recognize that "something" in us that pushes us onward. That "something" and us, with the help of God, will help us to be really successful in life; therefore use that "something" everyday."

"York College is very fortunate to have a fine man like Walter Bachman for president," said Dr. J. Gordon Howard, president of Otterbein College, in an interview with a Sandburr reporter during the Homecoming celebration.

Asked about York's sister college, Otterbein, he pointed out several differences. There are five fraternities and seven sororities on the campus and much of the social life in concentrated around these organizations, he said.

Otterbein has just completed a new student union which has a social center, a grill, soft drinks, and social rooms for organizational meetings.

Like York, Otterbein has been having a bad football season this of your Lord, and guard the truth," declared the Rev. Vaughn Leaming, director of public relations, in a recent formal chapel program. "The gift of God will die unless it is used and nourished."

The speaker continued by saying that too often we, as Christians never get close to the heart of God. We must not dally in civilian pursuits if we are in the army of God, he said.

Prevent Tuberculosis

Speaking on behalf of the Nebraska Tuberculosis Association, Miss Violet DuBois of the Nebraska State Health Department, presented interesting facts on the use of chest X-rays in the prevention of severe cases of tuberculosis, at a recent chapel program.

"An X-ray will show tuberculosis long before one becomes ill," said Miss DuBois. "The purpose of X-rays is to locate the disease in the earliest possible stage. Chances for curing tuberculosis are excellent if it is discovered early and if treatment is started at once."

year with a record of one tie, and two losses. Last year they had a championship team but with the same material this year they seem unable to get any victories under their belts.

"We are located in Westerville about ten miles from Columbus which is a very satisfactory location. It is close enough to a city to get the advantages of it and far enough away to miss many of the disadvantages," commented Dr. Howard.

"I haven't been in York since before 1940, and I find the changes which have been made very progressive," Dr. Howard said. "Even more satisfactory are the plans which have been laid for the future," he continued.

They Tramped These Halls

By Prof. J. C. Morgan

The address of Miss Alma Tress Lundman who taught in Y. C. 1930-41, is 218 Southworth, Plattville, Wisconsin. She is teaching in a state college there.

Miss Vivian Olsen, ex-'49 who is working in the office of the Evangelical United Brethren Mission of Freetown, West Africa, writes an interesting letter concerning her trip and early experiences in Freetown. "We left New York by 'Pan-air' on July 17 and arrived in Dakar, Africa, on the 19th. We were delayed en route one day in Lisbon and 2½ days in Dakar. Sightseeing and taking pictures filled the day in Portugal. Red-roofed houses jutting out from the hillsides, oxen-pulled carts, open-air street cars, palm-lined streets, geraniums in abundance everywhere and people carrying loads on their heads were among the sights." She is thrilled with her new work, enjoying her surroundings, and visiting up-country stations.

A letter from Rev. Robert and Lorena Hunt, '42 and ex-'44 of Sierra Leone, Africa, is as full of news as a copy of the Sandburr. Their trip was not so quick as Vivian's as they were delayed longer at Dakar. Union college where the Rev. Mr. Hunt is teaching is attended by 76 boys from different tribes and denominations. The several British denominations and the Evangelical United Brethren cooperate in maintaining the school. The Hunts are beginning their work with zest and eager anticipation. Their letter is full of items of information.

T/Sgt. Robert Morgan, ex-'43 sends a clipping from the army newspaper, The Stars and Stripes, relating to rain making in Germany. "Rain-making became a reality in Germany yesterday, (Sept. 7) as army pilots caused a 45 minute rainfall by dropping liquid carbon dioxide on a cloud near here (Munich). Taking off from the Munich air-base, a C-47 flew into a moisture-laden cloud at 12,000 feet and emptied the contents of a 50 lb. carbon dioxide container. As they neared the base they dropped another container at 11,000 feet. The result, according to weather officials, was .81 inches of rain." Plans are being arranged to precipitate rain over the farm areas of Bavaria that need it most.

The Coufal sisters, Edna ex-'47 and Evelyn, who are employed by our State Department at Helsinki, Finland, recently enjoyed an extensive trip over Europe. They visited such historic cities as Copenhagen, Amsterdam, Paris, Geneva, and Luxembourg. Their letter describing what they saw on the trip makes both interesting and informing reading.

Wedding:

Miss Doris Grewell, ex-'40 and Mr. Walter H. Epke, Sunday, September 21, at York, where they will make their home.

Birth:

T/Sgt. and Mrs. R. S. Morgan, ex-'43 announce the birth of a daughter, Susan, October 27, Munich, Germany.

Seniorities

Eunice Goodrich . .

"Talented" is the word to describe Eunice Goodrich, a senior from Portland, Ore. She is much in demand as a pianist and also as an artist.

Eunice is a member of Y. W. C. A., Pantherettes, Student Council, Recruits, and PALS. Last spring, she was elected May Queen of York College.

"My favorite hobby when I am home is deep-sea fishing," said Eunice. Other outside interests are and skating. "I enjoy watching people's hands," she said.

Eunice is majoring in English. Her minors are Education and Commercial Arts.

"My pet peeve is a roommate who talks in her sleep constantly," said Eunice with a sly smile.

Louis Rachow . .

The quiet young man who spends much of his time behind the counter in the library is Louis Rachow, of Strang.

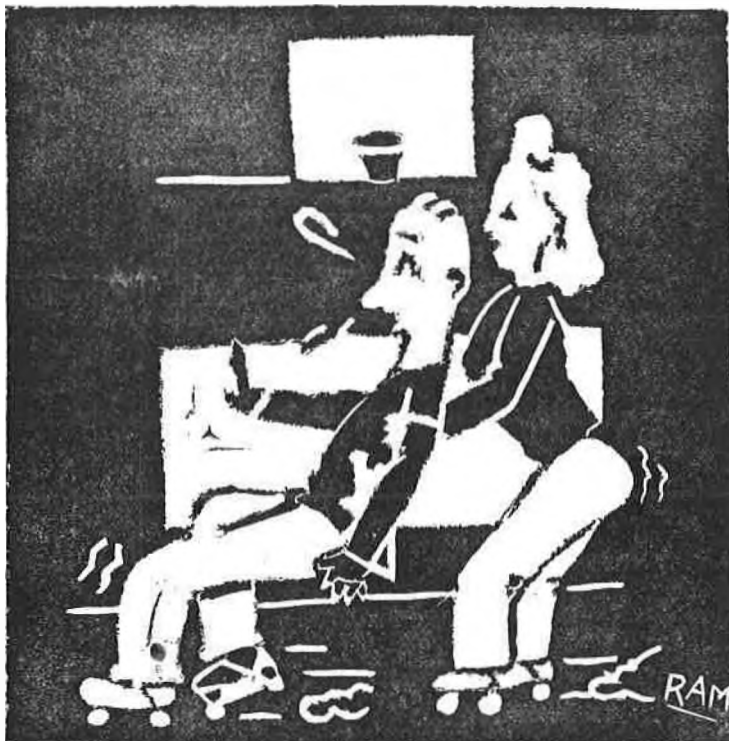

"Louis" is majoring in Chemistry and his minors are English and Mathematics. After graduation he hopes to have a career in a chemical research field.

Writing is one of his main interests. He is a regular reporter on the Sandburr staff and is a member of Press Guild. He served on the Marathon staff last year.

Louis is active in campus organizations. He is a member of PALS, and Y. M. C. A.

His extra-curricular activities are centered around 4-H activities, writing, and stamp-collecting.

Pauline Smeltzer, sophomore, Fulton, Mo., and Alberta Bethke, freshman, Whittier, Calif., spent last Saturday in Lincoln shopping.

Oh! Oh! Charlie! No Brakes!

A Close Shave . .

by a Junior Coed

Of all the great days in history, October 25 ranks as one of the greatest—ask any Y. C. woman. That was the day the "line" was UNbearded in its den! When luck was against the football team, some of its members sealed a solemn pact: no victory, no shaves. In spite of the cries of horror from the "shrieker" sex, a faint bluish tinge appeared on the physiognomies of many noble specimens. With the approach of each game, Hope rose, (Wayne grew one, too). But melancholy returned as adverse circumstances, and a low score, kept the team from winning. The five o'clock shadows began to look more like midnight, and the Shick company organized a picket line in front of the administration building.

Before the Sterling game, desperate women grimly waited, contemplated suicide, and kept their distance. Came the fateful day, and fortune practically giggled at them, for Y. C. won the game, and in consequence the team no longer looks like an ad for Smith brothers and that, dear children, is the only close shave we've ever been thankful for!

Panthers Romp to a 40-0 Victory Over Chillicothe

Linemen and Backs Score Touchdowns In Wild Fourth Period

A Panther team that ran wild in the fourth quarter gave the crowd that braved the cold misty night thrills and more thrills as York flashed to a 40-0 victory over the Chillicothe B. C. Ducks in York's last home game. This was the second win for the Panthers this season.

The first and last quarters were the scoring stanzas for York. The Panthers took the opening kickoff and marched 73 yards for a touchdown. Gifford scored from the 3 yard line and Speece kicked the point. From then until the fourth quarter the team bogged down.

In the last quarter the Panthers really warmed to the attack. They advanced from their own 42 to the Ducks' 25 when Speece got away for six points. Schneider carried the ball over for the extra point. On the third play after the kickoff, DeBoer intercepted a Duck pass and the Panthers never relinquished the ball till they scored. A pass to DeBoer from the 27 yard line was the scoring play. Speece's kick was good. Chillicothe received. Watson intercepted a Duck pass and raced 51 yards for a touchdown, with Isaacs throwing the key block. Schneider kicked the point. The Ducks again took the kickoff but on the second play fumbled, and Martinez scooped up the ball and ran 45 yards to score. Once again Chillicothe received. A fifteen yard penalty brought the ball back to their own 9 yard line. The Ducks fumbled and Shaneyfelt recovered the ball across the goal line for the last York score.

The Ducks threatened to score late in the third quarter when York was assessed a 15 yard penalty which brought the ball to the Panther 5 yard line. Two line bucks netted the Ducks one yard. They then tried a pass which Gifford intercepted in the end zone for a touchback.

The teams were evenly matched in weight and all players played a good game. The Panthers' blocking was vastly improved.

With the taste of two straight victories, the Panthers may make it an interesting ball game at Wesleyan tomorrow night.

York Wins Over Sterling College

Before a Sterling College homecoming crowd, the York Panthers chalked up their first win of the season by defeating the Warriors 7-0 Saturday afternoon, October 25.

Early in the second quarter, a lateral to DeBoer advanced the ball 35 yards to the Sterling 11. Gifford then tossed to Auchard for the only touchdown of the day. Speece made the kick.

The Panthers threatened two other times during the game. In the first and fourth quarter, they drove to the Sterling five yard stripe only to lose the ball on fumbles. The Panthers recovered two of their seven fumbles.

Sterling's only threat came as the first half ended when White took a thirty yard pass from Bradford and was knocked out of bounds on the York one foot line. Playing time had ended during the run.

York piled up a large yardage on the offense and allowed the Warriors only three first downs. The Panthers had to punt only twice during the game.

Denny Auchard suffered a rib injury and Ross Speece suffered a cut under his left eye that required two stitches to close.

Starting lineups were:

The picture as to who's who in the Nebraska College Conference is beginning to clear up a bit now. Wesleyan's 8-0 win over Doane last Saturday night placed Wesleyan in undisputed first place in the conference race. Wesleyan is now the only undefeated team in the conference, but the Plainsmen must defeat both York and Hastings in order to remain in first place at the end of the season.

The week ending October 24-25 brought about the following scores: Wesleyan defeated Peru by a 19-9 score; Doane edged by Kearney 3-0; Hastings nipped Wayne by a close 9-6 score; Chadron smothered Midland to a 25-0 win; and out of the conference York defeated Sterling College, Sterling, Kansas, 7-0 in their homecoming game.

Last week Hastings won over Peru by a 12-7 score; Morningside beat Midland 15-0; York romped over Chillicothe Business College of Chillicothe, Mo. to the tune of 40-0; Chadron defeated the Spearfish South Dakota Teachers 13-0; Kearney stopped Wayne by a 14-7 score; and in the highlight game of the week, Wesleyan defeated Doane 8-0.

Thanks From Doane

Coach R. E. Tonkin recently received a letter expressing gratitude for assistance given Dick Punches, Doane center, at the critical stage of his injury, and for hospitality shown during his stay in the York hospital. The letter was signed by Coach J. L. Dutcher of Doane College.

"Accidents of that type often strain the feeling between institutions," the letter said, "but that one certainly has been to the contrary."

Wesleyan, Peru To Entertain York In Final Games

Tomorrow night, York College will journey to Lincoln where they will play Nebraska Wesleyan. Last year Wesleyan won over York 26-0. Again this year the Panthers are definitely the underdogs, but Wesleyan will have to play sixty minutes of football to win—if they do.

Next Friday night the Panthers will tangle with Peru at Peru. Last year Peru romped over York 32-3. This year the Panthers hope to turn the tide. This game will be the last game of the season for the Panthers. So the fellows will be doing their best to end the season right.

Cubs Defeated By Doane 32-0

Leading 12-0 at the end of the first half, the Doane College B team went on to win a 32-0 victory over the Panther Cubs. The game was Doane's all the way as it seemed that the York team was unable to make any sustained drives. The Cubs were trying hard but they could not break Doane's spirit to win.

The Cubs played their last game of the season last Tuesday against Hastings' B squad on the York field.

PALS-Zeta Literary Societies End Campaign With 78 New Members

As the result of one of the most prolific and varied campaigns in a number of years, according to students and faculty, 78 new members were received into the PALS and the Zeta Literary Society.

A change in the routine pledging system was instigated this year. The time of advertising and pledging was reduced to one week and each society had its "card signing" done by a committee of three members. In addition to the two open meetings were held within a week of each other instead of the traditional two weeks.

Advertising included singing stunts in chapel, a miniature newspaper, a "sandwich dog" lettered fluorescent light bulbs, serenading the various houses, an exhibition of skating, book marks, advertisement flashed on the screen, decorated "Con" napkins, and a general burst of display posters on every subject from beauty to fortune telling. In addition there was the "mouth to mouth propaganda" method.

The new members were voted into the organizations on Wednesday, October 29, and they will be initiated some time in the near future, it was announced.

I.R.C. Plans Chapel Program

A program with different members of a panel representing the ideas held by various factions of world thought is being planned for chapel in the near future, according to an officer of the I. R. C.

For a recent program Harold Walker, vice president of the club, junior, Santa Cruz, New Mexico, passed out Life magazines and after a very brief period asked various members to make a report of what they had learned.

This was a prelude to a talk given by Clarence Mabon, senior, Phillips. Mabon told of the importance of pictures in the news, and pointed out that members had been able to get a complete idea of the article by a short study of the pictures.

He told also of the life of Robert Cappa, one of the most colorful of all news photographers. "Mr. Cappa's life has been a series of exciting incidents," said Mabon, "and though his name is fictitious, it is also nearly legendary among people in the newspaper world."

"Why Do They Do It? Is Theme of G. M. G.

"Why Do They Do It?" was the theme of the October meeting of the Girls' Missionary Guild which met at the home of Irene Edgar, sophomore, York.

Mary Jackson, Adrian, Mo., as leader had the program divided into three parts in which three questions pertaining to the main topic were discussed.

In the first part talks on why missionaries go into the foreign fields were given by Bernice Dvorak, sophomore, Swisher, Ia.; Betty Jean Riggs, sophomore, Merna; and Willa Roberts, junior, Fairbury.

"Why are missionaries willing to make sacrifices?" was illustrated in a story told by Lucille Keefe, senior, Tiferner, Tex., in which two doctors sacrificed to cure each other.

The last question under discussion was, "Why are we willing to do Christian work?" Each girl present helped answer this question by writing the answers to the following questions: "Why did I join Girls' Missionary Guild?" "Why do I go to Church?" "What will be my greatest task for the coming year?"

PRESS GUILD PRE-VIEW

A comparison of College newspapers in the N. A. C. and a review of the "Scholastic Editor" will be given by Barbara Blauch, Marathon Editor, junior, York, and Harriet Thomas, Editor, junior, Topeka, Kans., respectively at the regular Press Guild meeting, November 13.

Pastor's Duties Presented to O. B. N.

Pointing out the complexities and responsibilities of the work of a modern pastor, the Rev. A. E. Rodewald, pastor of the local Nazarene church, addressed the OBN, campus pre-ministerial organization, at a recent meeting.

"Just as Moses laid his armor down, so will the leaders of today lay theirs down," he said, "and you must take their places as Joshua took the place of Moses. Only a man who is truly called of God can hope to succeed in the complex task of a pastor, he added.

Position, salary, and the size of the church served are not to be considered in measuring a minister's success, according to the speaker, but only the harvest of souls he can reach by his efforts.

"According to the standards of many, your lives may be failures," he said, "but the applause of men is not a sure yardstick."

Success of any pastor, the speaker said, must be judged by (1) the vitality of his relationship with God; (2) his ability to mingle unselfishly with all kinds of people without character taint; and (3) his refusal to compromise with things not acceptable to Christ.

Faith Megill, sophomore, Arkansas City, Kan., recently visited friends in her former home town, Hutchinson, Kans.

Recent Recruit Subjects Include "Stewardship" and "Lost Sheep"

Shepherd Theme Led By Ethel Brooks

SEWARD DISCUSSES STEWARDSHIP

A lighted picture of "The Lost Sheep" by Ralph Coleman served as a worship center for a recent meeting of the Life Work Recruits. The evening's service, entitled "The Lost Sheep," was led by Ethel Brooks, senior, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Describing the life and tender care of a shepherd and his sheep in Jesus' time, Miss Brooks told of the hardships each endured. The complete program included a poem "The Lost Sheep", read by Bonnie Ackland, junior, Ames, Ia.; scripture by Eugene Weaver, freshman, Tulsa, Okla.; a solo, "Because He Loved His Own", by Mary Alice Riggs, junior, Ames, Ia.; and a duet "The Shepherd of Love", sung by Lois Miller, freshman, Dawson, and Mary Alice Riggs.

Wendell Seward, freshman, Burwell, led the Oct. 27 meeting of Life Work Recruits on "The Stewardship of Life Work".

"There are opportunity-takers, opportunity-makers, and opportunity-breakers," said Seward. "Which of these types does Jesus find in you? A steward must be found faithful."

Using the words of the hymn, "Where He Leads Me I Will Follow", the leader stressed their meaning and the entire group sang the song. The program included: prayer by Lois Riddle, sophomore, Brookfield, Mo.; scripture by Faith Megill, sophomore, Arkansas City, Kans.; a solo, "Our Best", sung by Gerald Witham, junior, York; and benediction by Norma Harris, freshman, Nelson.
