Seeking a YOUTH MINISTER

The Conejo Valley Church of Christ is actively searching for a full-time Youth Minister to complete our ministry team. We are a congregation of 200+ members, including two dozen families with youth (6th-12th grades). We are located in Thousand Oaks, California, just northwest of Los Angeles, among several suburban communities and near Pepperdine University. Our vibrant youth group has a long track record of participating in and leading summer youth camps, mission trips, and area-wide youth events.

We seek someone who will partner with Conejo parents, church leaders, and other Southern California Youth Ministries to motivate and guide our youth to embody Christ-centered, Spirit-led lives in service to God in ways that will be a blessing to others. An ideal applicant will have a degree in Ministry, Theology, and/or Biblical Studies, with experience in leading at youth events and worship, teaching classes for young people, participating in hands-on community relief efforts, etc.

Compensation will include a competitive full-time salary (based on education/experience) and a complete benefits package.

Applications should provide educational and employment history (salaried and volunteer), a brief spiritual history, and three Letters of Reference from recent ministerial colleagues and educational mentors.

Applications can be submitted to john.downey@conejochurch.org no later than March 31, 2025.
