About CLCC

County Line Christian Church is a warm and welcoming independent Christian congregation located in the picturesque rural area of Axton, Virginia. Serving a close-knit community of around 250 people, the church is dedicated to fostering spiritual growth, community involvement, and family values.

The church offers a vibrant worship experience every Sunday, complete with a dedicated Sunday school hour that provides engaging biblical education for all ages. The Sunday school program is designed to deepen the faith and understanding of both children and adults, ensuring that everyone feels connected and enriched by the teachings of Christ.

In addition to the main worship service, County Line Christian Church hosts a Junior Worship session, tailored specifically for younger members of the congregation. This service includes interactive lessons, music, and activities that make learning about faith enjoyable and accessible for children.

Recognizing the importance of nurturing the next generation, the church also boasts a dynamic children's and youth program. These programs offer a variety of events, including weekly gatherings, special outings, and community service projects. Through these activities, children and teenagers have the opportunity to build strong friendships, develop leadership skills, and deepen their relationship with God in a supportive and fun environment.

County Line Christian Church is more than just a place of worship; it is a hub of community life, where faith and fellowship go hand in hand. Whether you are looking for a spiritual home, a place to grow in your faith, or a supportive community, County Line Christian Church welcomes you with open arms.
